

Brown Bag Lunch Lecture features

The History of Pop-up Books

Elizabeth Mahoney

Professor of Library Science at the University of Pittsburgh

Wednesday, October 18th, 12:00 – 1:00pm

Join us for an entertaining talk on the history and lure of pop-up (movable) books. Elizabeth Mahoney, Professor of Library Science at the University of Pittsburgh, has been collecting these rare treasures and is our guest speaker for our Brown Bag Lunch Lecture. A sampling of her collection will be on display.

Bring your lunch or a snack and we'll provide the beverages.

CONTACT:

Diane Klinefelter

412.276.3456, x9

klinefelterd@einetwork.net

LOCATION: Lincoln Gallery