History of the Class of '47

We're freshmen! We're grown-ups now! That's what we thought back in '43, until it was proved negatively when a few of us green ones were dragged into biology lab and put under a strong microscope for upper classmen to see if they could watch photosynthesis take place in our bodies. Then it was that we realized that we were only big little shots. We did have a party though. This group became so exclusive that it was limited to freshmen only. Having been entertained by the talented ones of our class, we proceeded to the gym for dancing, games, and refreshments. Competition was keen, but the boys finally chose a Queen and the girls a King. Were they ever cute, too! Of course there always was good taste in our class!

Before we knew it, the year had passed and we were sophomores, looking down on those poor little freshmen! We even had class officers! Aggressiveness was in our blood. Different from former classes, we had our Sophomore Dance at Harding School in the evening. There was a colossal turn-out to the Big Top Shuffle. Numerous decorations were very appropriate, and the dance under the "big top" was a huge success.

That year was the birth of our ever fascinating canteen at Harding School, where we've been spending our week-ends dancing ever since.

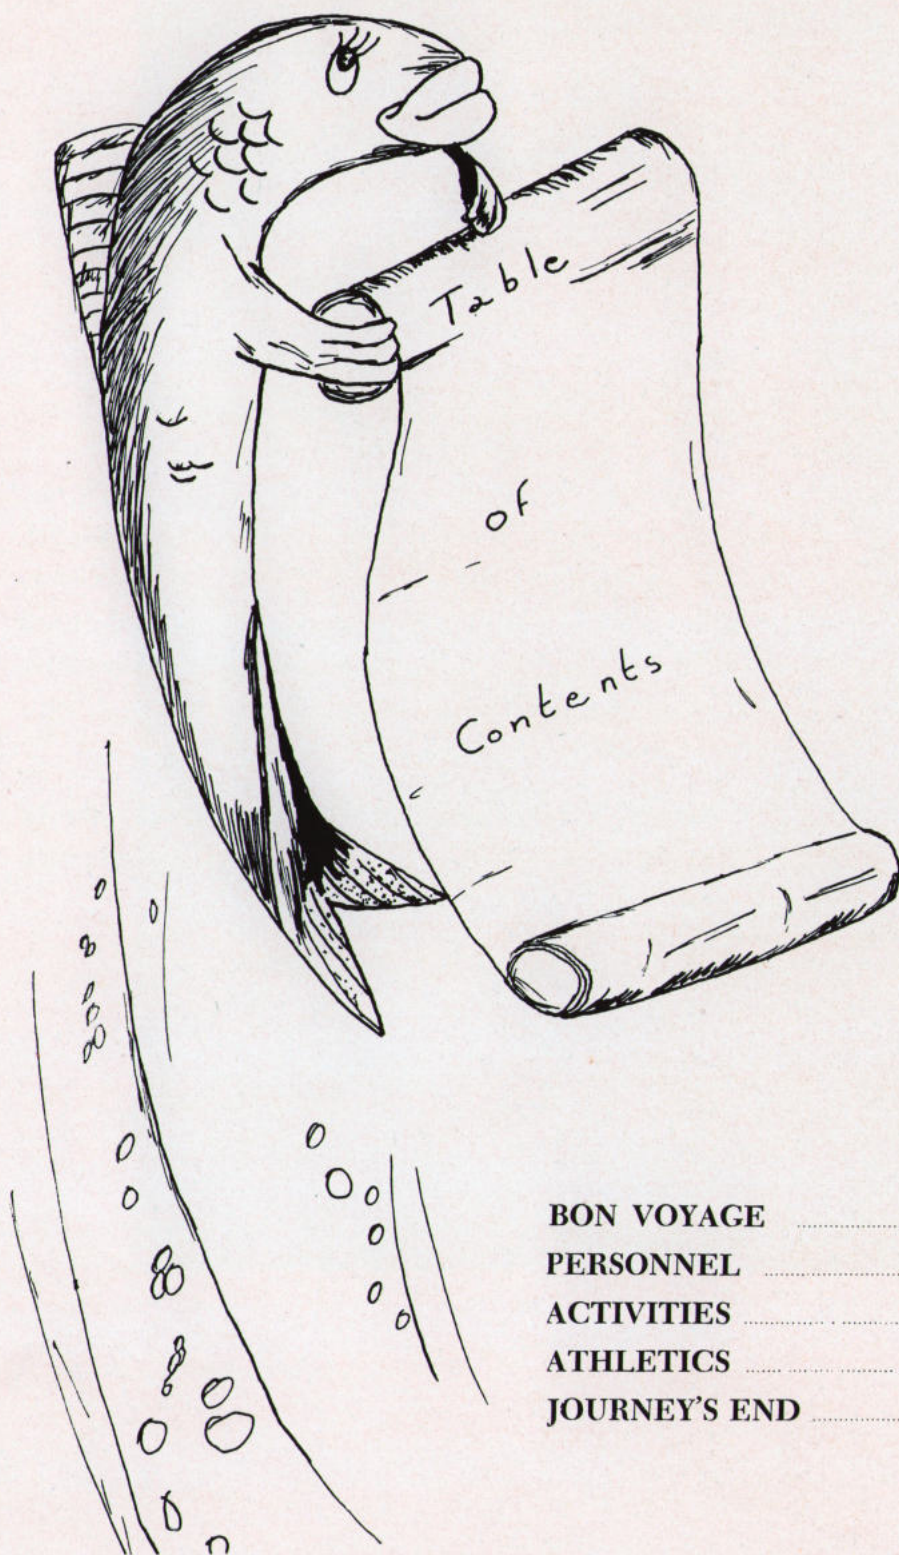

Now, how did we get to be juniors so rapidly? Lucky juniors! We got our class rings two weeks after the seniors got theirs! That year we had our formal; green and white was the color scheme; and did we have an expensive orchestra! It was at Harding, but to us it was better than the Waldorf-Astoria.

Seniors! Already?

Now we are the big shots. In fact, one member of our class weighs 240 pounds—no less! We really feel proud when we see those underclassmen swooning when they see the good-looking, irresistible wrestlers, football and basketball players from our own class of '47. Our magazine campaign went over the goal. For winning, everyone got ice cream one eighth period. The lucky ones on the Black team also had cookies. (Take my advice, my lowly underclassmen, it pays to work and to win!) The senior dance was graced with snowflakes falling all around. All of the decorations were white and glistening like snow, except for a few branches of evergreen trees to set it off just right. A grand accomplishment was our three-act comedy, A DATE WITH JUDY, which received a tremendous ovation, from the large crowd which attended the performance. That proved we really have some stars.

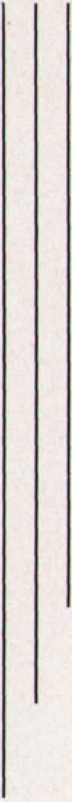

We were well represented in the Hearst History Contest, the Patrick Henry Oratory Contest, and the Junior Town Meeting of the Air.

The baccalaureate service was grand. Commencement came; we got our diplomas; our hearts turned heavy; our eyes just wouldn't control themselves; and we even felt a trifle like handing our diplomas back to Mr. Glasser and saying, "Won't you let us start back to high school all over again?" But, you will notice, we didn't.

Dedication

Small in stature, generous in character, that's our Miss Boyle. How she carries that big smile around, small as she is, is away beyond us. Her cocked eyebrow, quizzical smile, colorful clothes, and high-heeled shoes are all an integral part of her personality. She gets along with everyone and is usually helping someone—a rare person indeed.

So, with all due respect, Shorty, we would like to dedicate the 1947 VOYAGER to you. It's been nice knowing you.

Norman L. Glasser

Norman L. Glasser

Norman L. Glasser first came to the Carnegie Public Schools as a teacher of history and mathematics in the high school. In 1913 he became principal and served in this position until 1927, when, upon the retirement of Mr. George, he was made superintendent. For twenty-one years he has held this position to the satisfaction of the board. At the present time he is president of the Independent School Superintendents' Association of Allegheny County.

We, the class of '47, wish to express our appreciation to Mr. Glasser for his advice and help through our twelve school years, especially the last four.

Betty Jane Shiveley

Miss Shiveley

Miss Betty Jane Shiveley, Mr. Glasser's secretary, just misses being a redhead. Quiet and self-contained, she keeps her office ticking according to schedule.

H. Howard Lee

H. Howard Lee

Mr. Lee, our able and efficient principal, will be remembered by every student who has set foot in Carnegie High School. He will be remembered not only by those who glide into the office day after day (for certain reasons) but also by those who go there without a care in the world, except to get a few points of advice, which Mr. Lee is very good at giving. Mr. Lee will also be remembered by the entire VOYAGER staff as their financial adviser. He has always aided and boosted the sales campaigns so that the VOYAGER is paid for by the students without any outside help.

Although he has many worries on his mind and much work to do, he still manages to keep order in the halls.

Our complete thanks and appreciation go to Mr. Lee for the way in which he has guided us along our entire four years of high school.

Ruth Walton

Miss Walton

The smile you see lighting up Mr. Lee's office these days belongs to Miss Ruth Walton, a very new and welcome addition to our high school. She is called the overtime teacher because of her extra duties with wayward students after school.

The Board of Education

The Board of Education of the Carnegie schools consists of nine men. These members are elected for six years of service, new members being elected every two years. To this board falls the responsibility of making all the necessary rules for our schools. Also, the Board of Education supports all school activities, and it helped to organize the Teen-Age-Canteen. The Board of Education meets once a month in the office of Mr. Glasser, who puts into effect the rules made by the board. The members of the senior class as well as all the others are truly grateful to the Board of Education for providing the educational facilities in the schools.

Student-Faculty Committee

If you want to know why a certain dance comes on a certain day, ask the Student-Faculty Committee. If you want to know why your application for a certain club wasn't approved, ask the Student-Faculty Committee, for they have the final word in all such matters. This organization is the most important in the high school. Made up of student representatives and faculty members alike, it is the power behind all school activities.

The president is a member of the faculty, and the secretary is usually a student. Officers for 1946-47 are, president, Miss Nesbitt; secretary, Eva Sembrat; chairman of the Calendar Committee, Miss Boyle.

The whole school is represented, one student representative being chosen from each club and class, together with the faculty sponsors of all clubs and classes.

Class of '47

WILLIAM ABRAHAM

Glee Club, 4; Dramateur Club, 2; Student-Faculty, 2; Ring Committee, 3; Class President, 2; Sophomore Hop; Junior Prom; Senior Dance; President Hand Book Committee 3.

Abe is the Casanova of Room 14. He has those flirty, flirty eyes that the girls just adore. Proved his teaching ability in chemistry class.

JUNE ALTSTADT

G Clef, 4; Dance Committee, 4; G. A. A., 4; Volleyball, 4.

June admits her chief fault is shyness. Her pet peeve is chemistry problems, although she probably makes excellent marks. Her nickname, Candy, is very well suited to her. She is frequently seen with Sherrie.

ALFRED W. ANNESI

Varsity "C", 4; Football, 3, 4; Letter, 4; Ring Committee, 3; Sophomore Hop; Junior Prom; Senior Dance; Magazine Campaign 4.

Alf is the strong and dark type, but he is by no means quiet. He has a mania for football and is always talking about it with his many friends.

SHIRLEY BEAR

G Clef, 3, 4; Choir, 4; Dance Committees, 3, 4; Camera Club, 3, 4; Dance Committee, 3; Tri-Hi-Y, 3, 4, President, 4; Dance Committee, 3; Student Faculty, 4; National Honor Society, 3, 4; Volleyball, 3; See Staff, 4.

Mr. Sawhill gave Shirley a very appropriate nickname, Teddy Bear. She spends some time mediating between Isabel and Anne in their arguments about Russia. Bear has the cutest giggle, and she gets into more trouble through it.

ANN BILEWICZ

Volleyball 2, 3, 4; Basketball, 2, 3, 4; Hiking, 1; G. A. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; G Clef, 2, 3; Distributive Education, 4.

Annie's a lovely lass who has just about all the qualifications for being a model. But right now she's taking a course in salesmanship at Langley High School.

VIRGINIA BOEHMER

G Clef, 3, 4; Class Secretary, 3; Dance Committees, 2, 3, 4; Camera Club, 2, 3, 4; Secretary, 4; Dance Committee, 3; G. A. A., 2, 3, 4; Vice-President, 4; Dance Committee, 4; Student Faculty, 4; Volleyball, 2, 3, 4; Basketball, 4; National Honor Society, 4.

Seen with Shirl most of the time, Virginia seems to enjoy cracking her gum, especially in Latin class. Ginny has beautiful naturally wavy hair and a Pepsodent smile, although she says she uses Calox tooth powder.

FRANK N. BROOKLEY

A Cappella Choir, 4; Football, 3; Letter, 3.

Frank is one of our stars in geometry. He has that slow, rambling, nonchalant manner that is rarely found in the halls of C. H. S.

GERALDINE ROSE CAMAIONI

A Cappella Choir, 2, 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y, 3, 4; Commercial Club, 3, 4; Senior Play Character.

Gerry's the gal who gives with the bright original ideas. A wee bit on the serious side, she's a good student and works hard at it.

RUSSELL CATANESE

Duz is a very quiet member of our student body. And—can you imagine—has no interest in the weaker sex, or so he says. But being quiet doesn't keep him from having many friends. He is often called Sandy.

FRANK CERASINI

Band, 1, 2; Ensemble, 2; Varsity "C", 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramateur Club, 2, 3, 4; Wrestling, 1, 2, 3, 4; Letter, 1, 2, 3, 4; Senior Play.

Chic is Satan in disguise. Even though he is a little shy, he's still popular with the junior misses of C. H. S. He not only pleases them with his cute pranks, but he is one of our wrestling stars.

PHYLLIS CLAYTON

G Clef, 2; Choir, 3, 4; Triple Trio, 4; Class Treasurer, 1, 2; Dance Committees, 2, 3, 4; Camera Club, 2, 3, 4; Dance Committee, 3; Dramateur Club, 3, 4; Dance Committee, 3; National Honor Society, 3, 4; See Staff, 2, 3, 4; Editor, 4; Senior Play; Student Faculty, 4.

Phil with the long curls, the sweet editor of the C. H. S. monthly. Although her main hobby is dancing, Allan Roman takes up quite a bit of her time. She is forever saying, "Holy Cow!"

RUTH DANKS

G Clef, 3; A Cappella Choir, 4; Triple Trio, 4; Tri-Hi-Y, 3, 4; Basketball 3, 4; G. A. A., 2, 3, 4; Committees: G. A. A. Decorating, 3; Tri-Hi-Y Decorating, 3; Sports, 4; Senior Dance, 4.

Danks is that peppy little senior seen prancing through the halls of good old C. H. S. She's not very big, but she was tough enough to do a policing job at Carnegie Park last summer.

BETTY L. DOMBROSKY

Commercial Club, 4; Refreshment Committee, 2; Tri-Hi-Y, 4; Senior Dance, 4.

In our opinion, Sis is a true teen-ager. She's a cute little jitterbug, and those shining eyes and that shining hair really help matters along.

THELMA EVANS

G Clef, 2; Choir, 3, 4; Double Mixed Quartet, 3; Triple Trio, 4; Dance Committees, 2, 3, 4; G. A. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; Dance Committee, 1, 2; Student Faculty, 4; National Honor Society, 3, 4; See Staff, 1, 2; Voyager Staff, 4; Lead in Senior Play; Magazine Campaign Captain, 4; Basketball and Volleyball, 1, 2, 3, 4.

Tee Jay goes with a St. Luke's class ring, and a McDonald football. (That's what we call playing the field.) Has soft light brown bangs. In the magazine campaign, she was one of our faithful captains who led us to victory.

IRENE EVANSKY

G. A. A., 2, 3, 4; Dance Committee, 4; Commercial Club, 4.

Although she seems to be the serious type, Irene certainly is quick on the trigger. She lives a quiet life. Seems to favor St. Luke's men over Carnegie gents.

ANGELINE M. FONTANA

G Clef, 2, 3; Choir, 4; Commercial Club, 4; See Staff, 1, 4; Tri-Hi-Y, 4; Student Faculty, 4; Senior Dance, 4; Committees: Freshman Party; Sophomore Hop; Junior Prom; Junior Nomination.

Ange practically has her future all sewed up as secretary to a doctor. A brunette in the classic style, she looks good in everything she puts on. Truly a decorative person.

Class of '47

Class of '47

SHIRLEY FRAZIER

G Clef, 4; Dance Committee, 4; G. A. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; Treasurer, 4; Dance Committee, 4; Tri-Hi-Y, 3, 4; Vice President, 4; Dance Committee, 4; Basketball, 1.

The G. A. A.'s indispensable "dough keeper." She's the classic lassie with a smile and a "Do you have your dues?" for everyone. Knowing the money business as she does, she ought to make it a career.

ROBERT C. GEISLER

Glee Club, 3; Hi-Y, 2, 3, 4; Treasurer, 4; Varsity "C", 3, 4; Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Letter, 3, 4; Football, 2, 3, 4; Letter, 4; Junior Prom; Hi-Y Dance, 4.

One of our basketball stars is Bob. He is one of Miss Nesbitt's bad boys and, with the aid of Leroy, puts some life into the Latin Class.

THERESA GERRERO

Tri-Hi-Y, 3, 4; Commercial Club, 4; G. A. A., 3.

Terry's one of our future stenos. Has a girl friend who serenades her with the latest songs on the way home from school. If you get really chummy with her, maybe Terry will whisper to you that she's got a "fella" in the army.

JOE LEROY GIBBS

Band, 1, 2, 3, 4; Ensemble, 2, 3, 4; Swing Band, 3, 4; Dramateur Club, 2, 3, 4; Member-at-Large, 3; President, 4; Hi-Y, 2, 3, 4; Secretary, 3; Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Letter, 3, 4; Football, 3, 4; Letter, 4; Student-Faculty, 3, 4; Sophomore Hop; Junior Prom; Hi-Y Dance, 3, 4; Dramateur Club Dance, 3, 4; Senior Dance; Senior Play.

Being president of the Dramateur Club and an active member of the student body, Leroy gets around. He is very popular and his hearty laugh is well known by many in our school.

JEAN GOURNIC

G. A. A., 3, 4; Commercial Club, 4; Vice President, 4; G. A. A. Bowling, 3, 4; Senior Play Character.

Jean and Mary, the inseparables. She's a graduate of Racine's Restaurant. Everyone likes to watch her and and brother Paul's original style of jitterbugging.

BETTY ANN GOVEASZZO

Commercial Club, 4; Treasurer, 4.

Betty Ann's a rabid movie fan. She loafs mostly with her cousin Mary Catherine, also a senior. Betty's really unusual in one respect: she doesn't like to dance. She would much rather curl up with a good book—or so we hear.

MARY CATHERINE GOVEN

Commercial Club, 4.

This pretty, dark-haired Miss is employed as Dr. Connelly's receptionist. She'll be pretty well prepared to further her career in the business world.

JAMES F. HALL

Glee Club, 2; A Cappella Choir, 4; Dramateur Club, 3, 4; Football, 1, 4; Class Basketball, 1; Sophomore Hop, 2; Dramateur Club Dance, 3; Junior Prom; Band Concert Lighting Committee, 3, 4.

If you ever hear "shinny poo" while passing through the halls, you can be sure that Mulse II is near. He is one of our gremlins who take a particular delight in stinking up the lab. Trouble, terror and TNT could describe Mulse II. But he's not always a gremlin; and his pranks lighten heavy hours.

EUGENE V. HALUSZCZAK

That quiet and good-natured senior who "don't say much about nothing." Gene's quizzical smile shows that behind those piercing eyes there's lots going on.

DONALD HARRIS

Varsity "C", 3, 4; Vice-President, 3, President, 4; Football, 2, 3, 4, Letter, 4; Basketball, 2, 3, 4, Letter, 4; Voyager Staff, 3, 4; American Democracy Test, 4.

"Faithful in his fashion" is a phrase that can well be applied to Don. For proof positive just ask Marjorie. And if you've ever read any of his poems, you'll know he has a very serious side, too.

DOLORES HEGEMAN

G Clef, 2, 3; Distributive Education, 4.

Dee's the girl who can always come back with a witty remark! We wonder if her favorite food is still spaghetti?

MAXINE RUTH HEPLER

Commercial Club, 4; G Clef, 2, 3; G. A. A., 2, 3, 4; See Staff, 4; G. A. A., Dance Committee, 4; G. A. A. Bowling, 2, 3, 4.

Max bursts with pride over her brother Johnny, an ex-marine. With that white skin and black hair, plus "Person-ali-tee," she's a girl any man could be proud of.

LOIS M. HICKS

A Cappella Choir, 2, 3, 4; G. A. A., 2, 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y, 3, 4; G. A. A., Bowling, 2, 3, 4.

Hicksey is still true to that ex-marine she wrote to all during the war. That Camay complexion and those lovely hands.—Um-m!

EDNA HARRIET HINES

A Cappella Choir, 2, 3, 4; Triple Trio, 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y, 3, 4, Secretary, 3; G. A. A., 4; G. A. A., Bowling, 4; Junior Prom Committee, Senior Dance Committee; See Staff, 3, 4; Voyager Staff, 4; General Manager—Magazine Campaign, 4; Tri-Hi-Y Committee, 4; Senior Play Character.

Edna is very dependable as everyone knows. She is sincere in everything she does. Her smile would brighten even the darkest of days for anyone who knows her.

ISABEL HOUSTON

G Clef, 2, 3; Choir, 4; Dance Committees, 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramateur Club, 3, 4; Dance Committee, 3; G. A. A., 2, 3, 4; Dance Committee, 2, 4; See Staff, 1, 3, 4; Senior Play; Basketball, 4.

Diz can draw, type (after a fashion, that is) and, best of all, write poetry. Keeps Mr. Burkett guessing as to whether or not she is enrolled in his chemistry class. Has a yen for slipping over to the "See" room every free period.

MARILYN HOWK

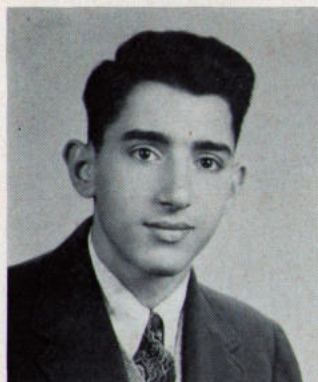

G Clef, 2; Choir, 3, 4; Triple Trio, 4; Dance Committees, 2, 3; Dramateur Club, 2, 3, 4, Treasurer, 4; Dance Committee, 2, 3; G. A. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; Dance Committee, 2, 4; Basketball, 1, 3, 4; Volleyball, 1, 2, 3, 4; See Staff, 1, 4.

A real cutie of C. H. S., her heart lies in the Pacific. She has an ambition to be a professional model, and we're sure Maggie will make a good one. Marilyn is very popular with both sexes.

Class of '47

Class of '47

SANDY ANTHONY INSANA

You can usually find Sandy somewhere with Duz. They both look alike, and being cousins doesn't help to clear the situation. Sandy is often called Duz.

BOBBIE IRVIN

G Clef, 3, 4; Dance Committee, 3, 4; See Staff, 1, 4; Tri-Hi-Y, 4.

Bobbie is always seen with a soph—Marie. She has a cute round face with big dimples and a twinkle in her eye. Secret admirer of a guy named Tex. Where does she get all of those candy bars?

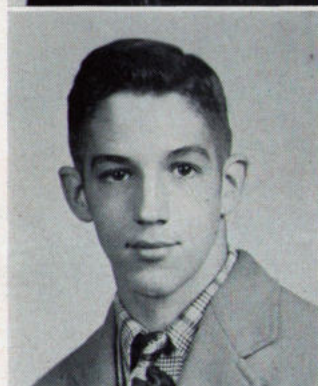

JAMES V. JOHNSON

If silence were golden, Jimmy would be a millionaire. There ought to be a law about quiet people who don't date girls 'n stuff.

ANNE JOHNSTON

Choir, 3; Voyager, 2, 3, 4; Editor, 4; Dance Committees, 2, 3, 4; Student Faculty, 3, 4.

Annie is little and cute with big blue eyes, but don't let her hear you say her hair has reddish tints. She appears to have a certain weakness for tall men. A nice weakness, if you can get it!

JACK KEISLING

Varsity "C", 4; Football, 1, 2, 3, 4, Letter, 4; Wrestling, 1, 2, 3, 4, Letter, 4; Junior Prom.

Jack is the son of our police chief, so, boys, you'd better get on the good side of him. He goes in for football body and soul.

SHIRLEY KENSINGER

G Clef, 2, 3, 4; Choir, 4.

Miss Coogle's girl. Have you ever noticed Sherrie's pretty blue eyes? Her best beau is James "Beaucoup Charlie" Hall. You never see her without the latest novel. Books are so educational!

JUNE H. KLEE

G Clef, 2, 3, 4; A Cappella Choir, 4; G. A. A., 2, 3, 4; G. A. A. Dance Committee, 4; G. A. A., Bowling, 2, 3, 4; G. A. A. Skating Party Committee, 4.

Junie must really be a family girl because she's so proud of her little nephew, who enters into her every conversation. She has so many ambitions that she keeps switching around from one to the other. At the moment, it's physical therapy.

BARBARA KNEPPER

G Clef, 2, 3, 4; Choir, 4; Dance Committees, 3, 4; Dramateur Club, 2, 3, 4; Dance Committee, 3; G. A. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; Secretary, 4; Dance Committee, 2, 4; Basketball, 1; Volleyball, 1; Voyager, 4; Senior Play.

It's not the quantity but the quality that counts. We must admit Barb's full of pep and snappy comebacks—all eighty-eight pounds of her. There's been a rumor that her favorite subject is Leo Latin. Some guys have all the luck.

KATHERINE KOSS

G Clef 3, 4; A Cappella Choir, 4; Commercial Club, 4.

Kay's a shy soul and yet not so shy to those who really know her. She's often called "Kush", a nickname she hates. Her pretty little voice has merited her a place in the choir this year.

EVELYN KOZY

G Clef, 4; G. A. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; Volleyball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball, 2, 3, 4; Dance Committees, 1, 2, 3.

Avie is a very big girl when you measure her with that pleasant smile she has for all. We might add her dancing proves to be pretty smooth.

ELVA MAE KRASS

G Clef, 3, 4; G. A. A., 2, 3, 4; Volleyball, 1; Basketball, 3, 4.

Krassy's another family girl. Ask her who she is and she'll say, "Pete Krass's daughter." She likes all kinds of sports and right now is all agog over learning to drive the family car.

MICHAEL KUZEMKO

While it's true that Mike is a little apt to doze in classes, he stays awake long enough to keep a long list of lasting friends.

ROBERT B. LANGER

Band, 1, 2, 3, 4; Ensemble, 1, 2, 3, 4; Swing Band, 2; Football, 2, 3.

Mole was the victim of a pretty serious accident last year which set him back a good bit in school. But extra work has brought him back up to average, and we are looking forward to his graduating with us.

EVA LAURENZI

G Clef, 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y, 3, 4; Commercial Club, Club, 4; Dance Committee, 2.

Eva is a likeable lass as we all know. She has the longest eyelashes of any girl in C. H. S.

FRANK LEMPERT

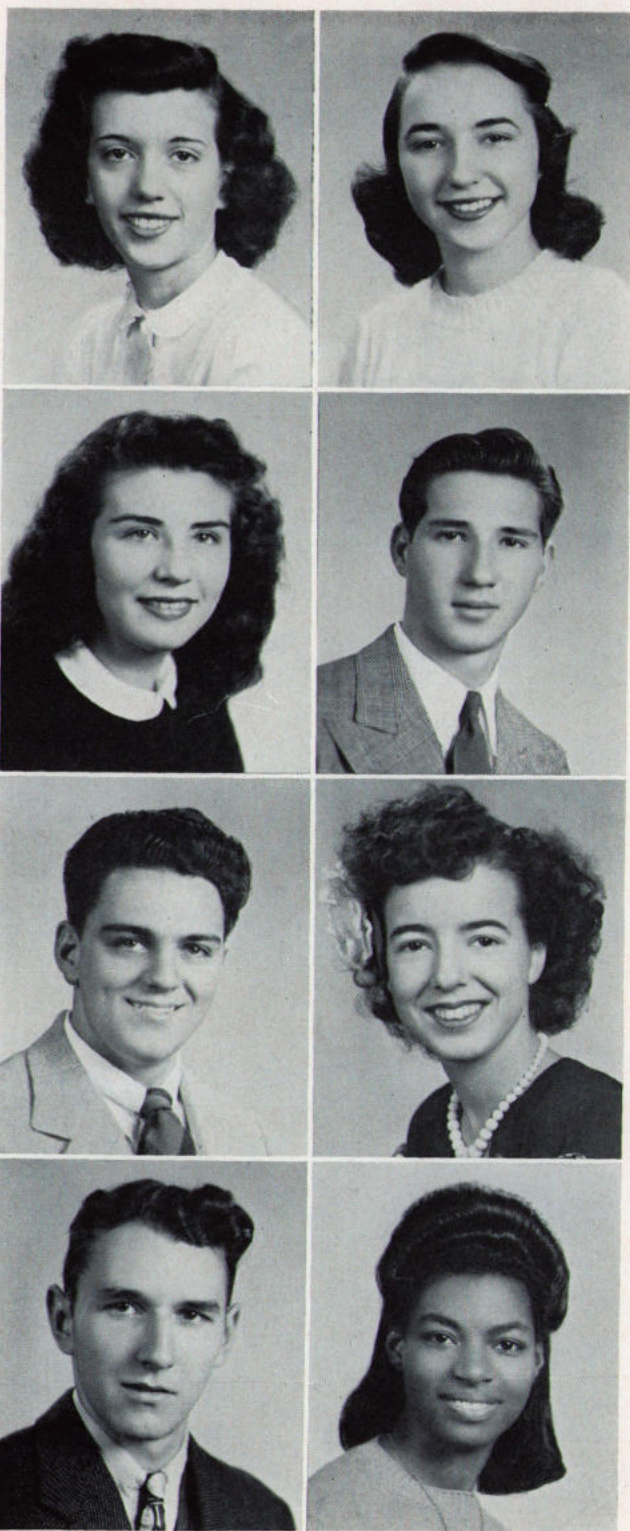

Hi-Y, 3, 4; Varsity "C", 4; National Honor Society, 4; Freshman Party; Senior Dance; Football Manager, 1, 2, 3, 4; VOYAGER Staff, 3, 4 Band Concert lighting committee, 3; Canteen Manager, 4; Oratorical Contest 4.

Frank can often be found driving around in the big family Oldsmobile. He is on the honor roll frequently and can be recognized by the erectness of his carriage. Just call him the human perpendicular.

MARY LOUISE LEWIS

G Clef, 2, 3, 4; A Cappella Choir, 4; G. A. A., 4; Volleyball, 3.

You can always see Mary working hard on her Latin—just like everyone else. Maybe that's so that she can reach her goal—a future college girl.

Class of '47

Class of '47

MAYBELLE E. LEWIS

G Clef, 3; A Cappella Choir, 3, 4; Mixed Quartet, 4; G. A. A., 4; Basketball, 2; Volleyball, 2; Commercial Club, 4.

Sisters? No, but they're seen together a lot. This senior's a real lady, very dignified. Remarkably well read, Maybelle can carry an intelligent conversation with you on any subject—(if we could hold up our end.) Not only pretty, but brainy, too.

JAMES R. MALONEY

Hi-Y, 3, 4; Student Faculty, 4; National Honor Society, 4; Sophomore Hop; Junior Prom; Ring Committee, 4; Class President, 4; Pepsi-Cola Contest, 4.

Now we come to our class president. Jim is one who is expected to do something big in the future. But his outstanding grades have not made him dull, for he has many friends.

DONALDA MALVIN

Choir, 3, 4; Dance Committees, 2, 3, 4; Camera Club, 3, 4; Dance Committees, 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y, 4; See Staff, 4.

Donnie is forever making up new giggles. She pals around with Phil and is a cyclone in her Merry Oldsmobile. Donnie is another one of Joe Horne's girls. Being humor editor of the "See" doesn't help to make her more sedate.

MARY MAY McCREADY

G Clef, 2; Basketball, 1, 2, 3; Volleyball, 2; National Honor Society, 4.

One of the few girls in Pop's solid class. Take a look at B. G.'s hair, and you'll understand why her ambition is to be a beautician. Has a great opportunity for her favorite winter sport, skiing. Yes, you guessed it, she lives in Greentree.

DOLORES MITCHELL

G Clef, 2, 3; Choir, 4; G. A. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; Camera Club, 2, 3, 4; Treasurer, 4; Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Volleyball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Dance Committees, 2, 3, 4.

Dolly is an all-around athlete in girls' sports. Everyone appreciates her pleasant smile. No matter how many times a day you see her Dolly can be depended upon for another smile.

DOROTHY RUTH MORROW

G Clef, 4; G. A. A., 2, 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y, 3, 4; Council Representative, 4; Hiking, 2, 4; Bowling, 2, 3; Vice-President of Senior Class, 4; Senior Dance, 4.

Wherever you find Dot, there you'll find Georgie. They're two of the few inseparables in Carnegie High. No wonder she has so many dates. One glance at that pretty brown hair and sparkling blue eyes will tell you why. She's the picture of health.

VLADIMIR MOSCHIWSKY

Camera Club, 4; Rifle Club, 4; Magazine Campaign, 4.

Loudy is another of those quiet and good-natured lads of C. H. S. A friendly handclasp and a ready smile characterize Loudy.

VIOLET MUSICO

G Clef, 3, 4; Commercial Club, 4.

Her dark auburn hair and those blue eyes make up a nice combination. Usually seen with Ted, a former student of C. H. S. Vi loves to roller skate and can be seen quite often at Sports Haven.

GEORGE MYKITA

Band, 1, 2, 3, 4; Ensemble, 1, 2, 3, 4; Swing Band, 2, 3, 4; Varsity "C," 3, 4; Wrestling, 3, 4, Letter, 4.

Cookie plays a mean trombone for Mr. Cameron. Miss Hepler's pride and joy, he can usually be found getting himself into mischief. He's not hard to find, and is easily recognized by a big grin walking along just above the desk-tops.

ARTHUR W. NENDZA

ScaRab Club, 1; Hi-Y, 3, 4; Sophomore Hop.

Our gain was the Navy's loss when Art came back to C. H. S. after serving his country. His ability and attitude show that he has what it takes.

HOWARD WESLEY NORTHEY

Band, 1, 2, 3, 4; Manager, 1, 2, 3, 4; Treasurer, 4; Letter, 2, 4; A Cappella Choir, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club, 2, 3; Double Mixed Quartet, 4; Dramateur Club, 2, 3, 4; Camera Club Dance, 3; Senior Dance; Voyager Staff, 4; Junior Town Meeting of the Air, 4; Senior Play.

One of our winners in the Anthology Contest. Howard dug up a few talents we were unaware of these past few months. Voted one of the best dressed and best looking boys in C. H. S., Howard seems to have the gift of the gods. Claims he likes working at Bard's. (No wonder, Johanne works there.)

JOHN NOVAK

Sophomore Hop; Senior Play.

Johnny is an ardent camera fan and develops and prints all his own photos. With that bewildered look and likable character, Johnny dubbed the part of Oogie perfectly.

JOSEPH OKRUTNY

Glee Club, 4; Hi-Y, 3, 4; Camera Club, 4; Class Basketball, 1; Sophomore Hop; Senior Dance.

Yooz has been affectionately dubbed "Musial" by Mr. Sawhill. Voted one of the best dressed and best looking boys in C. H. S., Yooz has many feminine admirers swooning.

IRENE OLIVER

G Clef, 3; Choir, 4; G. A. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; President, 4; Tri-Hi-Y, 3, 4; Student Faculty, 3, 4; Athletic Association, Secretary, 4; Volleyball, 3, 4; Basketball, 3; Dance Committee, 1, 2, 3, 4.

A very active student of our school is Rene. Believe me when I tell you she is really going with Swent; they are truly inseparable. She has a hobby of writing and while the war lasted she put her hobby to good use.

RONALD L. PARKER

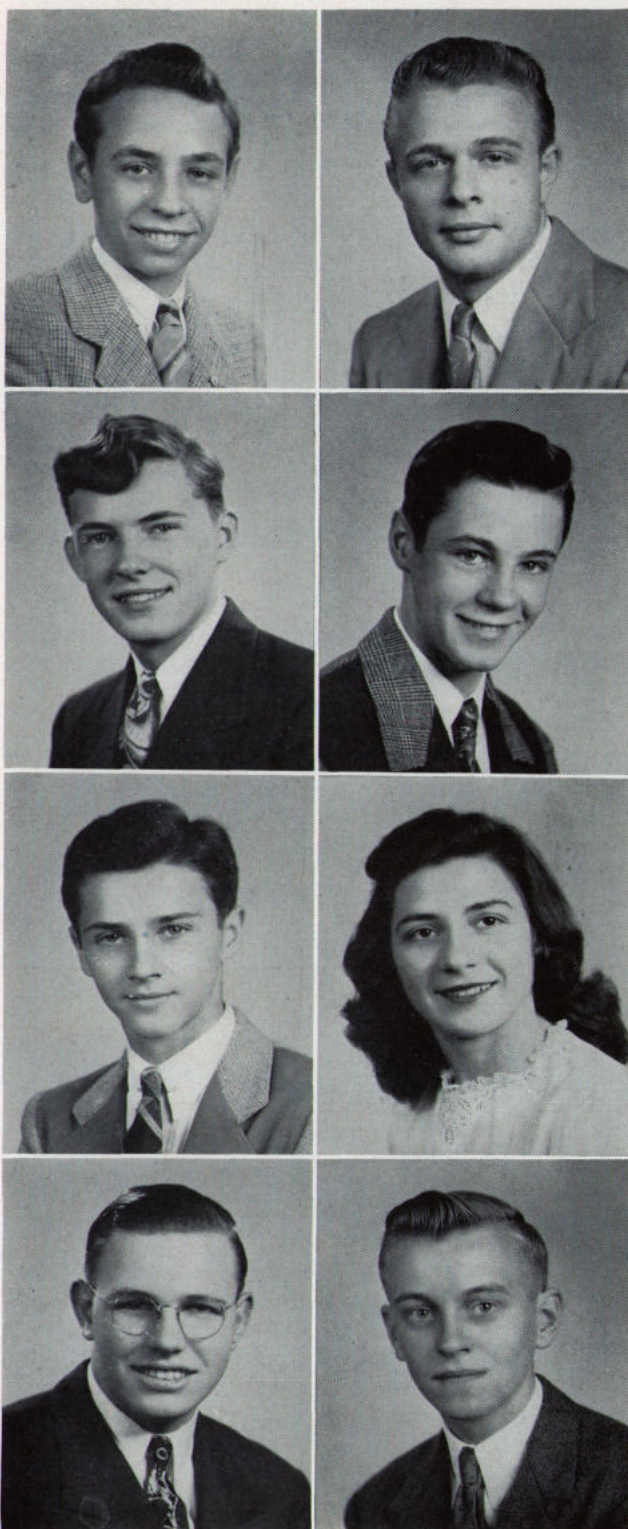

Varsity "C," 4; National Honor Society, 4; Football, 2, 3; Wrestling Manager, 3, 4, Letter, 4; Pepsi-Cola Contest, 4.

Ronald is one of the members of the exclusive "Brains, Inc." Club. He's really a sharp man when it comes to school work and right now it seems that he has more than one girl in the senior class pining for him. From inside information we find that his pet name is "Buttercup."

THOMAS A. PIROZAK

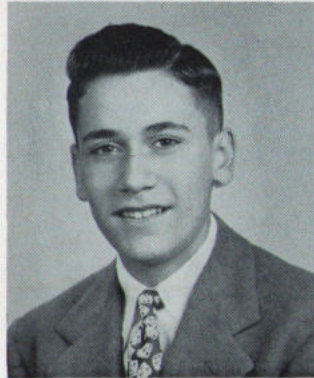

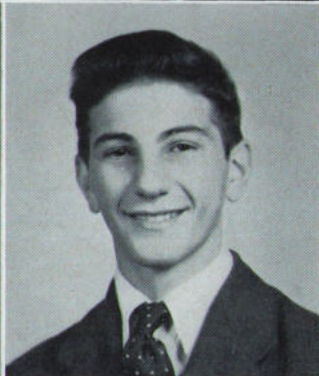

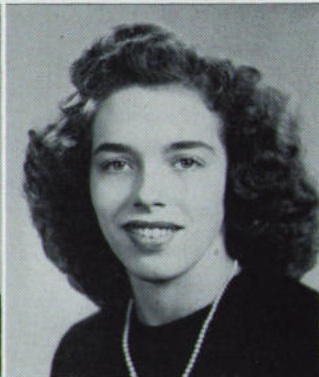

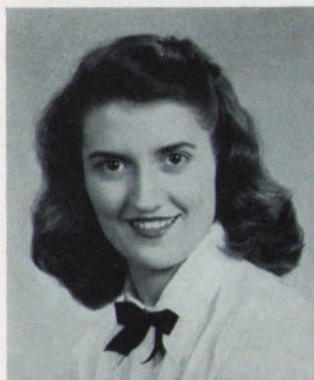

Athletic Association, 4; Treasurer, 4; Ring Committee, 4; Voyager Staff, 1, 3.

Pro is the other member of the "Brains, Inc." Club. Although there is quite a difference in the appearances of Pro and Ronnie, they can almost always be found cooperating in one thing or another. Pro says his favorite subject is golf, but we know that he thinks Miss Hepler's history class is pretty nice, too.

Class of '47

Class of '47

NANCY PRETKA

Pretzels is the girl with a beautiful smile and a pleasing personality that will be a great asset in the business world. She has a fancy for 1947 cars but don't we all?

JENNIE PREVITE

G Clef, 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y, 3, 4; G. A. A., 3, 4; Dance Committee, 2, 4; See Staff, 4.

One of the quiet students of our school. In the past years Jenny was running through the halls with absentee notices. She wants to become a secretary, and we know that a gal with her brains will make a good employee for some lucky man.

LILLIAN PRONKO

Commercial Club, 4, Secretary, 4; Voyager Staff, 4; Dance Committee, 4.

Lil is a very, very quiet student. Now don't think that because Lil is quiet she isn't a whiz in her school work. Her grades show what a piece of paper and a pencil in her hand can do.

BETTY RAWLINGS

Commercial Club, 4; Dance Committee, 2; Class Treasurer, 4.

B. J., her nickname, isn't too well known but that doesn't say that she isn't. Her ambition to become a secretary will certainly be fulfilled because she possesses all the requirements of a neat and efficient business person.

DOLORES SZAFRANIEC

Commercial Club, 4; Voyager Staff, 4.

An active person when it comes to gym class. Dee is always running up or down the floor with a ball in her hand. She's a speed demon in typing class, and the girls stop to watch her fingers dart over the keyboard.

CHARLES SAM

Varsity "C," 3, 4; Wrestling, 1, 2, 3, 4; Letter, 3, 4.

Scar, as he is lovingly called by the gang from Rosslyn Heights, is what you might call a soft-spoken man. From the number of Scar's friends you can readily see that he is popular not only with the fellows but with the girls as well.

DONALD SBARRA

Glee Club, 3, 4; A Cappella Choir, 4; Hi-Y, 3, 4; Class Vice-President, 2; Dance Committee, 2.

Sputz is that poor guy you always see getting himself into a jam. He just never seems to know when to duck. He is usually very busy trying to get out of work.

EVA SEMBRAT

Band, 1, 2, 3, 4; Ensemble, 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y, 3, 4; Treasurer, 4; Dance Committee, 3; National Honor Society, 3, 4; Student Faculty, 4; Secretary, 4; Volleyball Team, 4; Swing Band, 4.

Eva is noted for her excellent Latin translations. She spends most of her time just studying, and she will probably be a huge success in everything she does. Reason for her wavy hair: her sister is a beautician.

JOSEPH PAUL SHINKO

Glee Club, 3; Double Mixed Quartet, 4; A Cappella Choir, 4; Sophomore Hop.

Joe is another chemistry fan. Although they're all pretty fair chemists, the lab was certainly no place for a family man without insurance this past year. Seriously, Joe is a really swell fellow, and can usually be seen in a sharp outfit talking to someone, anyone, in the halls.

OLGA SKIRPAN

G Clef, 2, 3; Choir, 4; Dramateur Club, 2, 3, 4; G. A. A., 2, 3, 4; Dance Committee, 2, 3, 4.

Short, cute, and active stands for Olly. That girl never stops. Usually seen with a big grin on her face. Always primed with a cute remark.

THELMA SMARSH

Commercial Club, 4.

She just hasn't time to look up from her work. Tem is really a gal that works and works hard. Occasionally we manage to get a smile or a giggle from her. She really is an all right gal.

RONALD SMITH

Smitty is the t-a-l-l, lean and lanky fellow seen around the halls. He doesn't seem to have any particular interest in any particular woman, but it is suspected that he is carrying a torch.

THERESA SPANO

G Clef, 2; Choir, 3, 4; Quartet, 4; Dance Committee, 3, 4.

Terry is the girl with the hair. This is an important thing in her life, and we all appreciate those lovely locks she has. She wants to be a dress designer, and we know she will be great, for she knows her style.

BERNARD VERL SPECHT

Speck is a member of the Wide Awake Club. He can always be found with his eyes closed. He isn't always asleep as he seems to be, however. Lots of people think with their eyes closed.

PAUL SPELAR

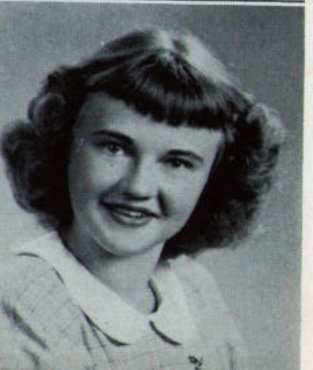

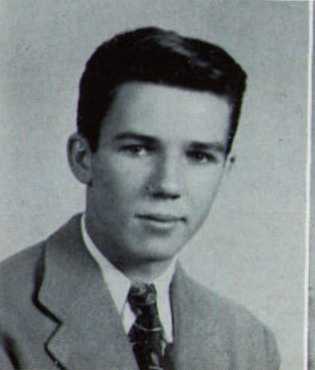

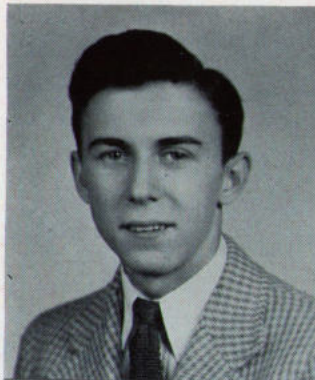

Varsity "C," 3, 4; Football, 2, 3, 4, Letter, 3, 4.

Paul doesn't need any introduction; he is known to everybody as the little guy who played just about the best guard on the football team. A confirmed athlete, he enjoys basketball and other sports. A swell fellow but a little shy, he can usually be found studying math in Room 14.

STELLA STASIK

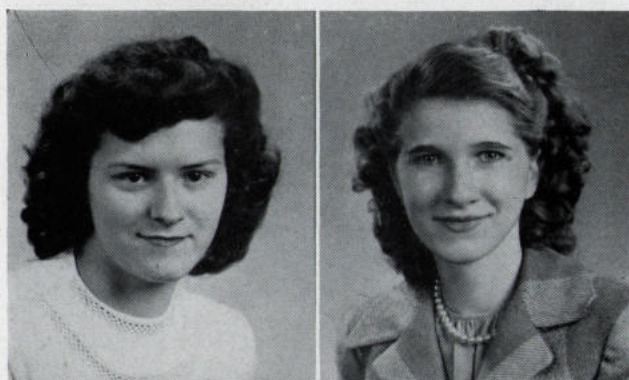

G Clef, 4; Dance Committees, 2, 3, 4; Class Nominating Committee, 3; Junior Town Meeting of the Air; National Honor Society.

A cute, short blonde with big gray eyes. One of the first to cut the ever popular bangs. Stel works hard on Latin translations; hence, the good marks. Another one of Tex's fans.

Class of '47

Class of '47

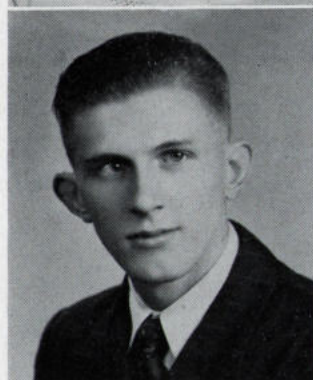

EMILY STECKO

Volleyball, 3.

Emily is quiet and studious, also very amiable to her classmates. Unlike most kids, she never talks in class. She must take her interests elsewhere, for they certainly aren't in school.

GRACE STEVENS

Gracie is another quiet student. She spends her time at the Buzz Inn, and we find she likes dancing very much. She likes shorthand and can be seen quite often with shorthand books in one hand and a pen in the other.

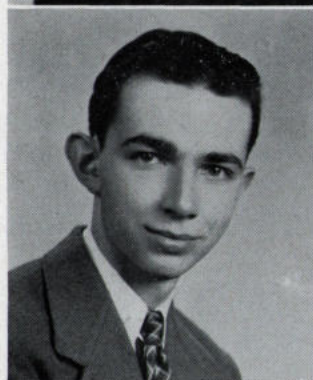

HARRY L. STEVENS

If you get stuck with a Chem problem, just come over and see Harry. The old saying that silence is a sign of intelligence is true to the letter in his case.

JOSEPH ALBERT STEWART

Joe is another really shy guy. He claims he doesn't have any favorite subjects, that he likes them all. We are quite sure that he will be a success somewhere along life's way.

ROBERT BRUGH STUART

Band, 2; Swing Band, 2; A Cappella Choir, 3, 4; Double Mixed Quartet, 3, 4; Dramateur Club, 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y, 3, 4; National Honor Society, 3, 4, President, 4; See Staff, 3, 4; Senior Play; Hearst History Contest; Pepsi-Cola Contest, 4; Student-Faculty, 4.

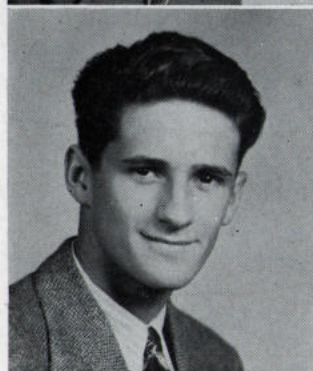

Bob is the guy you always see right in the middle of things. He gets along well in all his subjects, especially history. Miss Hepler entered him in the Hearst History Contest this year.

DOROTHE SWENTOSKY

G Clef, 3; Choir, 4; Volleyball, 1, 3; Basketball, 1, 3, 4; Dance Committee, 1, 2, 3, 4; G. A. A., 1, 2, 3, 4.

A very pleasant gal with a smile, giggle, or laugh at almost anything you say or do. Always seen with Rene. She's a solid sender on the dance floor.

STANLEY F. SWIDRAK

Varsity "C," 4; Football, 3, 4; Letter, 4; Sophomore Hop; Magazine Campaign, 4.

Lump likes chemistry, English, French, Spanish, and Russian girls. He's the Cheshire cat of Room 14, always with a big grin.

NAOMI JEAN THEISS

G. A. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Volleyball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club, 4.

Chiga is about the best girl athlete we have in C. H. S. She really is quick in playing basketball and the other sports we have. Her feet are hardly ever on the floor in gym class. I don't know what we seniors would do without her. She can be seen at the Buzz Inn frequently, so she must like to dance.

LOUIS EDWARD TORCHIA

Glee Club, 3, 4; Basketball, 3.

Bolo and the teachers get along just like that. He plays basketball pretty well and likes to fool around on the diamond in baseball season. Can usually be found asleep at 3:45.

DOROTHY URAM

G Clef, 2, 3; Choir, 4; Double Mixed Quartet, 4; Class Secretary, 2; Dance Committees, 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramateur Club, 2, 3, 4; Secretary, 3; Vice President, 4; Dance Committee, 2, 3, 4; G. A. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; Dance Committees, 2, 4; Student Faculty, 4; Volleyball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Voyager, 4; Cheerleader, 3, 4; Head Cheerleader, 4; Student Director of Senior Play, 4.

Dee is one of the most popular lasses of C. H. S. Has a pleasant smile for everyone. She and Riney make up the smoothest couple. Sweet and likable, one of the best cheerleaders.

IRA WALKER

Band, 1, 2, 3, 4; Ensemble, 1, 2, 3, 4; Swing Band, 2, 3, 4; Student Leader, 4; Hi-Y, 3, 4; Camera Club, 3, 4; President, 4; Student Faculty, 4.

Tex plays a pretty hot French horn for Mr. Cameron, and his solos at the Band Concert are enjoyed by everyone. Besides being president of the Camera Club he is also the capable student-director of the band.

MARY JANE WATTS

G Clef, 4; Class Secretary, 1, 4; Dance Committees, 2, 3, 4; Dramateur Club, 3, 4; Dance Committee, 3; G. A. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; Dance Committees, 1, 2, 4; Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Volleyball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Faculty, 4.

Mary Jane gets a big kick out of laughing at jokes, particularly her own. Mary Jane's O. A. O. attends Robinson High. An easy-going lass who gets along with most everyone, she will be leaving Carnegie after graduation to live with her parents in Crafton Heights.

ELLEN WEISBAND

Dance Committees, 1, 4; Dramateur Club, 4; Dance Committee, 4; G. A. A., 3, 4; Dance Committee, 4; See Staff, 4; National Honor Society, 4.

Ellen has a beaming personality plus many friends. Prefers out-of-town boys, one of whom is Mel Gelman. Just ask her about him; she'll tell you.

CHARLES CURTIS WELLS

Rifle Club, 4; Dance Committee, 2, 4.

Chuck is the half pint you always see walking around with a grin from ear to ear. He has that certain charm that girls seem to go for. But they say that all good things come in small packages, don't they, Chuck?

DOROTHY WILHOIT

G Clef, 2, 3; Choir, 4; G. A. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y, 3, 4; Basketball, 3, 4; Volleyball, 3, 4.

When you hear that giggle you know Dot is coming. Dot is always giggling about something. She's very smooth when it comes to roller-skating and does quite well on skates. Although she is very short, she is very athletic. She also has her serious moments and we find she is a swell person to know.

BILL H. WILLIAMS

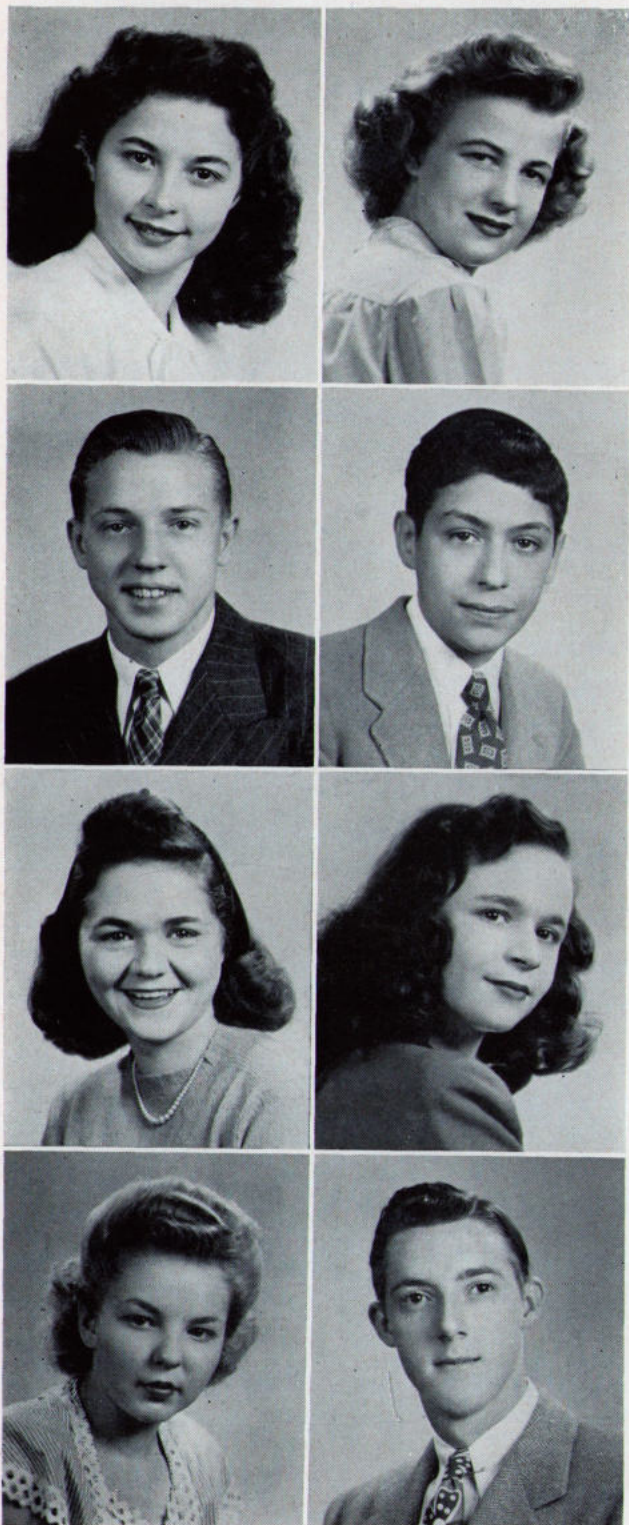

Hi-Y, 3, 4; President, 4; Camera Club, 2, 3, 4; Vice-President, 4; Varsity "C," 3, 4; Football, 2, 3, 4; Letter, 3, 4; Wrestling, 3, 4; Class Basketball, 1; Class Vice-President, 4; Junior Prom; Hi-Y Dance, 4; Canteen President, 4; American Democracy Test, 4.

Bill is the strong silent type of person. He played a lot of football last season. The idol of all the girls, he gets along with everyone.

Class of '47

Class of '47

MARJORIE WILLISON

G Clef, 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y, 3, 4; G. A. A., 2, 3, 4.

Margie and Don—the perfect couple of C. H. S. Anyone can tell how she holds her man. After all, who wouldn't fall for that sweet complexion and pretty hair? Incidentally, her pretty eyes are fascinating too.

MARY ZADARKO

G. A. A., 2, 3.

Twinkling eyes and twinkling toes—this blonde little miss loves to dance. She's another of the girls who are attending Langley High and taking up that course with the awesome title—"Distributive Education."

HARRY ZAHARKO

Varsity "C," 3, 4, Vice-President, 4; Football, 1, 2, 3, 4, Letter, 3, 4.

Three cheers for one of our football heroes! Cosmo has faithfully fought for the Orange and Black for four hard years, and due credit is owed him. It isn't hard to recognize him either, just look for a blush topped off with beautiful blonde hair.

CAMILLO A. ZARROLI

Glee Club, 4; A Cappella Choir, 4; See Staff, 2, 3, 4; Sophomore Hop; Ring Committee, 4; Junior Town Meeting of the Air, 4; Rifle Club, 4; Camera Club, 4; National Honor Society, 4, Vice-President, 4.

Gumps is a whiz at chemistry, and no doubt his ambition, to be head chemist at Westinghouse, will be fulfilled in the near future. He confirms the statement that you can't judge a book by its cover by doing a tremendous amount of work regardless of his size.

SYLVIA ZEMON

G Clef, 2, 3; Choir, 4.

Syl can be distinguished from one of many in a group because of that laugh. You can depend on her to make a dull evening pleasant.

JOANNE ZERN

Commercial Club, 4; G. A. A., 4.

Joanne is quiet but has a good sense of humor, and this is one of her outstanding characteristics that make her classmates like her. She never hurries and just lets the rest of the world go by.

MARY M. ZINSKI

Commercial Club, 4; President, 4; Voyager Staff, 4; Student Faculty, 4.

Blondie's beautiful yellow locks are the reason for her well-chosen nickname. Blondie is quiet except when Jean and she start gabbing. Her quietness and neatness will certainly aid her in the business world.

WILLIAM M. BUTLER

Camera Club, 3, 4; Basketball Manager, 2, 3, 4, Letter, 4.

Merv seems to be the object of everybody's teasing. He lives in a world all of his own, but still has a wicked gleam in his eye. He can frequently be seen with Neil Schneider.

Freshmen Are Always Green

Carnegie High School! We are finally there. After so many long years in elementary school we're finally freshies. On the first day we were a little scared (that's putting it mildly); we were so anxious to see what the next four, at the least, years would bring.

There are three freshmen report rooms under Mrs. Zirkle, Miss Hepler, and Miss Mason. Incidentally we're still puzzled as to how they get all those complicated schedules and always or almost always get them right.

One of the most baffling things we came across the first days of our high school life was the one way signs. They were rather confusing to us, but the upperclassmen must have thought us amusing. At least we had fun trying to decide which was the right way to go, and soon we got on the ball and realized that we were at last part of the school.

Soon after school opened in September the football season began and, rain or shine, home or away, we wore our colors and cheered with the rest of the school. We also showed up in large numbers at the basketball games and wrestling matches. We even got to go to the Canteen, a thing we had been looking forward to for a long time. We really enjoyed it.

After about the first six weeks of hard work, we got our report cards and then we began to wonder if we should not pitch in and buy the teachers a new bottle of red ink. Well, anyway, there were a great many glum faces around school that day and believe it or not, they weren't all on freshmen.

Another thing that comes under the gruesome heading of report cards is exams, and even though the teachers love us, they can always think up more horrid questions.

All we freshmen were happy the day that they started fire drills. We just said to ourselves, "Well, at least that lets us out of a few minutes of school." They were really fun when you happened to be in a room that had a fire escape. We always hoped above all hopes that we would be lucky.

But now, after all the fun and jokes at our expense, we can still say that deep in our hearts we really love it and are glad to be part of C. H. S.

Jitter and Jive

The Blue Jean Jump

The Blue Jean Jump sponsored by the Hi-Y on October 11, was a huge success. The gym was decorated with corn shocks and crepe paper ribbons. (P. S. After they served the refreshments—cider—the corn really flew!) It was the first official dance of the year, and the freshies turned out in full force. There was a big turnout from the other schools, too. St. Luke's and Clark were there. But wouldn't you know, the juke box broke down, and the dance broke up early. Oh, well, everything can't be perfect, can it?

The Thingamajig

The Dramateur Club Dance, officially called the Thingamajig, was held on Friday, the thirteenth of December. Although it's supposedly an evil day, the only ones who had evil bestowed upon them were the new members who were being initiated that night. Upon arrival at the gym, the girls were presented with corsages of pine, red ribbon and bells. All the girls being initiated came with their hair half plaited, their clothes inside-out and backwards, half their make-up on, two different shoes, and one sock and one black stocking. At the intermission, before the boys did a ballet in crepe paper costumes, the girls had a contest judged by the teachers present. The initiation gave everyone a hearty laugh. The gym was decorated with red, white, and green streamers and at one end of the gym stood a huge, beautiful Christmas tree.

The Junior Prom

The Junior Prom, sponsored by the junior class of forty-seven, was held on April 25. Before the dance a meeting was held and class colors were chosen. The colors chosen were blue and white. This theme was followed in decorating the gym. An orchestra was secured to provide the music for the couples at the dance. A delicious punch was served during the intermission:

The Senior Dance

The Senior Dance, held on November 22, was a gala affair, really a booming success. The gym was beautifully decorated with white streamers, snowballs, stars sprinkled with artificial snow, and blue lights. The decorations all went up to the center of the gym where a huge snowball hung. At the intermission balloons were released. The kids danced to the wonderful orchestra of Ben Boden, and a delicious punch was served during the intermission.

The Commercial Club Dance

The Spring Festival was sponsored by the Commercial Club on April 12. The music for the dancing was provided by records. The decorations followed a spring theme. Refreshments were served during the dance. All the members of the club participated in making the dance a great success.

Tri-Hi-Y Dance

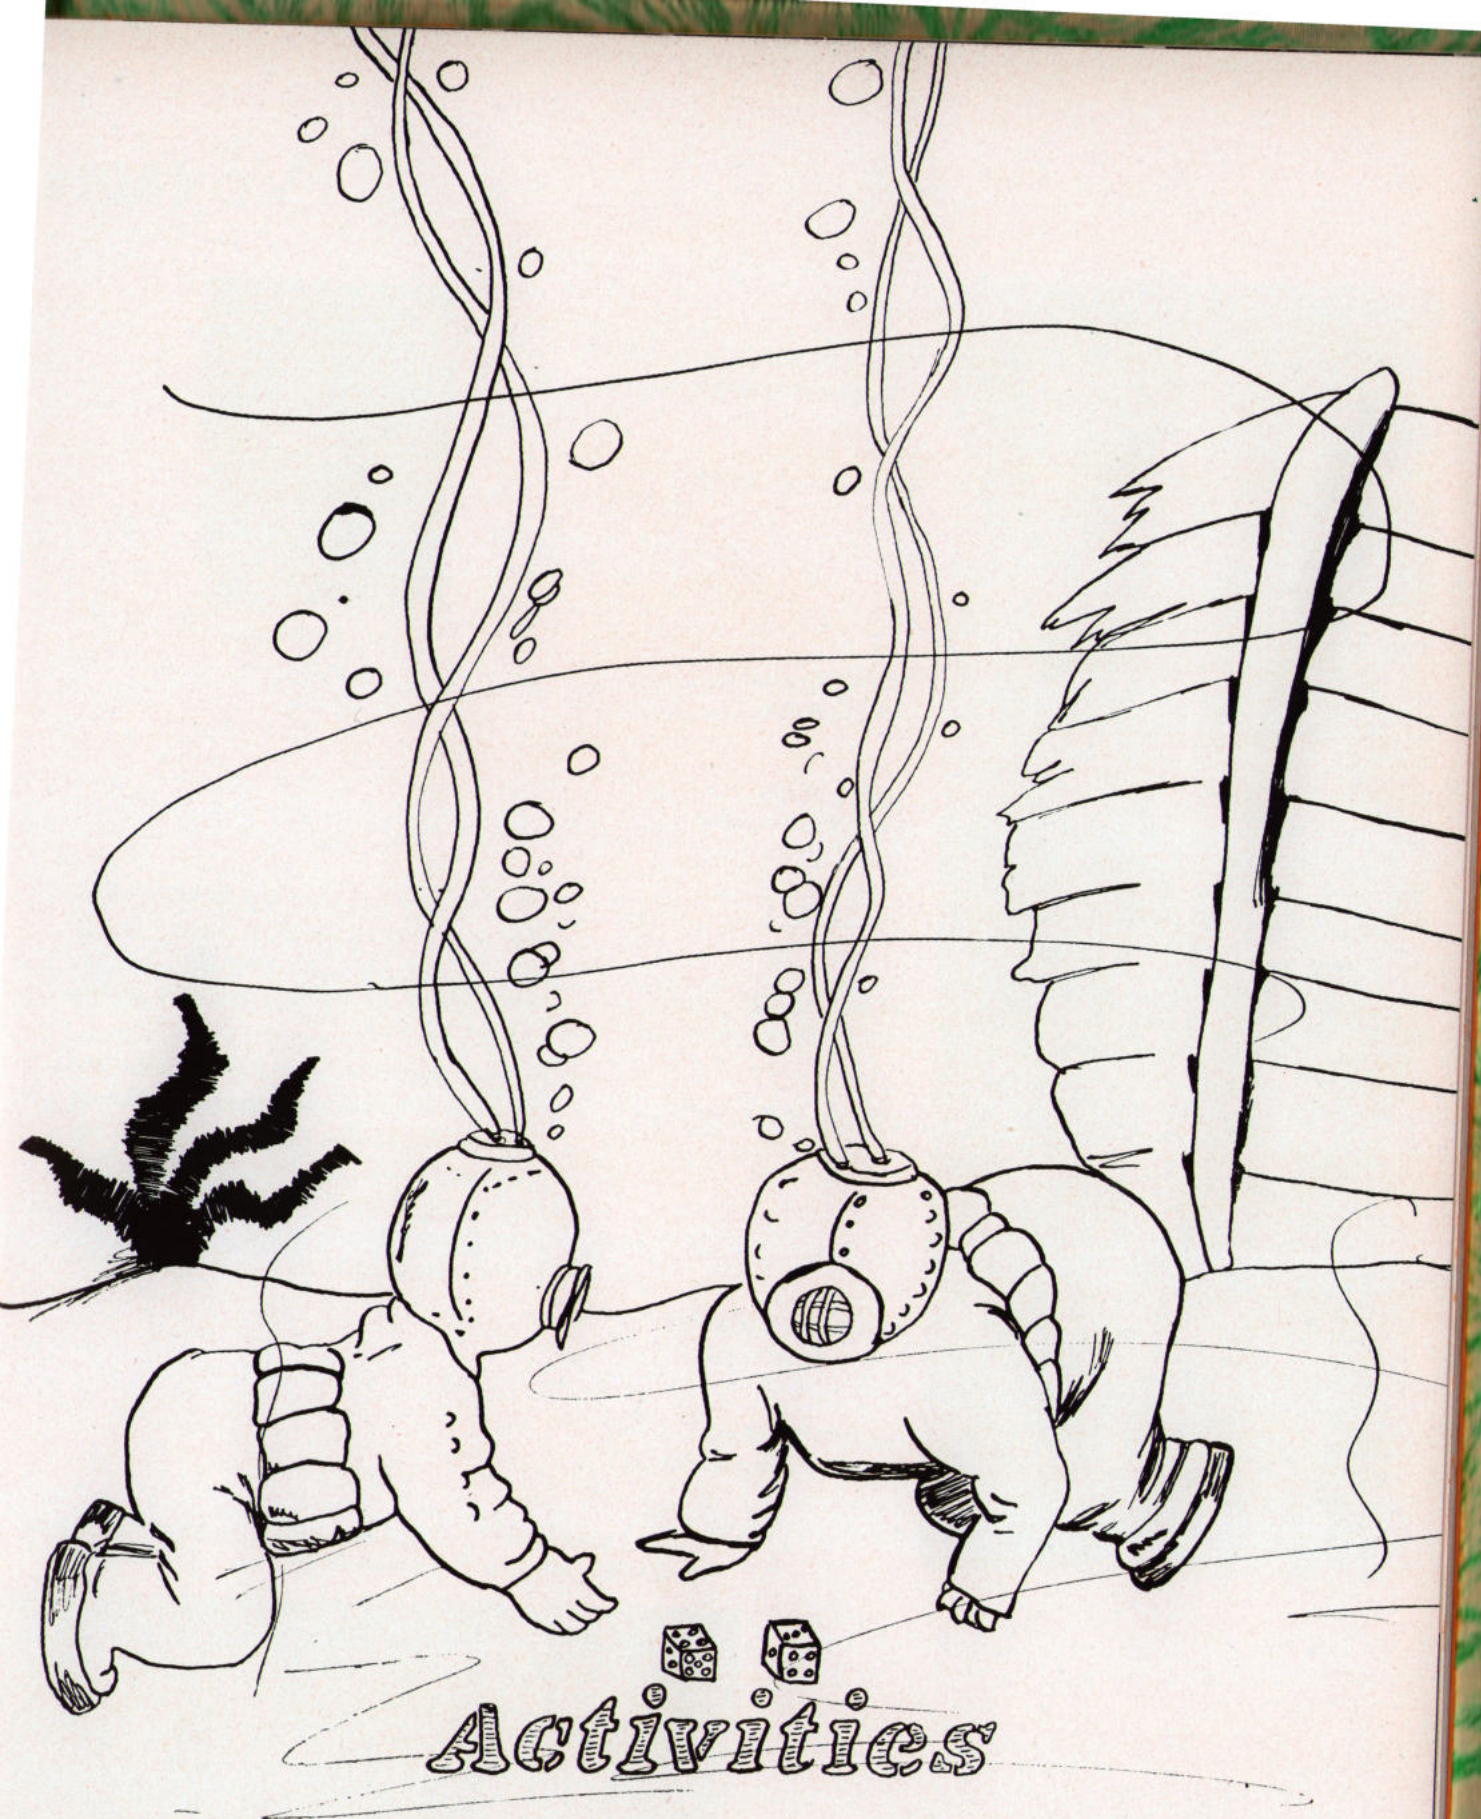

The Tri-Hi-Y held their dance on May 9. Before the dance a May Queen and her attendants were chosen by the student body. At the dance the queen was crowned in a very appropriate ceremony. The decorations in the gym followed a spring theme. The juke box provided music and refreshments were sold during the intermission.

G. A. A.

The Girls' Athletic Association dance was held on May 23. The dance was open only to the club and to their guests, the Hi-Y. Each member of both clubs was permitted to bring a guest. The gym was beautifully decorated and an orchestra furnished the music. Refreshments were served, and little novelties were given the boys when they arrived.

The Sophomore Dance

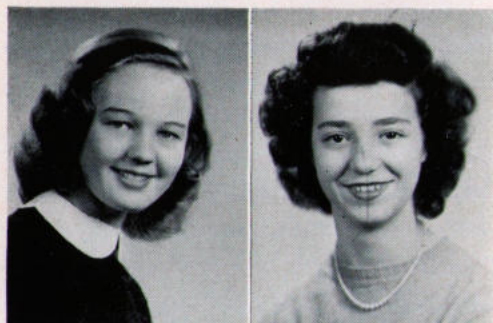

The sophomore class held their annual dance on May 29, the day before Memorial Day vacation. The juke box gave out with the notes for dancing. The gym was decorated for the occasion and refreshments were served during the intermission. A short entertainment was put on during the intermission.

"Has anyone seen our paste brush?" This or a similar question doesn't imply that the speaker is naturally absent-minded; he's probably a member of the VOYAGER staff.

Although the book doesn't come out until the last week of school (sometimes not even then), the work begins with the opening of school. In spite of the fact that everyone on the staff is pretty green, everything runs along smoothly with pictures, page setups, and writeups, until—

National Honor Society

The four prerequisites necessary for membership in the National Honor Society as determined in its constitution as the foundation for all education are: character, scholarship, leadership, and service. These objectives are symbolized by the keystone and the flaming torch. The membership of this organization is limited to five percent of the juniors and fifteen percent of the seniors. This is the eleventh anniversary of that society in this school. As in previous years, a tea was held for the honor students of the eighth grade to encourage continuation of their good scholarship. An impressive formal induction is held in June, to which the parents of the members are invited. All members of this group are to be congratulated highly for their achievements while in high school.

T H E S E E

Any eighth period the upper back hall is always buzzing with activity from the SEE room. There, knee-deep amid papers, stands the editor directing the whole procedure of producing our monthly school paper. The SEE tells of scholastic events and the antics of the entire student body. The ink-spattered mechanical operator torments the poor innocent artists and journalists. Amid all of this confusion the SEE is ready to be distributed to the appreciative student body.

The Ensemble

A very popular and much enjoyed section of the band is the Ensemble. Under the direction of Mr. Walter C. Cameron this group presents several numbers at the annual Spring Concert and senior play.

None of the various extra-curricular entertainments would be complete without the very enthusiastic performances of this group. One of the comparatively new outgrowths of the band, the Ensemble graciously does its part toward the enjoyment of young and old alike.

The Swing Band

This outgrowth of the ensemble really gives with the hot licks. These fellows and girls provide the music for the second half of our annual band concert. Under the very able direction of this year's student leader, Tex Walker, the band gives with a fox trot, jitterbug, or rhumba. These kids are really hep.

Double Mixed Quartet

Take four girls. Stir in equal part of boys. Fold in a teacher like Mrs. Nirella and a few songs like "The Spirit Flower" or "Bird Songs at Eventide". Place in moderate room twice weekly until Spring Concert. Remove from room, place on stage at the Carnegie Library and serve. Guaranteed to satisfy all musical appetites.

Tríple Tríó

When you see nine black skirts and nine white blouses standing in front of an audience and hear sweet music, undoubtedly that's our Triple Trio. This group, composed of both senior and junior girls, is a must at all school affairs and many community events. Bedecked in gowns of soft colors, they present a beautiful picture at the annual Spring Concert.

G Clef

Fifty-two girls singing in three parts, garbed in white dresses (minus harps), is a very apt description of the G Clef in the Spring Concert. Girls who are members of the three upper classes may take part in this event if they are vocally inclined and are willing to practice twice a week.

Glee Club

For those who enjoy the spirited music of a male chorus, the Glee Club is made to order. This group, seventeen in number, is one of the highlights of the Spring Concert. Like the other groups, they also are under Mrs. Nirella's direction.

A Cappella Choir

Twice a week the harmonious sounds of the Choir are heard. It is composed of fifty-two members of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes who combine their talents and provide entertainment at the annual Spring Concert. Even though much practicing is necessary, it is enjoyed by all. On the night of the Spring Concert, May 2, the choir rendered a wide selection of beautiful songs in the form of: "Rustling Leaves," "The Year's at the Spring," "Send Out Thy Spirit," and the rousing "Hallelujah Chorus."

The Camera Club

At the monthly meetings of the Camera Club the members receive instructions on the operation and use of the camera. Details of developing and printing pictures are explained and when the members are equipped with enough information, they test their knowledge by spending two periods a week in the dark room. All the equipment that is needed for this work is furnished by the club, with the exception of film and paper, which must be supplied by the individual.

Even though the Camera Club is a social club, it sponsored no money-making projects this year, so the expense of the materials used in the dark room by the club is paid by a fee charged at each meeting.

The student interest in the field of amateur photography has definitely increased since the termination of the war. This is due to the fact that supplies are plentiful and easily obtained.

The club plans a banquet for the members near the end of the school year.

Although just two years old, the Tri-Hi-Y Club has firmly established itself as a permanent organization in Carnegie High School. Membership is limited to forty girls who are chosen by the group for their high moral character and acceptable scholastic rating.

The Tri-Hi-Y was presented its charter at a special service in Trinity Cathedral on December 11 of this past year. Because it is a chartered club, the privilege of sending several representatives to conferences and meetings held throughout the year by the Hi-Y Council was given to the club.

On May 9, the club sponsored a dance to which the entire student body was invited. Crowning the May Queen was the main attraction of the evening. The new members will long remember the formal induction. During the year the club enjoyed many splendid and worthwhile speakers at the bi-weekly meetings. A basketball team was organized and practiced one day a week.

To fulfill their purpose of Christian fellowship, the club chose contributing to the World Youth Fund as the main service project for the year. Much of this money was secured by the sale of greeting cards. Besides this project the club sent a donation to the Co-operative for American Remittances to Europe.

Under the leadership of its new sponsor, Mrs. Sawhill, the club had a successful year.

The Hi-Y was better than ever this year, and that is pretty good. This club does more than any other toward cementing the friendship and good will of all schools. With its dances, parties, and camps, it sponsors many activities for the teen-agers. This nation-wide organization has finally branched out into the Tri-Hi-Y for girls.

Carnegie was represented by Fred Hall and Bob Sawhill at the club's annual convention at Beaver Falls, which we hear was quite a success.

Bill Williams and Bob Geisler report that the Hi-Y's annual dance, the Blue Jean Jump, was a success, and they are looking forward to the banquet held at the end of every year.

Also heavily attended by Carnegie was the Heart Hop held in Pittsburgh for the purpose of using money to send the representatives from Pittsburgh to the camp way out west in Iowa.

Mr. Sawhill, sponsor of the club, feels that he has a pretty good club. Maybe he's right.

The Commercial Club

One of the oldest clubs in Carnegie High School is the Commercial Club. It is composed of the commercial students in the senior class, and those who are known for their scholastic standing, character, and participation among the commercial students of the junior class. There have been several guest speakers at the meeting, one of whom was Mr. Knarr. He spoke on the subject of what an employer looks for in an employee, such as his character, social standing, his ability to work, and his desire to do so. Another speaker was Mrs. Cameron, who spoke about beauty culture and the care of the skin. Although some speakers are hard to listen to, the members enjoyed listening to Mrs. Cameron and Mr. Knarr and were very attentive during the entire discussion.

This club has been unusually active this year under the guidance and sponsorship of Miss Boyle. The students enjoy working with her, and each one takes an active part in the club meetings.

The Dramateur Club

Who comes to the rescue when an organization or any school club is searching frantically for entertainment? Who sponsors our assemblies? Who directs and makes possible the greatest school event in the spring, the senior play? The answer to all of these questions and many more is the Dramateur Club. A new definition for work and enjoyment combined into one is the word "dramateur" pronounced with two dots above the a. Its name is long, as is its list of activities.

The interest aroused in this club never fluctuates, as it does in some of the other clubs. It is an honor to be a member, for only the talented are selected. Talent includes not only acting ability, but any one of the following: directing or writing plays, handling the lighting equipment, or having some knowledge about stages, scenery, costumes, or make-up. Sophomores, juniors, and seniors are eligible for its limited membership. Miss Brandon is its very capable sponsor, always bubbling over with new invigorating ideas. Only once in a blue moon will you find a member of the Dramateur Club who doesn't thoroughly enjoy being in it.

Magazine Campaign

A small army of ambitious and energetic seniors haunted the residents of Carnegie and vicinity last fall. These were members of the Ignoble Order of Magazine Salesmen. This clan, which stages a revival every autumn, is a very important one as far as the seniors are concerned, each trying to outdo the other. They did rather well this year: selling $1850 worth of literature isn't an easy job. With Thelma Evans at the throttle of the Orange Team and Irene Oliver piloting the Black Crew, they contributed $590 to the treasury. Those seniors selling more than $20 worth of magazines have their pictures above. The successful seniors were rewarded for their efforts with an ice cream feast and cash prizes for the high salesman.

Athletics

The Athletic Association

Seated: Mr. Lee, Oliver, Miss Mitchell, Pirozak
Standing: Mr. Adams, Mr. Stockum, Mr. Sawhill

The Athletic Association has stuck another feather in its mythical cap with the addition of a Rifle Club sponsored by Mr. Robb from Harding School and the resumption of the baseball team which will once more be coached by Mr. Adams.

Lacking a president this year, the Association has none the less progressed on the road to better sports. Our football team, coached by Mr. Stockum, had plenty of tough luck but pulled through in fairly good shape. While the wrestlers, coached by Mr. Sawhill, broke nearly even, leaving the surprise of the year for the basketball team, which, under the guidance of Mr. Adams, did much better than was expected.

Mr. Stockum also took over the reins of the junior high team and won the sectional championship.

Aside from the coaching end of the business, Mr. Adams also buys supplies, books, games, and supervises all financial arrangements.

Varsity "C"

Mr. Stockum is the new sponsor of this club since the resignation of Mr. Burkett.

Membership in the Varsity "C" is entirely honorary and is gained only by those who have won their letters in some sport. A few lettermen returned from preceding years, but the greater number have just recently won their letters.

The greatest service of this club is providing an injury fund for any and all accidents received through competitive sports. Along with this the club provides entertainment through their skating party and informal dance. But the biggest event as far as the members are concerned is their annual banquet at the end of the year.

Officers this year were: President—Don Harris, Vice-President—Harry Zaharko, Secretary—Paul Spelar, Treasurer—Steve Missonak.

Football

With the return of eight lettermen, Coach Stockum looked forward to a winning season. Anthony Damiani, a former C. H. S. star, helped him along with the line. The coach needed this help very much because 81 boys went out for practice. Stockum changed from the T-formation to the single wing, and the new system worked out pretty well. On defense Carnegie used a 6-2-2 and a 5-3-2-1. The managers under Frank Lempert (who always did everything he could) had a tough time supplying the equipment since they had enough for only three teams.

On Friday, September 13, everyone in the school was waiting for that opening kickoff. The great day brought a record turnout at the field as Carnegie faced Bridgeville. There was a great fall of paper and confetti; the cheerleaders, a little scared, showed off their new uniforms; the band marched on the field; and finally, THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER. At this time the kids took advantage of the national anthem and came over the hill and under the fence without being chased by the cops.

Our 1946 season opened at Carnegie with an evenly matched Bridgeville team. Harry Rinehart showed brilliant running and made two touchdowns. Carnegie then bogged down, losing six straight to Corrie, McDonald, Canonsburg, McKees Rocks, Clark, and Dormont. Two of these should have been victories, but that's the way it goes. Of these, while Dormont was the wettest game, the Rox game was the most exciting of the year. Carnegie outplayed the Rox, but when the whistle blew, Carnegie was on the bottom. In the last game, played with the undefeated Moon team, Carnegie went to town making touchdowns in the last three periods. The team of '46 might have been small, but it had more fight than many teams of previous years.

Every year the senior picture includes not only those who will graduate in the spring but also those players who are disqualified from further playing either by age or semester ineligibility.

The twelve this year include: JOE GIBBS, considered the most valuable player; BILL WILLIAMS, who started at half but later played every position in the backfield; HARRY RINEHART, an all round athlete who did most of the kicking and running; BUTCH MISSONAK and JOHN DROST, both of whom played in the fullback slot but, due to injuries, neither played the full season; BOB GEISLER, who did a good job at quarterback until he got hurt in the Scott game; PAUL SPELAR, an excellent blocker and tackler who played second season at guard; HARRY ZAHARKO and JACK KEISLING, both first string ends; STANLEY SWIDRAK and AL ANNESI, both first string subs who showed first string ability through the season; RON SMITH, last but not least, who was substitute at end.

Junior High Basketball Squad

Under Coach Stockum, the junior high in Carnegie's first year of W. P. I. A. L. competition, went on to win the championship in section XII. This was something especially wonderful since it was one of the first sectional titles Carnegie has won for quite some time. First round of the finals was held at Harding School, where a much bigger Rochester five from Section XIII defeated our quintet. Robert Martin, only experienced player eligible from last year, was captain and the team's leading scorer. Roy Keisling, the only eighth grader, was second. The rest of the team included Richard Gatz, Sidney Lewis, Arnold Weisband, and George Russell. Since there will be only one holdover for next year, Coach Stockum will have a tough job ahead of him, but we all hope he and the team can do it again.

* Section XII Play off

The Cheerleaders

Rain or shine, our cheering must go on. This could well be the motto of our seven very capable cheerleaders. Certainly it was evident at many of the games this season. Some of these games, as we all know, were very hot, with the sun shining down into the excited faces of the cheerleaders. On the other hand, at others of these games, especially with Dormont, the girls were dripping from the rain as it poured into their still excited faces.

The seven girls, who have no sponsor, are directed by the head cheerleader, who is usually a senior. The leader for 1946-47 is Dorothy Uram. The others according to their classes are: juniors: Virginia Haudenshield, Patricia Daugherty, Margie Swart, and Clara Jean Hayes; sophomores: Marcella Baux, and Arlene Bogdon. The last four girls are serving for the first time this year.

Grades are important factors when trying to become a cheerleader. If grades are not satisfactory, the girl is immediately eliminated. Besides this, your ability to lead cheers is important.

When asked what they think of cheering, our girls usually say, "It's fun," or, "I like it." We can't blame them, for besides having fun, the girls see the game for nothing. Their seats are the best in the house, too.

Varsity

Under the guidance of Coach Adams this year's team, composed of three previous lettermen and four from last year's B-Squad, won eight out of twenty-one games.

The powerful Mt. Lebanon and Dormont teams were the only ones to beat Carnegie in both games. At least four games were lost in the final minutes because of lack of capable replacements. Bob Geisler was high scorer with 156 tallies, and Toney and Gibbs were runners-up. Since only two players will be lost by graduation, prospects for a winning team next year are fairly good.

B-Squad

At the end of the season the B-Squad was composed of six juniors and two sophomores. At times, especially at the beginning, when they won three out of the first four starts, the B-Squad looked good, but later in the season they bogged down. Carnegie won in both engagements over McKees Rocks and Stowe, but they lost two games each to Dormont, Mt. Lebanon, Canonsburg, Crafton, and Clark; while they split honors with Bridgeville and Burgettstown. The total for the year: 8 wins and 12 losses. Bob Sawhill was high scorer, followed by Cross and Hatcher. As for next year, at least four of the B-Squad will give stiff competition to the five lettermen.

Wrestling

The Little Tartan matmen concluded a fairly successful season, winning seven and losing seven. This season paralleled last year's record, where six were won and six were lost. Munhall is our new opponent in their first year of wrestling competition. The three best wrestling schools in the district—Canonsburg, Washington, and Chartiers—defeated Carnegie in both home and away matches by large margins. On the other hand, Carnegie won home and away engagements over Millvale, Munhall, and Dormont. The Tartan rival, West View, managed to beat Carnegie in an away match, but for the final match of the season Carnegie came back and proved to be the better wrestlers. Carnegie had fourteen lettermen for this year, and eight will return next year. Of these Cerasini and Rinehart have earned their letters all four years.

At the end of the season Gournic, Uram, Yoltan, and Rinehart tried for a W. P. I. A. L. title. Yoltan, only Carnegie boy to lose in the first round, lost to Haney of Canonsburg, who became champion. In the quarter-finals, Gournic also lost to a Canonsburg boy, who became a champion. This left Uram and Rinehart in the semi-finals. Uram lost a tough match while Rinehart lost to Frank Vulcons of Chartiers, who was his toughest competitor throughout the year.

Rifle Club

Youngest of all the clubs in the high school, the Rifle Club was organized in February of this year under the sponsorship of Mr. Robb. The whole purpose of the club is to acquire skill in the use of the rifle. Since it is a service club, the organization is open to freshmen as well as to upperclassmen. Because the club is affiliated with the National Rifle Association, a certain number of guns and shells are received from the parent association, the amount being based upon the club's membership. The membership of the club is limited to thirty. It is the ambition of the club eventually to compete with other W. P. I. A. L. schools in rifle matches.

The Girls' Athletic Association is one of the all-girl clubs in our school. Miss Mitchell is the sponsor of this organization. Membership in the club is unlimited, and to be eligible the girls must participate in some sport. To remain in the club the members must be active in at least one sport annually. The sports activities include volleyball, basketball, hiking, and bowling. Before becoming a real honest-to-goodness member, the girls undergo a thorough initiation. The initiation this year was exceptionally tough. They came dressed in Pop's long underwear with their hair in plaits, and then the fun began. After a grueling hour of being fed concoctions, paddled, and having to crawl around on the floor, the girls were paraded up Main Street. Those who survived were really good sports.

The captains of the volleyball teams were: Senior: D. Mitchell; Junior: D. Sandrus; Sophomore: A. Muschweck, Freshman: R. Palombi.

3. School starts this afternoon for seniors and freshmen. Miss Mason new from Scott High School. Mrs. Zirkle here to stay—no longer a substitute. The seniors have no one to look up to. We relaxed our nerves from the hard day's work by going to the corn roast the Canteen had that evening at Carnegie Park. 4. Really school—sophomores, juniors, and all—plus plenty of nightwork. 9. Electric strike threatened. Will there be school? A joke, son, of course! 16. Mr. Rosser pays us a visit that means Voyager pictures. 20. We really and truly won a football game—the first one—looks like a rosy future. We beat Bridgeville 19-6. 21. Game at Cory. Rather sad. Score: 12-0 Cory's favor. 24. Long-awaited-for electric strike finally here, but school continues. 25. End of competition between magazine campaign teams. Black team reached goal and won! 27. Another game. Hard struggle. It is the night of March 28; the air has the piercing chill of early spring. A mob of people jostles in front of the auditorium doors and surges wildly in when the doors are opened, racing madly for the choice seats. Splat, splat, splat—the seats go down; the center fills up; the balcony is ringed with leaning faces. The latecomers (and anyone who comes five minutes later is late) wander with discontented faces and finally settle down far to the side or far to the front or behind a pillar. The vast shapeless roar of hundreds of voices rises and hovers like a nightmare. The orchestra straggles in and takes its seats in the pit, readies its instruments, and nods and smiles at friends. The orchestra rises, the audience rises, The

STUDENT DIRECTOR AND PROMPTERS

Star Spangled Banner. Everyone sits down; the house lights go out; on come the footlights; and up goes the painted curtain with scarcely a jolt. An expectant hush falls. The play is about to begin.

Was there ever so amusing a play as A Date with Judy, or a leading lady so delectable as Tee Jay Evans, or an Oogie more forlornly adolescent than John Novak, or a Randolph more devastating than Frank Cerasini? Was there ever a father more harassed than Joe Gibbs lugging a bag of fertilizer across the stage, or a mother so put upon as Mary Jane Watts, or a comic maid so comic as Gerry Camaioni? If there ever was, your audience wouldn't know it, for the audience is loaded with parents and schoolmates and uncles and aunts and brothers and sisters. It laughs every time Isabel Houston blows her bubble gum, leans forward to admire the dresses of Phyllis Clayton, coos at the sight of Barbara Knepper, roars at Edna Hines and her bobbing plumes, shrieks at Jean Gournic, and her ambitious stage mother, Naoma Jean Theiss, howls at Bob Stuart's troubles, and leans back weakly when Howard Northey collapses.

In the first intermission the Triple Trio, unfamiliar in blue and pink and white, raises girlish voices. In the second intermission the corsages are presented—to Miss Brandon as coach and to Miss Hepler as critic and Dorothy Uram as student director. The audience oh's and ah's over the flowers in their cellophane wrappers, the recipients beam and blink over the footlights, everyone claps, and the vast, vague roar of voices rises and falls as the audience waits for the third act. And then, alas, the curtain comes down at last, and the harsh house lights go up, and the Land of Make-Believe suddenly vanishes as everyone pushes his way out. For three magic hours we were snatched out of ourselves, and how cold and drab the world seems as we go out into the bitter March wind!

"Ah! Look who is here!"
Houston, Cerasini, Evans, Gibbs, Northey.

"I've got a date with Judy."
