*A*re you looking for a special way to honor the memory of a dear one, or to make an anniversary, birthday, graduation, birth or other event more meaningful?

Consider a contribution to Andrew Carnegie Free Library & Music Hall or its Honor and Memorial Book Fund.

Gifts in any amount are welcome, and with each gift a special acknowledgement card will be sent to whom you designate.

If you wish to establish a Book Memorial, a plaque will be placed in a new book with the name of the honored person and the donor's name. You, the donor, may select the subject matter for the volume. The books will be selected by the library.

If you are unable to come to the Library, you can mail this form or telephone us at 412-276-3456.
