The Suffrage Movement

19. Pennsylvania was the seventh state to ratify on June 24, 1919.
20. Wisconsin became the first state to ratify the amendment on June 10, 1919.
21. The US Senate passed the amendment on June 4, 1919.
22. In the eight days after the 19th Amendment officially took effect, August 26, 1920, 35 women cast a ballot for him.
23. While there are multiple citizens who have been cited as the first to vote after the 19th Amendment, an article in The Saturday Evening Post.
24. In 1920, there were rumors that the Democratic party were considering selecting Franklin Delano Roosevelt as a candidate for the presidency.
25. Franklin Delano Roosevelt became the first president whose mother was able to vote with her son.
26. In 1922, anti-suffrage sentiment was at an all-time high, but it failed in the Senate by two votes. A few months later, Congress continued that this reform should be "unqualifiedly supported to the utmost.

The 19th Amendment does not directly mention women. Instead, it says:

"The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex."