

JUNE 24, 2017

DEFEND LIBRARY HILL!

A Civil War Trust Generations Program

Calling all recruits to preserve the Union! With Robert E. Lee's army pushing through Central Pennsylvania, the time to serve your country is now. Enlist in the Union Army for a day and experience what it was like to be a Civil War soldier.

Share your passion for history with a child for this special "Generations" event sponsored by the Civil War Trust and the Andrew Carnegie Free Library & Music Hall.

Recruits will enlist, learn the school of the soldier, experience camp life, visit the regimental doctor and earn an honorable discharge from the Army.

The event is FREE, but online registration required:

<https://www.civilwar.org/events/generations-pittsburgh>

For questions call, 202-367-1861

Bring the Civil War to Life!

10:00 AM to 12:30 PM

Registration Required

Boys & Girls Welcome

Ages 7—14 years

An adult must accompany child for the entire program.

The Civil War Trust Generations Programs promote teamwork, leadership, ethics and responsibility.

EVENT LOCATION:

ANDREW CARNEGIE FREE LIBRARY
& MUSIC HALL
300 BEECHWOOD AVE.
CARNEGIE, PA 15106
412-276-3456

SPONSORED BY THE:

CIVIL WAR TRUST
1156 15TH STREET NW
WASHINGTON, DC 20005