

Members of the American Legion D. Paulson Foster Post 82, here in Carnegie, took the time to clean and repair the World War I Memorial on Beechwood Ave. earlier this year.

The Memorial was pressure washed, the railing painted, the retaining wall rebuilt and shrubs planted. Mortar work was done on the base of the Memorial and the sidewalk in front was repaired.

