D E D I C A T I O N

As we look back over our four years in Carnegie High School, one who has done a great deal toward making it an enjoyable, as well as a worthwhile and profitable phase of our life, is our own superintendent, Mr. Glasser. Always ready to give friendly advice when called upon, the door to his office never seems to be closed to a puzzled student. With this in mind the class of nineteen hundred and fifty would like to dedicate this volume of the VOYAGER to Mr. Norman L. Glasser.

Mr. Glasser

Mr. Norman L. Glasser has been our superintendent now for twenty-three years. In these years he has guided the schools through troubled and uncertain times: the feverish years before the crash of '29, the dark days of the depression, the uneasy days of rearmament, the darker days of World War II, and the atom-haunted days since victory.

It has always been Mr. Glasser's guiding principle that "since free education was established in our country for all children on the grounds of its value to society and of its necessity for the preservation and functioning of our democratic form of government, our chief aim must always be to help in every way possible all the children of our schools to acquire the knowledge, skill, attitude, and disposition needed to enable them to become capable, responsible, and cooperative citizens."

Ruth Walton

An important position in the school is occupied by Miss Ruth Walton. She is our superintendent's secretary. Previous to the job she has now, she was Mr. Lee's secretary. When Miss Shively left Carnegie High School, Miss Walton stepped into her place, and Miss Boehmer took Miss Walton's job. We do not see as much of Miss Walton now, but when we do, she always has a cheerful "Hello" to greet everyone with.

Miss Walton

While Mr. Glasser is connected with all four of our public schools in Carnegie, Mr. Lee's duty is confined to our high school. He has the personal supervision of the high school teachers.

As a principal he has many problems to take care of. Some of them pertain to the high school records. He has on permanent file the complete scholastic record of every student who has passed through the doors of Carnegie High School. This file has been of great value to the government and many colleges and universities. It has helped many employers also.

Mr. Lee has the job of seeing that discipline is maintained in the school. We may think this is an easy job, but I think we might find Mr. Lee has a different viewpoint on this subject.

Another important duty Mr. Lee has is making up the schedules for our classes and examinations.

We all know Mr. Lee as not only a very exact and prompt person himself, but one who demands the same of others. To our knowledge, there has never been anyone who has sneaked in late without being caught. As a result of this, our school has the lowest tardy record that we know of.

Mr. Lee

Miss Bohmer

Miss Bohmer, better known to us all as Virginia, has been Mr. Lee's secretary for two years now. Since Virginia was a graduate of Carnegie High School, she had an advantage over most secretaries. She did not have to learn about the rules and regulations of the school, as she was already acquainted with them. This helped both her and Mr. Lee a great deal. Most of the students of the school regard Virginia as one of the school girls. The boys make up a good percentage of these students. They must, from the whistles heard when she comes into fifth period geometry class.

Student - Faculty

Anyone should be proud to be a member of this organization. The membership is made up from the various clubs and organizations of our school. Each organization sends one or two representatives.

The Student-Faculty has the job of settling the problems and arguments of the school. This club has the final say in most of the decisions. Some of the things which they decide are: all dates for the dances, skating parties, the corsage problems, and assemblies. They helped get the little pep program together and the half-day off from school when our basketball team took the section title.

Bill Kozy is the president, Marlene Kapeluck is secretary, Miss Burig is the faculty advisor, and Miss Dickenson is the calendar chairman.

The Student-Faculty meets on the third Thursday of every month during the eighth period.

SENIOR CLASSES

Class History

1946-47

One bright afternoon four years ago, there entered into Carnegie High School a class of 110 freshies, as green as freshmen always are. That was our Class of '50. Timidly we crept about the school, afraid to make mistakes and reveal our ignorance, eager to cooperate, humble because we were only freshmen, proud that we no longer were in the grade schools. But soon we became accustomed to high school life and forgot we had ever been less than high school students. The only affair of importance was our freshman party. We shall never forget how busy Miss Hepler was helping us make sandwiches in chemistry lab.

1947-48

We survived our ordeal as lowly freshmen and are sophomores now. The following were elected as our officers: president, Richard Gatz; vice president, Jack Prohaska; secretary, Dolores Northey; treasurer, Ray Stys. Everyone enjoyed our sophomore dance on May 23 at Harding Gym.

1948-49

How grown up we feel to be juniors and wear a class ring of our very own. With Bill

Kozy as our president, we had a skating party and formal dance, both of which were very successful.

1949-50

How quickly the time has passed. It doesn't seem possible that we are seniors. We worked hard during our magazine campaign and were quite proud of the results. Walt Saunders furnished the music for our Senior Ball. We appreciated the opportunity to attend the lectures at Carnegie Music Hall. After Christmas we were busy writing our term papers. Anxiously we awaited our senior pictures. On March 24 we presented our play, You Can't Take It With You under the direction of Mr. William H. Putch. The senior banquet was a delightful affair, with a dance afterwards at Harding Gym. Our Baccalaureate services on June 4 were impressive. As the day of graduation, June 7, drew near, we felt sorry when we thought we must leave C. H. S. We hope we are now prepared to meet successfully our greatest test, our life after graduation. To the classes that follow we wish to extend a cordial greeting, that they, too, may have as enjoyable, but educational, a time as we, the Class of '50, have had.

BLANCHE MARIE ASTON

G Clef 2, 3; Choir 4; Commercial Club 4; G. A. A. 3, 4; Girls' Basketball 3.

Blanche's dark brown eyes are concealed behind attractively rimmed glasses. Shy and retiring, she is usually found with either Connie or Marcella, or both.

FRANCES E. BARONE

G Clef 2, 3; Choir 4; Commercial Club 2, 3, 4; Junior Prom Ticket Committee 3; Senior Prom Publicity Committee 4.

Joe has a special friend in Miss Hepler, or so it might seem. Perhaps it is his curly hair and not his ability in history that is the attraction. A bit impish, Joe manages to get around.

Satch, with her quiet ways and gleaming, slanted eyes, is really not so quiet as she seems. She is forever thinking of something new to do. Her new alto voice (she used to sing soprano) adds a lot toward making a good Triple Trio.

ANTOINETTE ANGELINA BRUNO

Antoinette is always seen with Mary Lou. Although most of her time is spent studying or working at home, she finds time for some fun. Antoinette is industrious and earnest and will always make good in anything she does.

G Clef 2, 3; Choir 4; See Staff 3, 4; Commercial Club 4; Dance Committee 4; Senior Prom Dance Committee 4.

Although Terry is a little on the shy side, she is still cheerful and ambitious. Her one great ambition in life is to become an artist, and she has a great deal of talent. She enjoys writing as well as drawing.

SAM CROSS, JR.

Hi-Y 3, 4; Dramateur Club 4; National Honor Society 3, 4; Varsity "C" 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Football 2, 3, 4, Letter 3, 4; Vice President 4; Junior Prom Ticket Committee.

Sam seems to be just naturally brilliant in anything that he attempts to do. We admire his easy manner and amiability. No one will forget Sam, with his red sweater and black, black hair.

JAMES J. CURTIN

Jim is that quiet little Irishman with the black curly hair. You can usually find him back in Room Five, where he is most likely studying. He never bothers anyone and never seems to be bothered by anyone.

ERNEST EARL DABNEY

Band 1, 2, 3, 4.

Honey, as he is called by his friends, is an active member of the band. Ernest seems to have a great interest in his paper route, and we are almost sure he takes pride in it. You can always recognize Ernest by those flashy shirts he wears.

One of our star football players and wrestlers through the years is Juju, a real he-man. He always has a story to tell anyone who will listen. Please don't be afraid of his driving; he's not really such a cowboy at the wheel.

DOLORES JANE DROST

G Clef 3, 4; G. A. A. 3, 4; Commercial Club 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Senior Dance.

Wherever you find Dot, you'll find Joan. They are inseparable. Dot always has a big grin on her face for you anytime of the day. Most of her time is spent in Crafton, but she is still loyal to her school.

SYLVIA IRENE DUNLAP

G Clef 2, 3; Choir 4; Camera Club 3, 4; Senior Play Costume Committee 4.

You enter a world of quiet serenity when you associate with Sylvia. She has beautiful brown curly hair and is one of the more brilliant members of our class. Just ask her to help you translate your Latin.

Pep, vitality, and a peaches-and-cream complexion rolled together into a pretty picture are a description of Pat, our hard-working G. A. A. president. She looks very becoming in her slim, straight skirts.

DAVID GOURNIC

Glee Club 2, 3; Choir 4; Hi-Y Club 2, 3, 4; Dramateur Club 3, 4; Varsity "C" 1, 2, 3, 4; Wrestling 1, 2, 3, 4, Letter 1, 2, 3, 4; Costume Committee 3.

The saying that good things come in small packages especially holds true of D. A. Just because D. A. is small doesn't mean that he isn't athletic, for a better wrestler couldn't be found. He also is a shark on the dance floor.

JOAN J. GOVEN

G Clef 2, 3; G. A. A. 2, 3, 4, Vice President 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Volleyball 4; Commercial Club 4.

A very active student in C. H. S. is Ginny. Cheering at the football and basketball games and playing the piano for Triple Trio keep this girl very busy. She is fortunate in having very beautiful platinum blond hair to go with some of the prettiest and most attractive clothes in our class.

LeROY E. HATCHER

Varsity "C" 2, 3, 4; Football 2, 3, 4, Letter 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4, Letter 4; Football Manager 4, Letter 4.

When you think of sparkling blue eyes, blond hair, cute dimples, and a gentle personality, you're thinking of Margie. She helps to lead the cheers at football games and was crowned Football Queen at the Canteen. She is kept quite busy with the many activities in which she participates.

MARLENE MAY KAPELUCK

G Clef 3; Tri-Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Representative 3; Drama Club 2, 3, 4; Chairman of Toast Committee, Club Banquet Chairman 2; Ticket Committee Chairman 3; Senior Play Committee 2, 3.

Marlene is quite interested in music. She has been taking lessons and sings for a number of our dances. Always smiling, she has proved to be a ready and efficient aid in all that she attempts to do.

JAMES WALLACE KNEPPER, JR.

Glee Club 2, 3; Choir 2, 3, 4; Male Quartet 3, 4; Senior Play Character; Voyager Staff 3, 4; Business Manager.

The ladies just couldn't get along without their ladies' man, and Ace is elected to be it. He is the observant newspaperman that we see flitting around in those beautiful loud plaid shirts and socks.

WILLIAM R. KOZY

Glee Club 3; Choir 4; Dramateur Club 2, 3, 4; Varsity "C" 2, 3, 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Letter 2, 3, 4; Wrestling 1, 2, 3, 4; Letter 2, 3, 4; Student-Faculty 3, 4; President 4; Class President 3.

Bill is a typical teen-age boy. He can always be seen wearing moccasins and white socks, with his trousers cuffed. Capable leadership is one quality which has made him very popular. Bill excels in football and wrestling as well as in his studies.

MARTHA JANE KURCHNER

G Clef 4; G. A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Treasurer 4; Volleyball 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Bowling 4; Skating Party 3, 4; Commercial Club, Club Dance 3, 4; Magazine Campaign.

Tall with dark brown hair and blue eyes—that's Cookie. She has about all the qualities required for fulfilling her ambition—modeling. The height of all her dates is of much concern to her. Every one admires Cookie's lovely long hair and the neat way she keeps it.

GLORIA JEAN LEVI

Commercial Club 4; Dance Committee 4; Voyager Staff 4; Class Dance Committees 3, 4; Snapshot Committee 3; Senior Play Property Committee 4.

Gloria is one of our less reliable spellers, but anyone who knows her is willing to overlook that. She is friendly as a pup and bubbles with enthusiasm.

SIDNEY THOMAS LEWIS

Glee Club 2, 3; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Ensemble 1, 2, 3; Swing Band 3; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Senior Representative; Varsity "C" 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Letter 3, 4; Student-Faculty 4; Class Vice-President 3; Class President 4; Refreshment Committee 3; Ticket Committee 2.

Tall, dark, and handsome is Sid. He goes for sports and music in a big way; being a valuable player on the basketball team and in the band proves this. His popularity among his classmates was evident when he was elected senior class president.

JOSEPH M. LUDWIG

Choir 4; Dramateur Club 3, 4; Club Dance Committees 3, 4; Varsity "C" 4; Football 3, 4; Letter 4; Basketball 3, 4; Letter 4.

Joe came to us from St. Luke's in his sophomore year. He has a slow sleepy sort of walk but on the football field he undergoes a miraculous change. He has quite a way with the girls and spends a portion of his time writing notes.

NANNETTE SUSAN McMURRAY

G Clef 2; Choir 3, 4; Triple Trio 4; G.A.A. 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 3; See Staff 2, 3; Tri-Hi-Y 2, 3, 4, Secretary 3; Dance Committees 1, 3, 4; Senior Play Cast 4.

Short an' sweet is our Nanny, and she's forever full of fun. She loves geometry, the Triple Trio, and talking on the phone. The shorter half of the McMurray twins is a true-blue member of our class.

LOUISE D. MISSONAK

Choir 2, 3, 4; Triple Trio 3, 4; G. A. A. 1, 2; Volleyball 1, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 3, 4; Drama Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 2, Vice President 4, Club Committees; Tri-Hi-Y Club 3, 4, Dance Committees; National Honor Society 3, 4, Secretary 3; Class Dance Committees 2, 3, 4; Magazine Campaign Manager 4; Business Manager of See 4; Senior Play Character 4; Student-Faculty 3, 4.

Louise is one of our most popular girls. She has charmed many by her beautiful voice. The lyrics to our Alma Mater were written by Louise—an achievement indeed. Her peaches-and-cream complexion is the envy of everyone.

RUSSELL MISSONAK

Glee Club 4; Varsity "C" 2, 3, 4; President 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4, Letter 2, 3, 4.

Mole is one of our football players who does not break the rules. To the coach this is an advantage, but to the girls this is a catastrophe! Mole has spent long hours in the office because he has trouble in getting to school on time.

ANTHONY L. MONTELEONE

Senior Play Character 4.

Tony's serious appearance is likely to deceive almost anyone for, no matter how hard he tries, either one way or the other, he seems to get into mischief. Teasing the girls is one favorite pastime, but it probably brings lots of business to the fruit store on Main Street.

ROBERT S. MOORE

Glee Club 2; Choir 2, 3, 4; Double Quartet 3; Male Quartet 4; Drama Club 2, 3, 4; Rifle Club 2, 3, Vice President 2; Junior High Basketball 1; Basketball 2; Class Dance Committees 3, 4.

This tall boy with red hair and the flashing blue eyes gives great competition to Frankie and Bing when he sings. Latin is not one of his favorite subjects. Lazy and slow-moving, he is one of the Rosslyn Heights gang.

ALICE JEAN MORETTI

G Clef 4, President 4; Camera Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4; G. A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2; Volleyball 1, 2, 3, 4; Dance Committees 2, 4; Publicity Committees 1, 2, 3, 4; Student-Faculty 4; Flag Twirler 1, 2; Majorette 4; See Staff 2; Voyager Staff 4; Art Editor.

Full of fun—that's Alice. There's never a dull moment when she's around. We will all remember her as a very cute majorette at the football games. Besides this, Alice can be seen at Danceland and the Canteen. She also writes poetry.

CHARLES R. NIEMEYER

Hi-Y 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Rifle Club 3, 4; Camera Club 4; Wrestling 1, 2, 3, 4, Letter 4; Senior Play 4.

Blond, short, and always with a tan, is our Buddy. His friendly ways and witty sayings have won him many friends among both the fair and manly sexes. We will certainly remember Buddy for his loud shirts and socks, which really are becoming to him.

DOLORES JEAN NORTHEY

Tri-Hi-Y 2, 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Drama Club 2, 3, 4; Student-Faculty 2; Class Secretary 2; Class Dance Committees 1, 2, 3.

Who is the cute girl with very pretty clothes who seems to be in everything? Why, that must be Dee. She is beaming with a charming personality and is active in the Dramateur and Tri-Hi-Y Clubs.

Class of '50

Class of '50

C. GEORGE NOWAK

Glee Club 3, 4; Hi-Y Club 2, 3, 4; Drama Club 2, 3, 4; Senior Play Character 4; Class Dance Committee 3.

Do you know someone quiet but full of pranks? Then it must be George. He is endowed with a sense of humor and wavy hair that sends the girls. We see him, the businessman, always selling papers on his bicycle.

JAMES A. ODDI

Varsity "C" 4, Letter 4; Wrestling Manager 3, 4, Letter 4.

Riz, who is short, finds everything else to do except school work; his graduation is a minor miracle. He is interested in all sports and takes part in many. Although he appears quiet on the surface, once he gets started, his good sense of humor will keep you in stitches.

ELLEN OLIVER

G Clef 2, 3; Choir 4; Student-Faculty 3, 4; See Staff 1, 2, 3, 4; Volleyball 1, 2, 3, 4, Captain 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3, Captain 1; Class Treasurer 3; Class Secretary 4; Dance Committees 1, 2, 3, 4; Calendar Committee 4; Snapshot Committee 3; Magazine Campaign 4; National Honor Society 4.

When we think of Ellen, we think of one of the nicest girls in C. H. S. She is always on hand when needed, loyal and industrious. Ellen has very becoming blond bangs and bright blue eyes. She is very proud of her two brothers.

ROSA PALOMBI

Choir 2, 3; G. A. A. 2, 3, 4; Volleyball 2, 3; Basketball 3; Commercial Club 4; Skating Party Committee 1, Co-Chairman 2; Senior Prom Committee 4.

Rosa is known for her lovely singing and would like to make a career of it, but that diamond ring on her left hand says differently. She has character and personality, and these are two of the reasons for her many friends.

LEONA C. PERSINSKI

G Clef 3, 4; Commercial Club 2, 3, 4, President 4, Dance Committees 2, 3; G. A. A. 3, 4; Basketball 2, 3; Volleyball 2, 3, 4.

Leona is the very competent president of the Commercial Club. Sturdy and capable, she can be depended on to do her share of anything that is to be done and then help do more.

NANCY PERZAK

G Clef 2, 3; Choir 4; Tri-Hi-Y 2, 3, 4, Dance Committees 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Volleyball 2, 3, 4; Magazine Campaign 4; Senior Play Committee 4; See Staff 4, Editor 4; Student-Faculty 4; National Honor Society 4.

Here is the lady executive with green eyes and curly, curly hair. Being editor of the See doesn't keep Nancy from being a good-natured farm girl, too. Do you want a definite idea on a subject? Nancy has it.

ROBERT PREVOST

Varsity "C" 3, 4; Basketball 2, 3, 4, Letter 3, 4; Football 3, 4, Letter 4; Class Dance Committee 4.

Bob finds it rather rough being the only boy in a class with all girls, but the girls don't mind. His favorite sport is football, and he is our kickoff man. He's one that doesn't say much, and maybe that is his secret for getting along with everyone.

Choir 4; Hi-Y Club 2, 3, 4; Drama Club 2, 3, 4, Refreshment Committee 3, 4; Basketball 3; Class Vice President 2; Orchestra Committee 3, 4; Color Committee 3; Refreshment Committee 4.

All those who know Jack can tell you what a wonderful personality he has. He is loads of fun to talk with. Jack is one of our best dancers, and many girls are proud to be his partner. Always trying to keep busy doing nothing—that's Jack.

THERESA M. REALE

A. 1, 2, 3, 4, Senior Representative 4; Student-Faculty 4; Volleyball 1, 2, 3, 4, Captain 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Dance Committees 1, 2, 3, 4, Chairman 1; Snapshot Committee 3, 4; Skating Party 3, 4; Magazine Campaign 4, Captain; Senior Play Committee 4; See Staff 3, 4; Voyager Staff 3, 4; Band Concert 1.

Terry with the flashing dark eyes and the friendly smile for all is often seen hard at work on a committee. Being a real Latin shark and also extremely interested in dress designing show that her interests are many and varied.

GEORGE RUSSELL

Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Ensemble 3; Swing Band 4; Varsity "C" 3, 4; Junior High Basketball 1, Letter 1; Basketball 2, 3, Letter 2; Freshman Party 1; Band Dance 2.

George is one of our boys who doesn't like to dance and bother with the opposite sex. However, he is quite the joker in classes. He is very good in basketball and baseball. Being one of the band's musicians for four years proves his musical ability.

PEGGY LOU RUSSELL

Glee Club 3; Commercial Club 4; Dance Committee 4, South High, Denver, 1, 2, 3.

Peggy Lou came to Carnegie High from South High in Denver, Colorado, a much larger school than ours. She is soft and slow of speech, just a bit sleepy in manner, but quite alert in a quiet way.

DOMENICK SALVATORE

DOLORES SAPORITO

G Clef 2; Triple Trio 3, 4; Choir 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y 4; Class Treasurer 4; Class Dance Committee 3, 4; Voyager Staff 4, Typist 4.

Would you like a shiny black hair to add to your collection of hairs? Go to Dolores, who has a beautiful alto voice besides the lovely hair. Her pretty clothes and sense of humor complete a very pretty picture.

PETER PAUL SARACENA

Pete is a very hard worker, for you'll always find him working at the shoe shop. He takes an interest in sports, although he can't participate in them. Something seems to be wrong with the girls at Carnegie High School, for he goes to Pittsburgh for his dates.

KURT W. SCHREIBER

Choir 3, 4; Glee Club 4; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Dramateur Club 3, 4; Rifle Club 3, 4, Treasurer 4; Dance Committee 3; Wrestling 1, 2, 3, 4, Letter 4; Senior Play Committee 3; Band Concert 3.

Kurt can really swing his partner in the polka. Among his other talents is his fine tenor voice. What would the quartet do without Kurt? He is often seen wearing a bright plaid shirt; that is so you can't miss him!

HAZEL IRENE SCHULTE

G Clef 3, 4; G. A. A. 2, 3, 4; Volleyball 3; Dance Committee 2; Commercial Club 4; Dance Committee 4; Rifle Club 2, 3, Club Pin Committee 2, 3; Ticket Committee 2, 3; See Staff 4; Magazine Campaign; Senior Play Cast 4.

Hear that giggling? That's Hazel. You will always find her talking away until her last moment is up. We often wonder what we'd do if Hazel weren't there to finish off one of the jokes. If you can't find Hazel, look for one of the nearest dance halls around. You're bound to find her there.

Class of '50

Class of '50

ROBERT R. SCOTT

Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Rifle Club 4; See Staff 1, 2, Senior Play Character.

Red, as he is called by most of his friends, is small, but that doesn't keep him out of mischief. Whenever he has a new teacher for a class, he always winds up in the front seat. If you ask him why, he'll tell you it's because the teacher admires his red hair.

VIRGINIA MAUREEN SHAFER

G Clef 4; G. A. A. 4; Volleyball 2; Senior Play Committee 4.

Virginia is very active and is always thinking up some kind of joke to crack. We believe she stays up all night to think what mischief she can get into. You'll always find her and Hazel together wherever you go.

GEORGE ALBERT SHINKO

Dramateur Club 2, 3, 4, Member-at-Large 4; Varsity "C" 4; Football 4, Letter 4; Senior Play Stage Crew 2, 3; Senior Play Character 4.

Jake has a laugh no other person could mimic. The joker of the senior class, he is always playing the clown. But he has a serious side too, and he works hard at whatever he's doing.

RONALD LOUIS SLACK

Band 1, 2; Glee Club 2; Choir 3, 4; Class Dance Committee 3, 4; Senior Play Character 4.

Do you want to square dance or listen to hill billy music? Then join Ron, as those seem to be his favorites. Ron is very talented in singing and acting and is always thinking up new concoctions in chemistry lab.

FRANCES SHIRLEY SMITH

G Clef 2, 3, 4; Rifle Club 3, 4, Secretary; Camera Club 4; G. A. A. 4; Pep Club 3, 4.

Shirley is short, has blond hair and blue eyes. She has a great interest in her school work, but she always manages to keep her friends at the same time. Shirley is quiet and a little on the bashful side.

G Clef 2, 3; Choir 4; Flag Twirler 1, 2; Camera Club 3, 4, President 4; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4, Vice President 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Freshman Party 1; Dance Committee 2, 3, 4; Student-Faculty Committee 4; Canteen 4.

If you want a sincere friend, you can always rely on Donna. She finds no difficulty in making friends with both boys and girls. Spider attends all basketball games. Drawing, dancing, and skating are a few of her many hobbies.

MARY LOUISE SOLIDAY

Commercial Club 3, 4; See Staff 4, Typist; Volleyball 3, 4; Basketball 2, 3.

Mary Lou is one of the few girls in the commercial groups this year who make their own clothes. She is always smartly dressed, and she has a great variety of unusually different blouses. Her willingness to help when help is needed is appreciated by those who receive it.

MARY ALICE SPERRING

G Clef 2; Choir 3, 4; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Ensemble 1, 2, 3; Swing Band Accompanist 4; Secretary-Treasurer of Band; Senior Play Committee 4; Magazine Campaign 4.

We have on the program a tall blond with blue eyes who sounds good both in looks and in musical ability. She's one of the faithful band members, and we hear that Mary Alice likes the Camera Club, too.

One of our brilliant students is Stan. He is a whiz in chemistry and trig. This doesn't mean that it's all work and no play with him, for he is very good in basketball and active in many organizations.

VIRGINIA J. STRELLA

Camera Club 2, 3, 4; G. A. A. 4; Junior Prom Committee 3; Program Committee 4; Senior Play Committee 4.

Quiet but sweet best describe Virginia. If you ever want anything done, ask her and she'll help you. She is often found working very hard on geometric exercises. Ice skating is her favorite pastime.

PATRICIA JOAN STUART

Pat has a slow, gentle manner in talking, walking, and laughing, which has won the affection of many classmates. She is the capable president of the Tri-Hi-Y, an office which she is very proud to hold.

RAY A. STYS

Glee Club 2, 3; Choir 3, 4; Varsity "C" 4; Football 2, 3, 4, Letter 3, 4; Wrestling 2, 3, 4; Football Manager 1; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Dance Committee 3; Rifle Club 2, 3; Dramateur Club 2, 3, 4; Student-Faculty 2; Class Dance Committee 2, 3, 4; Senior Play Stage Crewman 2, 3.

ELLEN ELIZABETH THORPE

G Clef 2, 3; Choir 4; G. A. A. 3, 4; Volleyball 1, 3, 4; Basketball 2, 3; Rifle Club 3, 4; Pep Club 4; Dance Committee 4; Senior Play Cast 4.

Ellen is one of the best groomed girls in Carnegie High. She has the gift of being able to arrange her hair in many becoming ways. She is cheerfully impudent and has a bedrock of sound common sense.

GINO TROMBETTA

Rifle Club 4; Varsity "C" 2, 3, 4; Football 2, 3, 4, Letter 3, 4; Wrestling 1, 2, 3, 4; Letter 2, 3, 4.

Tall, dark, and a real gentleman is our Gino. He could be anyone's hero, for he has the characteristics, although we must admit that he is a shy and modest man. Gino has a special knack for playing pranks.

ALICE G. TUDAS

Commercial Club 3, 4; Volleyball 3; Refreshment Committee 4.

Alice has beautiful, naturally wavy hair and keeps up with the fashion. She goes to school only because her dad laid down the law, but her interest lies in a certain ex-soldier. She's never in a hurry but always on time, especially for dancing and skating.

CHARLES URAM

Varsity "C" 1, 2, 3, 4; President 3; Wrestling 1, 2, 3, 4, Letter 1, 2, 3, 4; Football 3, 4, Letter 3, 4; Dramateur Club 2, 3, 4, Member-at-Large 3, President 4; National Honor Society 4.

Blonde and attractive, Carolyn is one of our star volleyball players. Everyone admires the talent she has in arranging her hair. She is also like the weather, for she is in and out with the styles.

MARILYN RUTH VOORHEES

Monessen High 1, 2; Tri-Hi-Y 2, 3, 4, Devotional Committee Chairman 4, Dance Committee 3; Camera Club 4; See Staff 4; National Honor Society 4; Dance Committee 3; Senior Play Committee Chairman.

Marilyn came to C. H. S. from Monessen High in her junior year and has made quite a hit with both girls and boys. She is small, attractive, and has the cutest way of twinkling her nose like a rabbit.

LAURA ELIZABETH WARD

Commercial Club 4, Dance Committees 2, 4; Magazine Campaign 4; Ticket Committee 4; Senior Play Character 4.

Laura always wants to know if anyone has any gum, for that's all she seems to know. When Laura's around, it's a one-person circus, for she really keeps you in stitches. She loves to say, "You're crackin' up!"

CHARLES JAMES WEISS

Rifle Club 3, 4, Vice President 4; Varsity "C" 3, 4; Football 2, 3, 4, Letter 3, 4.

Jimmy is a boy of great patience and great wit. We'll remember a very tall muscular fellow with blond wavy hair. How do you get those waves, Jim? He is one of the hard workers at Kroger's store.

BARBARA M. WILLIAMS

G Clef 2; Tri-Hi-Y Club 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary 4; See Staff 4; Voyager Staff 4; Class Dance Committees 3, 4.

L. MARCELLA WILLIAMS

Commercial Club 2, 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y 4; Volleyball 2; Basketball 2; Club Committees 3, 4.

Marcella is one of our future secretaries. Her pet peeve is shorthand, and you can always find her working very hard at it. Marcy is usually seen flashing her cheery smile around.

EILEEN ALICE WRIGHT

Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Ensemble 1, 2, 3; Tri-Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; G. A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Volleyball 1, 2, 3, 4; Voyager Staff 4; Band Dance Committee 2.

Eileen has a warm smile and a very pleasant personality. She has been in the band for several years and has a great deal of musical ability. She fixes her light brown hair a number of ways, each one as becoming to her as the other.

EDWARD A. ZAVACKY

Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Camera Club 4; Rifle Club 3, 4; Wrestling 1, 2, 3, 4, Letter 4; Football Manager 3.

Ed has a rather mischievous way about him that drives the teachers slightly balmy. He has blue eyes, and his blond hair stands up in an untrainable cowlick.

MARION ZBALISHEN

G Clef 2; Choir 3, 4; Triple Trio 3, 4; Violin Class 4; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4; Senior Alternate Representative 4; Music Committee Chairman 4, Dance Committee 3; Class Dance Committee 3; Voyager Staff 4.

Marion is the singing doll with the tiny features. She wears a size two and-one-half shoe and has beautiful brown curly hair. When it is said that she is musically inclined, it is not an understatement, for her violin and piano music prove it.

ROBERT HILES

Glee Club 3; Choir 4; Varsity "C" 4; Football 3, 4, Letter 4.

Bob is that quiet blond boy you see around the school. An ambitious and hard working student, he uses his knowledge of geometry for cutting perfect 360-degree circles in doughnuts.

ROBERT M. SENTNER

Glee Club 4; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Dramateur Club 2, 3, 4; Varsity "C" 1, 2, 3, 4; Wrestling 1, 2, 3, 4, Letter 1, 2, 3, 4.

Bob is one of our wrestlers and is very lively at all times. Maybe it's because he is from Cabbage Hill. He is one of a long line of Sentners, and you can always recognize a Sentner by their glowing eyes.

The Voyager Staff

As you look through this year's VOYAGER, we hope that you are reminded of the many pleasant experiences you have had this year. Without the teamwork of a co-operative staff it would be impossible to publish a yearbook. We only hope that you get as much enjoyment reading our yearbook as we did in producing it.

See Staff

No doubt, if you have been in the halls eighth period any day, you have seen the "busy-bees" hunting for the latest gossip in and around the school. Each member of this staff has a job to do, and it is usually done well.

The SEE first became the school paper at our school in nineteen hundred and thirty seven. Since then it has proved to be a big success. For many years it had been a monthly paper.

At the beginning of this year it was suggested that the SEE become a weekly paper. At first it took the students a while to get used to this new system, but now we are sure that everyone likes it this way.

The SEE staff consists of thirty members, with Miss Mason as the sponsor, and Nancy Perzak as the editor-in-chief.

The National Honor Society

As the name suggests, the National Honor Society is a national organization of high-ranking students. Those who are eligible scholastically are rated on their character, leadership, and service. It is an honor and a privilege to be a member of this organization, and those who wear its pin are proud.

Among the various activities of the Carnegie chapter are the tea for the eighth grade honor students and the very impressive induction ceremony which is held at the end of the year. Stanley Spiecha and Sam Cross participated in the National Honor Society Scholarship examination this year. The motto which the members follow is, "Noblesse Oblige."

Drama Club

The Dramateur Club consists of fifty members including seniors, sophomores, and juniors, whose sponsor is Miss Hepler. To become a Drama Club member, one must show some dramatic ability. Then the applicant is rated by the members according to his skill. At the meetings, which are held every other Friday, one-act plays and various other kinds of entertainment are presented by the members. In January the club sponsored the Friday the Thirteenth Frolic, where the decorations were, quite appropriately, hanging umbrellas, black cats, thirteens, and stepladders. The Drama Club this year for the first time attended a Carnegie Tech play, entitled Today Just Like Tomorrow. The club deserves a great deal of credit for presenting a one-act comedy, The Christmas Rose, for the entire school at a Christmas assembly. An outstanding event of the club is its annual banquet. Every member of the Dramateur Club receives an educational as well as an entertainment value.

Camera Club

Mr. Burkett does a good job of sponsoring the Camera Club. This club deals with the taking and processing of pictures, including actual experience in the dark room.

In order to become a member of this club, a candidate has to know something about photography. Applications of those who wish to become members are approved by the Student-Faculty Council. The club then rates applicants on points; those having the highest ratings are accepted. Informal initiations follow.

Meetings are held every second and fourth Tuesday of the month. Dues are fifty cents a semester. This year there is a total of thirty members in the club.

The members of the club learn all the old and new fundamentals of photography, with a lot of fun mixed in with it.

The Tri - Hi - Y

The Tri-Hi-Y is a fellowship group organized for the purpose of having fun and of creating and developing the characters of the girls for good citizenship and church membership. The purpose, "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character," is being carried out in many Tri-Hi-Y clubs and in Carnegie's club by such projects as: CARE packages, money for the World Youth Fund, and a bulletin board for Carnegie High School. The Hi-Y contributed and joined with the Tri-Hi-Y on the last project.

Among the activities and special events of the year were, the impressive convocation service held at Trinity Cathedral on November 30, the crowning of the May Queen at the annual May Queen Dance, and an Easter Assembly given for the girls of Carnegie High.

Mrs. Sawhill helps the club practice the motto, "pure thoughts; pure words; pure deeds." She is an advisor to the club and to the girls individually.

Hi - Y

This year the Hi-Y had a very successful program of activities. The Hi-Y's basketball team participated in the Christmas Tournament sponsored by the downtown Y. M. C. A. They also played Hi-Y teams from neighboring schools. The results were exceptionally good, eleven wins and only two losses. This year the Hi-Y had a joint project with the Tri-Hi-Y: a bulletin board at the entrance to the building. Besides sponsoring its annual dance, which came on May 26 this year, the club is still actively supporting the canteen. The Hi-Y always donates and decorates the school's Christmas tree, which is placed in the front hall. The club, under the new sponsorship of Mr. Logan, held induction services for its new members on March 15. The club seeks to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character.

G. A. A.

The G. A. A., with its membership of sixty girls, is one of the few clubs which are open to the freshmen. Meetings are held on the second Thursday of each month at 7:30 p. m. Girls who wish to join the G. A. A. are voted upon by the members according to their athletic ability, character, and service to the school. The members of this organization participate in volleyball, basketball, bowling, and hiking. This year swimming was added to the club's activities. The association renders a valuable service to the school and to the athletic program by managing the re-

Varsity "C"

This club consists of boys who have proved that they are good in a specified sport or sports. Membership is open only to boys that have excelled in one or more sports, and have received a letter for a competitive sport, such as football, basketball, wrestling, and baseball. This club ranks high among the other clubs of our school.

To some people a letter may just seem like a piece of cloth, but to the boy who has earned it, it is like a decoration to show that he has done his part in a sport.

This club provides an injury fund for any and all injuries received in or through a competitive sport. This year the Varsity "C" has 45 members. For two years now it has been under the direction of Mr. Giannangelo, our football coach.

At one of their meetings the club had a very interesting speaker from the Business Training School in Pittsburgh. They also held an entertaining assembly, "Laugh-a-teers", with three boys who do pantomime in time to records by Spike Jones.

The Carnegie High Band plays an important part in our school life. It takes part in our pep meetings, the senior play, and Spring Concert. Whenever it is called upon, the band is always prepared with good music and wonderful entertainment. In April the band has a concert of its own. The first part of the concert is devoted to classical music, and the second part to popular music. The latter is played by the Swing Band, which consists of fourteen musicians. The Band and Swing Band this year were under the direction of Mr. Stephen Raytek. Sidney Lewis acted as student director.

For the first time Carnegie had a string ensemble this year. The String Ensemble consists of nine members, all of whom play the violin. Mr. Raytek was responsible for organizing this new group.

Carnegie opened their '49 football season on September 9 with an easy 26-0 victory over a strong South Fayette eleven. The scoring went as follows: Gatz, Uram, Cross, Gatz, Keisling, and Lovett. Although Carnegie showed a lot of scoring punch, they left nothing lacking in the defense department, because the line played just about as good a game of football as could be asked of any high school line. Lovett provided the highlight of the game with a beautiful 56-yard end run to paydirt.

On September 16 Carnegie journeyed to Bridgeville and were stopped cold on everything they tried by a very powerful and well-trained eleven. They failed to capitalize on a break at the opening of the game, and Bridgeville's razzle-dazzle backfield clicked on every play they tried. The line play on the part of both teams was fierce and showed the mark of good coaching. Carnegie's offensive attack just couldn't get going, and the game ended with a score of 21-0 in favor of Bridgeville.

Carnegie came right back into the victory column with a fine 19-6 win over McKees Rocks. Carnegie's offense and defense looked much better in this game than in the preceding one. Carnegie put on the power early in the game, with Keisling scoring once and Gatz twice. The first try for the point after touchdown was good; however, the final two failed. The Rocks didn't manage to push over a score until the closing moments of the game, and the score ended at a 19-6 count in favor of Carnegie.

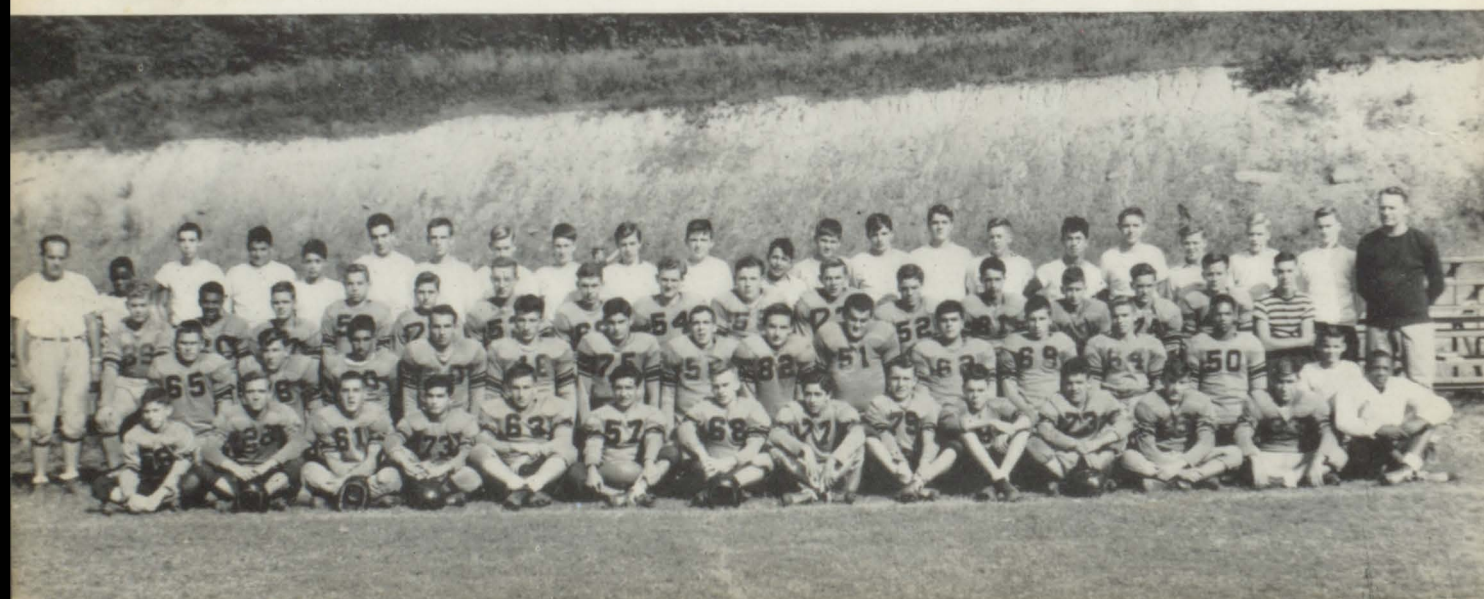

In the next encounter Midland proved to be too much for Carnegie, as they ran up a 26-0 score. Midland's passing and running attacks were beautiful to watch, as they played the best game of their season.

1st row: Geisler, Turney, Shinko, Toney, Stys, Salvatore, Hiles, Nicoletti, Deak, Chidlow, Obenour, Stawiarski, Vivadio, Small.

2nd row: Klim, Uram, Cross, Kozy, Gatz, Trombetta, Keisling, Ludwig, Silcock, Pantuso, Missonak, Gournic, Lovett.

3rd row: Porter, Ferguson, Bailey, Klapach, Kessler, English, Prevost, Weiss, Kerr, Netzel, Skirpan, Massella, Battaglia, Nowak, Pysh, McCartney.

Senior Football

1st row: Shinko, Uram, Missonak, Hiles, Salvatore.

2nd row: Trombetta, Kozy, Stys, Cross, Ludwig.

3rd row: Weiss, Silcock, Gatz, Prevost.

Carnegie got back into stride by defeating a good Cecil squad 21-0. The first half remained scoreless; however, in the opening minutes of the second we started to move, with Keisling breaking the ice with a score. Shortly after, Missonak and Lovett scored, and Gatz showed his driving power by plunging through the middle of the line for the three extra points.

Carnegie was outslugged in their next encounter and went down to a 32-6 defeat at the hands of Clark. Carnegie's only score came late in the third quarter with Ed Bailey supplying the final drive to paydirt. This game proved to be the hardest fought of the year, with the lines of both teams fighting a stubborn battle.

Carnegie traveled next to Crafton, where they met with a 20-0 defeat at the hands of a strong Crafton club. The first half went by without a score, but Carnegie threatened several times. Both teams showed some of the finest, most exciting football that has been seen for a long time. The score doesn't tell the real story of the game, for Crafton didn't score until late in the third and fourth quarters. Although Crafton won, they were hard pressed at times to drive off Carnegie's powerful offensive thrusts.

In their next engagement Carnegie met an evenly matched Stowe eleven and barely eked out a 14-13 victory. Keisling opened the scoring with a beautiful 62-yard end run, on which he had some of the finest downfield blocking seen during the game. Carnegie scored again before Stowe could register their first tally. We now led 14-6, but in the closing moments of the game Stowe scored again and made the conversion. The finest and most thrilling run of the game was turned in by Missonak on a pass interception, which carried for 79 yards only to be one foot short of a T. D.

Carnegie lost a heartbreaker to Dormont in their next contest by a score of 6-0. The game was only seconds old when Pardini of Dormont broke through with the only score of the game. The remainder was played in a scoreless deadlock. Carnegie threatened time and time again, only to be denied the last few remaining yards for either tying or winning the ball game.

Carnegie closed out their good '49 season with an upset victory over once beaten Zeliensple by a score of 32-7. The highlights of the game were turned in by Keisling and Lovett on touchdown runs of 63 and 70 yards respectively. By obtaining this fine victory, Carnegie was able to close out a good season with a respectable record of five wins and five defeats.

First Row: Hubacher, Hamilton, Everly.
Second Row: Sedlar, Hall, Davidson, Dowler.

All set? You bet! That's your cue to let out and yell.

The air resounded with shouts of hundreds of voices from the bleachers as the lively seven led C. H. S. in a cheer. The cheerleaders, Virginia Hamilton, Margie Hubacher, Marion Davidson, Carole Everly, Carolyn Hall, Shirley Dowler, and Anne Sedlar, showed their vim, vigor, and vitality at all the pep meetings as well as at the games. They were happy to have the opportunity to cheer for Carnegie High's basketball team this year at Pitt Stadium. This year's cheerleaders have supported the teams and the school at every game.

Wrestling

Carnegie's wrestling squad completed another successful season with a record of five wins, six losses, and one tie. Although this may not seem to be great as a team showing, it was the individual records which Carnegie can boast about. As always, we had a few exceptionally fine wrestlers who proved this by their fine showing in the annual tourney at Waynesburg.

These outstanding wrestlers who went to the tourney were Sentner, Uram, Kozy, Trombetta, Skirpan, and Gournic. Gournic received a medal for his efforts. Mr. Sawhill can be proud, as well as the school as a whole, for the fine wrestlers he has produced who have put on such a consistently fine showing to carry on the glory of Carnegie.

Athletic Association

The Athletic Association is the push behind all our sports. By the push we mean that they schedule all our football and basketball games.

Our football team, coached by Mr. Giannangelo, came out with a tied record of five wins and five losses.

The wrestling team, coached by Mr. Sawhill, came out with five wins and seven losses.

Mr. Stockum once again took over the coaching of the Junior High. They ended with nine wins and five losses.

Miss Mitchell is the head of all the girls' sports.

The basketball team is once again being coached by Mr. Adams.

Girls' Sports

The busiest days for the girls of C. H. S. are Mondays and Wednesdays, for as we all know, these are their gym days. With shrewd competition they all strive to be chosen for their class teams. Intramural class volleyball and basketball teams play each other, and the shrill shrieks of the participants can be heard throughout the school. Both sports are greatly enjoyed by our feminine athletes. By far the most popular features of the past year's athletic program were the basketball and volleyball tournaments played against the Clark and Bridgeville High School girls. These teams were composed of the best players from all classes, and the C. H. S. lasses showed much enthusiasm.

The Senior Play

"What happened to that bald-headed wig?" "Have you seen my snakes anywhere?" "I've just got to have my tray of dishes!" Yes, that was just a little bit of the senior play, You Can't Take It With You, by Moss Hart and George Kaufman.

The play was presented on March 24, 1950, at the Carnegie Library Auditorium. Before this date, however, the activity which took place in preparation for the big night would fill a book. Mr. William H. Putch of the Carnegie Institute of Technology was the very efficient director who saw that everything was attended to and finished.

"Know your lines and tonight we'll practice with props" became a familiar direction to the play cast, who found that it wasn't so easy to be eccentric as it might seem. The characters in the play all seem to be a little bit crazy, but the cast had a wonderful time portraying the story because it was a very down-to-earth and understandable plot.

The committees all worked just as hard as the cast in their business of finding innumerable props, costumes, and set furnishings. The make-up committee learned how to grow a beard in fifteen minutes and the technique of becoming sun-tan under footlights.

All those concerned had fun putting the play on, and everyone had a grand time watching the finished product.

Freshman Class of '49-'50

Last September 159 young men and women entered the doors of Carnegie High, happy and proud of the fact that they were then starting a new phase of their education. Brothers, sisters, and friends had filled us with the traditions of Carnegie High, and we were earnestly eager to participate in the high school life and activities.

It did not take long, however, to learn that being a member of the Freshman Class of '49-'50 meant more than taking freshman English and other freshman subjects. It is true that at first we caused many a traffic tie-up by not obeying the one-way traffic signs. Often we couldn't find our seats in study hall without a little help, but we realized that this was a new way of life, and that with the help of the upper classmen and teachers, we would soon be a part of the high school and its activities.

But all work and no play has never been the motto of Carnegie High. Even for freshmen many opportunities for participation in activities were open. When football season started, we raised our voices loudly and proudly in newly learned songs and cheers to spur on our football team—and the freshman members of the team. Many of our freshman girls joined the Pep Club and also represented us in volleyball, basketball, and other G. A. A. functions.

Positions on the VOYAGER and SEE were open to freshmen who wished to help in their publication.

Now that our freshman year is almost over, we look back on a year of study, fun, and new associations. We did make mistakes at first, but these amused our upper classmen, because they caused them to remember and relive their first year of high school when they had made the same mistakes. In the past short nine months, many of us have grown in stature, but all of us have grown to feel as much a part of our Alma Mater as the mortar that holds together the bricks which make Carnegie High School.

Pep Club

Yeah, Orange! Yeah, Black! Yes, that's right. That's Carnegie High School's Pep Club. It is just a new organization formed this year. It is made up of freshmen, sophomore, junior, and senior girls who want to join it. There are 92 members in the club. At every football game, home or away, you can always see these girls in those chic black and orange jackets and hats, yelling for our team every inch of the way.

They have had a few money-making projects during the year, one of which was selling those new Carnegie High School pens and pencils. Then around Easter time they were selling chocolate eggs. These were both very good projects, and most of us were happy to contribute to them.

We hope we can keep this club together, as it was a great morale-raiser to our teams during this past year. Miss Walton is the sponsor of this group.

Magazine Campaign

During the first two months of the school year the seniors were kept busy selling magazine subscriptions. There were two teams, an Orange and a Black, with Marlene Kapeluck and Theresa Reale as captains, respectively. By a narrow margin the black team was the victor. Business managers were Laura Kanoza and Louise Missonak. The total receipts were $2398.40, an amount which exceeded that of any preceding class.

The goal, which was to sell magazines amounting to twenty dollars of commission, was achieved by the seniors pictured above. This entitled them to a free VOYAGER. Awards for high salesmen were presented to Louise Missonak and Ellen Oliver.

For Seniors Only

It's all over! This is what a great many seniors are saying as the end of four years in high school looms ahead. To the eyes of a senior the last days of school are quite different from the picture he has gotten for the past three years. There has always been that knowledge that there is still another year, with its classes and dances to look forward to. Always there has been another year, but now we begin to realize that we are really graduating and that we have the whole world ahead of us.

To be sure, we have made truly wonderful friendships, and we are grateful for them. It seems strange, when we think, that this is the last time that these classmates will sit next to us, or across the room. The friendship with these same people for perhaps twelve years has been perfect, but now these same ones will be just acquaintances. Yes, they will still be our friends, but there will not be the same intimacy as when we were saying "Hi" to them every day in the hall. Little things all through our senior year have given us that strange feeling in the pit of our stomach. Remember that time at the Hi-Y—Tri-Hi-Y Convocation when we realized that this would be the last time we would be sitting in Trinity Cathedral watching the impressive ceremony? Or remember the last game we played in when the score was so close? Maybe we're thinking of the last time we cheered for good old C. H. S. Whatever we remember best about high school, we suddenly wake up with a thud and realize that this is the last year that we will be a part of this wonderful life. It's been wonderful, hasn't it? We'll never forget a minute of it, will we? The class of 1950 has had a terrific time in Carnegie High School, and we wouldn't trade a minute of it for all the rice in China.
