Free summer program for kids

Remember to register for this free hands-on experience made available by Glaxo Smith Kline, Carnegie Science Center and your local library.

Who: Up to 20 young patrons in each session beginning 2nd – 6th grade this fall.

What: Step into the shoes of a Sports Scientist! Perform experiments in Chemistry and Materials Science. Explore the ways diet and exercise can affect an athlete. Discover how Science can support your favorite player as they achieve.

When: 6/20/2017 - 6/23/2017
10:00 – 11:00 am = 2nd & 3rd grade
11:30 - 12:30 pm = 4th – 6th grade

Where: Andrew Carnegie Free Library
300 Beechwood Avenue
Carnegie, PA 15106

Why: In addition to a free hands-on experience and cool take home projects, at the end of this week participants will understand how a future STEM career in athletics can relate to their lives today.

How: Space in each session is limited. Please see your local librarian Elizabeth Shedlock for registration details.

What is it?

GSK Science in the Summer™ is a fun and free science education program sponsored by GSK for students entering grades two through six. Summer is the perfect time for kids to discover the wonderful and fascinating world of science through hands-on activities!
