FOREWORD

The staff members of the 1951 Voyager hope that this book will be of great pleasure to you in the years to come. As you turn through the pages now, and in the years to come, may it bring back once again the memories of your high school years. In this troubled year of 1951 we little know what fate holds for us. Several of those whose pictures smile forth at us from these pages are even now in the armed services, and many more are destined for military service in foreign lands and under strange skies. But for a little while, while the students giggled and shuffled and the photographer patiently composed his groups so that every face could be caught on film, we were all here together as we shall never be together again.

For those who are graduating in June a troubled and uncertain future lies ahead. The thought, or rather the question, in their minds is, "What is in store for me and for the fellow members of my class?" There is only One who knows the answer to this question, and we are sure that whatever the answers may be, they will be for our own good.

So, as you look through the pages of this book, you will see faces of those whom you may never again see in person, but here between the covers of the 1951 Voyager we stand together and face the camera in our best clothes and with our most winning smiles. May God be with us!

D E D I C A T I O N

We dedicate this year's Voyager to America and to the American ideal. America is not merely another nation; it is a world symbol of opportunity, justice, and prosperity.

When our forefathers founded this nation in a new birth of freedom and dedicated it to the ideal that all men were created equal, little did they know how distorted those words were destined to become.

We have engaged in many wars since then, and we are in a great one now. We are so used to our liberties that we have had a tendency to overlook the true importance of the human rights embodied in the Bill of Rights and the Declaration of Independence.

How many Americans have gone to sleep with the fear that their possessions might be destroyed before the next day, or have lived in constant hiding, escape being their only thought? Did you ever stop to think how it would feel to know that you were being watched every minute of the day? What would you do if your precious freedoms were taken away—freedom of the press, speech, and religion? No one ever really appreciates the value of the important things in life until they are gone. Stop and think about it. This America of ours is a wonderful place to live in.

We the graduates of 1951 are the future of America. Let us make certain that we will uphold and improve upon the principles set before us by our forefathers.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Glasser

SUPERINTENDENT

Mr. Glasser was born in Marion Center, Pennsylvania. He attended a one-room country school for his elementary education and went on to Marion Center High School for his secondary learning. He attended college at Grove City, receiving his A. B. degree from there in 1907. He received a master's degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1913 and has done graduate work at the University of Pittsburgh. Before coming to Carnegie, he taught for four years in the schools of Indiana County and held the position of principal at Waynesburg High School for five years. He was principal at Carnegie High from 1913 to 1926, when he secured his present position as superintendent of public schools in Carnegie. To date, he has a cumulative total of forty-seven years, almost a half-century, of work in Pennsylvania schools behind him. He has three daughters, Virginia, Harriet, and Louise, who have all graduated from Carnegie High School.

It is with real regret that we say goodbye to Mr. Glasser, who retires from public school work this year. His almost half century in education has been served during some of the most troubled years of our history: the first World War, the boom days that led to the disastrous crash of 1929, the depression, the second World War, and now the Korean War. We hope that his years of retirement will be full of the satisfaction of a long job well done, that peace and calmness will mark his hours, and that he will have many grandchildren to bounce upon his knee.

Miss Ruth Walton occupies the position of secretary to our superintendent. She has held the job of secretary in the high school for five years, the first two years with Mr. Lee and the remaining with Mr. Glasser. Although she is very busy, she manages to keep her office ticking according to schedule.

Miss Walton

PRINCIPAL

Mr. Lee, our principal, was born in Houston, Pennsylvania, but was reared on a farm near Burgettstown. Here he and his two brothers went to school in a typical one-room school, in which were enrolled from fifteen to twenty-five pupils. He attended Crosscreek Township High School, where he graduated as the only boy in a class of five. Incidentally, he graduated in the second fifth of his class; in fact, he was the second fifth. Upon graduation, he entered Muskingum College, from which he graduated in 1918 after three and one-half years of study. Various jobs as chemist, teacher, and as instructor in chemistry at Washington and Jefferson College, took up the intervening years before his arrival on the Carnegie scene. After coming to Carnegie, he received both bachelor and master of science degrees from Carnegie Tech by attending night school. Having taught for sixteen years, he assumed his present position as principal of our school. To round out his education, he received a master's degree in education from the University of Pittsburgh in 1940.

Mr. Lee

Miss Grant

To some of you Miss Norma Grant was a new addition to our high school, but to many of us it was a familiar and welcome face. Norma is a nineteen forty-nine graduate of Carnegie High. Little did she know, the day she left the old alma mater, how soon she would be back with us.

After they have decided upon a solution, it is also their duty to see that it is correctly carried out. Any problem either of a student or a taxpayer concerning the schools may be presented before the board, and they will provide as good a solution as possible. LEONA THERESA BAJORAS

(There's Nothing Like a Dame!)

Drama Club 10, 11, 12; Camera Club 10, 11; French Club 11, 12; Choir 12; G Clef 11, 12; Volleyball 12; Senior Play ticket committee; Drama Club Dance ticket committee; Senior Dance co-chairman, refreshments; Senior Play (Properties).

If you pass fourth-period French class and see a blonde in the middle of all the goings-on, that's Lee. A real cutey and full of pep, she is always seen riding around in a blue Olds with Sandy. A fine sense of humor and a sweet personality characterize her perfectly.

JAMES M. BASSANO

(Rockin in Rhythm!)

Hi-Y 10, 11, 12; Choir 12; Football 10; Rifle Club 11, 12; Baseball 11, 12; Ring Committee 11; Hi-Y Dance Committee 12; Hi-Y Basketball 11, 12; Hi-Y Entertainment Committee 11.

A really sharp dresser is Jim. He is dark and good-looking and is often seen driving a mess of kids around in his Pontiac. If you're feeling blue, Jim's friendliness and wit can usually leave you smiling. These traits have caused him to be well liked by all.

EARL A. BIBEY

(Because)

See Staff 9, 10, 11; French Club 12; Glee Club 11; Class Dance Committee 10, 11, 12; Chairman 11; Senior Play (Lighting).

Earl can be found in the See room with Dan, fooling around with the printing press. A fine worker, he has a friendly smile for all, and as a result he has many friends. After school, Bard's takes up his time.

MARY ANNE BOSSOLONO

(The Object of My Affection)

Camera Club 12; French Club 12; Treasurer 12; Basketball; Volleyball 9, 10; Senior Dance Committee 12; Senior Play (Makeup).

Those beautiful skirts and sweaters of Mary Anne's are familiar to us all. She seems to prefer boys from St. Luke's, and Dom is her favorite name. But she stayed around C. H. S. long enough to do very well in her school work and make many friends too.

JAMES DAVID BRENNER

(Bushel and a Peck)

Hi-Y 11, 12, Chaplain 12; French 11, 12, Vice President 12; Voyager Staff 11, 12, Picture Editor 12; Basketball Manager 11, 12; Football 10, 11; Canteen Committee 12; Snapshot Committee Chairman 11; Hi-Y Dance Committee 11; Dance Committee 10, 11, 12; Senior Play Cast.

Jim, or Big Jim as he is known, is the fellow who came to us from Reading in his sophomore year. He is never without a big smile on his face for all his many friends. Without his untiring efforts the Voyager would be at a loss. The main adjective to describe Big Jim is friendly with a capital F.

AMELIA BRUNO

(You Do!)

Commercial Club 12.

Quiet and sweet is Millie. Although she is heard from very little, her warm smile lets you know she is a swell kid. Her many achievements at home will be a benefit to her. Millie can be seen going to and from school with her best friend, Peggy.

BEVERLEY ANNE BURKETT

(So Tired!)

G. A. A. 10, 11, 12, Secretary 12; Tri-Hi-Y 11, 12; Voyager Staff 11, 12, Business Manager 12; See Staff 10; Majorette 11; G Clef 10, 11; Volleyball 9; Basketball 9, 11; Student-Faculty 12; Tri-Hi-Y Special Events 11; Tri-Hi-Y Social Committee; Junior Skating Party 11; G. A. A. Banquet; Class Dance Committee 10, 11, 12.

This lass is a traveler from Rennerdale each morning. You can't help knowing Bev; her bubbling personality, mischievous eyes, and beautiful clothes are her introduction to everyone. Although Marion is her best friend, she has scores of others, including a wide variety of the opposite sex.

JAMES JOHN BUTLER

(Beautiful Brown Eyes)

Camera Club 11, 12; Rifle Club 12; Hi-Y 10, 11, 12; Basketball 12, Letter 12; Sophomore Dance Committee 10; Senior Dance Committee 12; Basketball 9, 11, 12; Letter 12; Varsity "C" 12; Hi-Y Dance Committee 11, 12.

Tall, willowy, and good-looking best describe Abner. At a first meeting he gives the impression of being shy and quiet, but first impressions are often deceiving. Although English is his pet peeve, he always manages to cast some sort of spell over the teachers and comes through with flying colors.

JOAN B. CAMAIONI

(Jet!)

Commercial Club 12; Pep Club 11; Voyager Staff 12; Choir 11, 12; G Clef 11; Magazine Campaign 12; Senior Dance Committee; Senior Play (Properties).

Full of fun, that's Jo. She can usually be seen with Mary, and between them they can start quite a riot eighth period. Her ambition is to be a secretary, and we all feel she'll reach her goal. With her sweetness, dependability, and fine sense of humor she has won many friends.

MARY JOSEPHINE CASCIATO

(Dearie!)

Rifle Club 10, 11, 12; Assistant Secretary 11; Commercial Club 10, 11, 12; Secretary 12; Pep Club 11, 12; President 11; G Clef 10, 11, 12; Basketball 11, 12; Volleyball 10, 11, 12; Student-Faculty Committee 11, 12; Class Dance Committees 10, 11, 12; Pin Committee 11, 12; Club Dance Committee 11, 12; Magazine Campaign 12; Captain 12; National Honor Society 12; Senior Play (Costumes, Chairman).

Although efficient and accurate in anything she undertakes, Mary still has a warm understanding nature. An ardent football fan, she cheered, rain or shine. Mary leaves many friends in C. H. S.

JOHN RICHARD CHIDLOW

(If I had My Way!)

Drama Club 12; Rifle Club 10, 11, 12; Hi-Y 10, 11, 12; See Staff 12; Choir 10, 11, 12; President 12; Glee Club 10, 11; Double Quartet 12; Basketball 9, 10, 11, 12; Letter 12; Football 10, 11, 12; Letter 12; National Honor Society 11, 12; Varsity "C" 12; Student-Faculty 11, 12; President 12; Class President 11; Dance Committee 10, 12; Baseball 9, 11; Magazine Campaign 12; Senior Play (Properties).

That touch of red in your hair is a dead give-away, John, though the temper that goes with it is highly respected! Possessing a subtle wit, his deadly comebacks can really put a fair maiden in distress, but John, that's a big bluff! Behind it all, he's another Valentino.

ANNA FAYE COLEMAN

(Sentimental Mel)

Camera Club 11, 12; French Club 12; Secretary 12; Voyager Staff 12; Student-Faculty 12; Dance Committee 11; Senior Play (Makeup).

Anna Faye is the envy of all the girls in Room 5 with her peaches-and-cream complexion. She is seldom seen without a smile, and her friends regard her as one of the best.

MARIAN DAVIDSON

(Ain't She Sweet!)

Drama Club 10, 11, 12; Tri-Hi-Y 10, 11, 12; President 12; Secretary 11; Voyager 12; Cheerleader 11, 12; Choir 12; G Clef 10, 11; Basketball 9, 10, 11, 12; Volleyball; Football Queen 12; Committees: Drama Club 10, 11, 12; Class Dance 10, 11, 12; Student-Faculty 11; Senior Play Cast.

What a sweetheart! A peaches-and-cream complexion to go with a similar disposition. Marian has a warm friendliness about her that has won her many friends. Broad-minded and sincere, she is one of our favorite seniors.

THELMA MAY DOUBLE

(Little Girl!)

Camera Club 12; Rifle Club 10, 11, 12; Pep Club 11, 12; Tri-Hi-Y 12; G Clef 10, 11; Student-Faculty 12; Volleyball 11; Dance Committee 10, 11; Magazine Campaign 12; Tri-Hi-Y Social Committee 12; Rifle Club Skating Party 12; Rifle Club Dance Committee 11.

Wee, but watch out! When Tiny does something, she does it in a big way. A very reliable little gal, with a twinkle in her blue eyes, Thelma will get along well in the world.

WILLIAM FRANK ENGLISH

(Bill!)

Hi-Y 10, 11, 12; President 12; Band 9, 10, 11, 12; Swing Band 11, 12; Ensemble 9, 10, 11; Choir 12; Double Quartet 12; Football 10, 11, 12; Letter 12; Varsity "C" 12; Student-Faculty 12; Canteen 12; President 12; Class Dance Committees 10, 11, 12; Co-Chairman 10, 11, 12; Senior Play Cast.

CAROLE E. EVERLY

(Babyface!)

Drama Club 10, 11, 12; Tri-Hi-Y 10, 11, 12; Junior Representative; Voyager Staff 9, 11, 12; Co-Editor 12; See Staff 10; Cheerleader 10, 11, 12; Choir 11, 12; G Clef 10; Basketball 9, 10, 11; Volleyball 10, 11; Student-Faculty 12; Class Officer 11; Treasurer, Senior Dance Committee; Senior Play Committee 10; Spring Concert Chairman; Senior Play (Student Director).

Neat as a pleat, that's Carole. One of the best dressed, she can wear any color with her honey-brown hair and green eyes. If Carole isn't fretting about Latin, she's fretting about history. Though one of the busiest seniors, she has time to be one of the most popular.

MARY FABRIZIO

(Pretty Baby!)

Commercial Club 11, 12; Treasurer 12; Choir 10, 11, 12; Basketball 11; Volleyball 9; Prom Committee 11; Senior Play (Makeup).

Shorty is proof that all good things come in small packages. She loves the new hair styles and keeps her hair very short, having it cut every six weeks. Her ambition is to be a secretary, and her sweet personality plus fine ability can add up to nothing less than success in her field.

JANE L. GIBBS

A. A. Banquet Committee 12; Bowling 10; Senior Play Cast.

Janie fairly sparkles with good health. Not only is she one of the lovelies of our class but one of the most popular. Her darling smile and sincere interest in others will always be in her favor.

MARGARET E. HILES

(Wunderbar!)

G. A. A. 9, 10, 11, 12, Vice President 12; Pep Club 11, 12; Tri-Hi-Y 10, 11, 12, Treasurer 12; Choir 12; Basketball 9, 10, 11, 12; Volleyball 9, 10, 11, 12; Tri-Hi-Y Dance Committee 10, 11, 12; Tri-Hi-Y Financial Committee, Chairman 12; Dance Committee 10, 11, 12; Voyager Staff 12; Magazine Campaign 12; G. A. A. Banquet Committee 12; G. A. A. Letter 11; Bowling 10; Senior Play (Makeup).

Margaret is an answer to any teacher's prayer. She can be just as witty as she is serious. Miss Mitchell holds her high in both basketball and volleyball. A true asset to C. H. S.

A wonderful personality is the best way to describe Jack. He is very successful in anything he undertakes. Any girl is proud to be his dancing partner. Two of his prides and joys are a green Studebaker and a cute cheerleader.

ANTHONY LEE FONTANA

(My Buddy!)

Band 9, 10, 11, 12; Wrestling Manager 10, 11; G. Clef 12.

Font is a well known figure around the school. He appears to be quiet to people who don't know him, but he is really full of fun and pep. Anthony is always ready to help out a friend, and he has many of them. You can always see him down in Roslyn with the gang.

CAROLYN ANN HALL

(Pink Champagne!)

Drama Club Committee Chairman 10, 11, 12; G. A. A. 9, 10, 11, 12; President 12; Voyager Staff 12; See Staff 9, 10, 11; Cheerleading 11, 12, Head 12; Choir 11, 12; G. An all-round sportsman is Ray. He plays almost any sport, but excels in football and basketball. Being class president was among his more important activities. Ray is popular with anyone who knows him.

RUSSELL C. KLAPACH

(That Certain Party!)

Choir 12; Glee Club 10, 11; Football 10, 11, 12, Letter 12; Varsity "C" 12.

This senior has spent a lot of time during his four years in a reserved seat in Mr. Lee's office at 3:45. He is rather on the quiet side, but has something in that deep voice which the girls seem to like. Russell seems slow, but he is quite the contrary on the football field.

ROBERT C. KLIM*(Fighting Wildcat March!)*

Football 10, 11, 12, Letter 11, 12; Wrestling 10, 11, 12, Letter 12; Varsity "C" 11, 12, President 12; Student-Faculty; Class Officer 11; Baseball 11, 12.

Blubbish is a fine example of the strong and silent type. He is a great asset to C. H. S.'s football squad as well as the wrestling team. This fellow is quite popular and has a long list of friends to remember.

CHRISTINE ROSEMARIE*KOSTAS(Do I Worry?)*

If you walk through the halls and see someone doing the Charleston, that's our Kris. Her fine dancing ability, her pep, and personality are a rare combination. On her serious side she wants to be a teacher, and with her talents she is bound to be a success.

JOHN KUROSKY*(Yes, Sir, That's My Baby!)*

Band 9, 10, 11; Choir 10; Glee Club 10, 11, 12; Wrestling 9, 10, 11, 12, Varsity "C" 9, 10, 11, 12, Secretary 12; Letterman, Wrestling 9, 10, 11, 12.

John, or Wannia as he is more commonly known about our halls, is an old standby when it comes to wrestling. He had been wrestling long before he came to high school. John is noted for his neat appearance, wavy hair, and his love for Lady Luck. Friendly to all and a sure success in all he does.

WILLIAM ERWIN LEE(It Isn't Fair!)*

Drama Club 12; French Club 12; Voyager Staff 12; See Staff 10; Band 9, 10, 11, 12; Swing Band 12; Choir 11, 12; Glee Club 10; Double Quartet 12; Class President 10; Dance Committees 10, 11; Senior Play (Properties).

Hot Rod is that tall, lanky, good-looking boy we see around the halls. His talents are many and varied, and his ready wit always manages to lift your spirits. Nice looking and always neat, Hot Rod is a true asset to C. H. S.

JOHN LEONE*(Give Me Five Minutes More!)*

Rifle Club 10, 11, 12, President 12; Band 9, 10, 11, 12; Swing Band 12; Ensemble 10, 11, 12; Choir 12; Glee Club 10, 11; Double Quartet 12; Football 10; Student-Faculty 12.

Curly black hair and flashing eyes make John the object of many a fair damsel's affection. Though they sigh, he's not to be snagged. His casual manner and low, lazy voice are a contrast to his alertness and ambition.

VIRGINIA MAE LEWIS(It's Easy to Remember!)*

Tri-Hi-Y 10, 11, 12, Junior Representative; G Clef 10, 11; Commercial Club 12; Prom Committee 11, 12; May Queen Dance Committee 10, 11; Senior Play (Makeup).

This charming miss gives the appearance of being quiet, but ask any of her teachers and they will tell you differently. She can always be seen with Mary, and they are in and out of trouble regularly. The big moment in her day is when the bus from Rennerdale pulls up to the school. A true friend and full of fun, that's Ginny.

HARRY V. MAKAR*(You'd Be Surprised!)*

Camera Club 11, 12, President 12; Hi-Y 11, 12; Band 9, 10, 11, 12; Swing Band 9, 10, 11, 12; Ensemble 9, 10; Choir 11, 12; Glee Club 10, 11; Double Quartet 12; Student-Faculty 12.

Chemist and mathematician combined, Harry proves to be the pride of many a teacher in C. H. S. His studies occupy his time, but he still can be found at most of the dances and social affairs.

Minnows is the Casanova of Room 14. A true sportsman, hunting and fishing are his second love. (We say second love, as girls seem to be his first.) His policy must be "Always leave them laughing", for that is the way he usually leaves his friends. Jim is a really swell guy and is well liked by all.

WILLIAM E. MANBY

(Comrades!)

Drama Club 12; Hi-Y 11, 12; Band 9, 10, 11, 12; Swing Band 11; Ensemble 9, 10, 11, 12; Choir 12; Glee Club 11; Double Quartet 12; Basketball 10, 11, 12; Jr. High Basketball 9; Letter 12; Football 12, Letter 12; Varsity "C" 12; Baseball 11, 12, Letter 12; Orchestra Committee Chairman 12; Hi-Y Dance Committee 11, 12; Senior Play (Properties).

Bill is the tall fellow who is always seen riding around in his blue Oldsmobile. Although he plays all the sports, Bill likes basketball most of all. Music is one of his pastimes, and he devotes much of his time to singing in the quartet and playing his trombone in the band. One of the wittiest seniors, Bill is very popular with all that know him.

AUDREY M. McMURRAY

Crazy but cute with a likable disposition, Audrey has big brown eyes that twinkle with her extraordinary sense of humor. Liked by both guys and gals, she will always have scads of friends. Her pep and vitality are contagious, for when she enters the room, all spirits are lifted.

IDELLE ELAINE MILLER

(Green Eyes!)

Drama Club 10, 11, 12; Senior Play Committee 10; Dance Committee 11; Christmas Play Committee 11; Rifle Club 11; French Club 12; Pep Club 11, 12; Junior Prom Committee 11; Senior Prom Committee 12; Magazine Campaign 12.

Here's one great kid, always ready to help out and lend her talents to the various activities in school. Idelle's main problem is getting to school on Monday mornings, but we know she means well. She has definite ideas on going to college when she graduates, and we know she'll make out.

FRANCES BAILEY MUSCHWECK

(Homework!)

G. A. A. 10, 11, 12; G Clef 10, 11; Choir 12; Volleyball 11.

Although Dutchy has moved from Carnegie to Fort Pitt, she is still well known in the halls. She is very quiet with a quick smile and a good word for all. Dutchy loves all sports but come winter, she is the Sonya Henie of the skating rink at the Boys' Club.

LOIS ANNE MASIE

(Leave It To Love!)

Camera Club 10, 11, 12, Secretary 12; French Club 12, President 12; Pep Club 11; See Staff 12; Exchange Editor 12; Choir 11, 12; Student-Faculty 12; Class Dance Committees 10, 12, Co-chairman 10; National Honor Society; Senior Play (Costumes).

Loie is a true-blue friend. A real brain and sweet personality best describe her. Her coming from Rennerdale was a real gain for Carnegie.

RICHARD McNAVISH

(A Wonderful Guy!)

Hi-Y 10, 11, 12, Secretary 11, Senior Representative 12; See Staff 12; Student-Faculty 12; Class Officer, Vice President 12; Junior Prom Dance Committee 11; Hi-Y Dance Committee.

Rich is a well known figure about our school. He is a real math brain, Mr. Logan's pride and joy in Business Math. Being part owner of a shiny black car, he is often seen driving a gang of kids around. Rich gives all of his teachers quite a time but can be very serious when he has to. This is one fellow who is on his way to success.

VIOLET MORONES

(My Gal Sally!)

Commercial Club 12; G Clef 12; Junior Prom 11, Committee 11; Senior Play (Bookholder).

Do they come any smaller than this? Sally, the Billy Burke type, with wide eyes and an innocent giggle, has a tendency to be shy and retiring. Who said that? Did you ever talk-er-try to talk to her?

ROBERT L. NEAL

(Dry Bones!)

See Staff 9, 10; Prom Committee 11; Sophomore Dance Committee 10.

Up until his senior year Bob stayed aloof from the rituals of C. H. S., but lately he's right in style, especially where the opposite sex is concerned. Although he likes the senior girls, he has his eye out for the juniors too.

RICHARD LEO NELSON

(The Rovin' Kind!)

Band 9, 10, 11, 12; Swing Band 9, 10, 11, 12; Ensemble 9, 10, 11, 12; Dance Band 10; Prom Committee, Co-chairman 12; Freshman Party 9.

Just give him a piece of brass and a five-mile parade and he will collapse happy. How he loves that band! One of the best dancers in school, Rich likes to trip the light fantastic (or his partner) with his tricky steps. Quite the heart-breaker, eh, girls?

DOMINIC NICOLETTA

(All My Love!)

Hi-Y 10, 11, 12; Choir 12; Glee Club 10; Football 10, 11, Letter 12; Wrestling 9, 10, 12; Varsity "C" 12; Senior Play (Stage Manager).

Dom is a fine example of the typical high school boy. Neat dresser and terrific personality, he's gained the respect of his fellow students. Even the girls think that Dom's tops, and no wonder. To make this fellow complete, he has his mind turned to the business part of the world, and we are certain of his success.

MARION NOWAK

(Anchors Away!)

Football 10, 11, 12; Glee Club 11.

Tubby is really in the lime-light this year. He goes all out for football and enjoys the game tremendously. Appearing shy is his greatest weapon, for, as the girls can tell you, that's all a big bluff.

ALICE MARIE OSTAFFY

(Waiting!)

Drama Club 10, 11, 12; G. A. A. 9, 10, 11, 12; See Staff 9, Basketball 9, 10, 11, 12; Volleyball 9, 10, 11, 12; National Honor Society 11, 12; Student-Faculty 12, Secretary 12; Pep Club 11.

Alice is quite a charming miss with her poise and neat clothes. Being secretary of Student-Faculty shows she has brains as well as beauty. The fellows are really at a loss, for her heart is already with Jimmy.

RONALD "CUSH" PANTUSO

Got a problem? Need a pal? You need Cush! Those twinkling eyes and that teasing grin have brightened many a blue day in ye olde C. H. S. Though he's three-fourths clown, he's just a smoothie at heart.

JENNIE G. PELUSE

(Thinking of You!)

Camera Club 10, 11, 12; G. A. A. 10, 11, 12; Volleyball 9, 10, 11, 12; Basketball 9, 10, 11, 12; G. Clef 10, 11; Choir 12; Magazine Campaign 12; G. A. A. Skating Party 12; Spring Concert Committee 11.

Jennie is a girl whom everyone would like to know. She is a little on the quiet side in class, but can be heard laughing in the hall with her many girl friends. This gal can be found working at G. C. Murphy's any Friday or Saturday night.

SANDRA ALICE PERLMAN

(Fine and Dandy!)

Sandy is among the more fortunate ones who drive the family car to and from school. Sandy can always be found with Leona and Margie. When she graduates, she is going into nurses' training. So remember, if ever in need of an excellent nurse, she'd love to have you as her victim (we mean patient).

MARGARET ANNE PETROZELLI

(Charleston Rag!)

G. A. A. 9, 10, 11, 12; Rifle Club 12; Pep Club 11; Vice President; Tri-Hi-Y 12; Voyager Staff 12; Choir 12; G. Clef 10, 11; Basketball 9, 10, 11, 12; Volleyball 9, 10, 11, 12; Student-Faculty 12; Class Officer 12; Treasurer; Dance Committee 10, 11, 12; Magazine Campaign Manager 12; Bowling 10, 11, 12; National Honor Society 12; Senior Play (Properties).

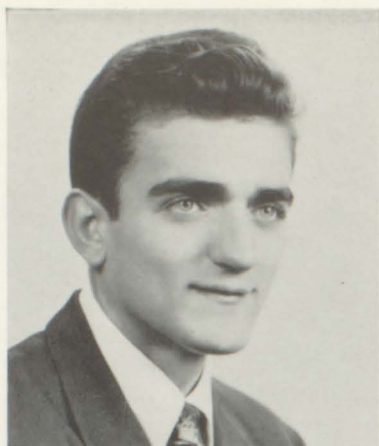

Margie is C. H. S.'s perfect flapper. She completes the lively trio of Petrozelli, Perlman, and Bajaras. Her open house party, after the Scott game, was one of the unforgettable memories of our senior year. If ever in need of one good time, just look up Margie.

VLADIMIR WALTER PRETKA

(Pretty Blue Eyes!)

Choir 11, 12; Band 9, 10, 11, 12; Basketball 11, 12; Football 11, 12; Baseball 11, 12; Letter 11, 12; Varsity "C" 11, 12; Dance Committee 10.

Walt, as this tall senior is known to his classmates, is always very busy and seems to be in a hurry. He plays football, basketball, and baseball, and it is hard to see how he has any spare time. Walt never misses a dance and really loves music. Singing is a favorite pastime of his.

WASYL PYSH

(Little Genius!)

Drama Club 12; Camera Club 11; Hi-Y 10, 11, 12, Representative 11, Treasurer 12; Voyager Staff 12; Choir 12; Glee Club 11; Hi-Y Basketball 11, 12; Football 11, 12; Letter 12; Varsity "C" 12; Student-Faculty 11, 12; Hi-Y Dance Committee 11, 12; Class Dance Committee 11, 12, Chairman 12.

Here's where good looks and brains meet. Danny, the hard-to-get type, has caused many a girl to give up men and join the Foreign Legion. One swell fellow, with mellow manner, his friendly grin has won him a high rank in popularity.

DANIEL J. REYNOLDS

(Danny Boy!)

Camera Club 11, 12, Vice President 12; Rifle Club 12, Letter 12; French Club 11, 12; See Staff 11, 12, Production Manager 12; Choir 12; Glee Club 11; Double Quartet 12; Wrestling 11; Student-Faculty 12; Senior Play.

Dan came from New Jersey in his junior year, but it didn't take him long to get into the stride of things. He's gotten many a position and is well known as a reliable worker. We're mighty proud to have Dan in our class.

SHIRLEY ANN SEAMAN

Dimples and smiles, that fits Shirley to a T. An excellent dancer and terrific personality, she makes a perfect partner. Even though Shirley is very busy, she still has time to help the gang have many an unforgettable evening.

PATRICIA LOUISE PRICE

(Smiles!)

G. A. A. 10, 11, 12, Treasurer 12; Pep Club 11, Secretary 11; Tri-Hi-Y 10, 11, 12, Committee Chairman 12; See Staff 12, Girls' Sports Editor; G Clef 10, 11; Choir 12; Basketball 9, 10, 11; Volleyball 9, 10, 11, 12; Canteen Committee 11, 12; Jr. Prom Committee 11; Senior Dance Committee 12; Tri-Hi-Y Dance Committee 10, 11, 12.

Quick with a joke and a smile, that's Pat. Her many friends are eager listeners for her jovial remarks. A prize worker for C. H. S., for she can always be found at the selling booth at the half of the games, and at the Canteen dishing out hot dogs. Pat has a wonderful personality which has gained for her many friends.

JANET ELLEN REEL

(Hurry! Hurry! Hurry!)

Drama Club 10, 11, 12; Camera 10, 11, 12; Pep Club 11, 12; See Staff 10, 11, 12; Business Manager 12; Choir 11, 12; G Clef 10; Basketball 10; National Honor Society 11, 12; Student-Faculty 10, 12; Class Officer 10; Magazine Campaign 12; Class Dance Committee 10, 11, 12; Senior Play Committee 10, 12.

Everyone can refer to Janet as the brain of our class, but that is just one of her many fine qualities. Always bustling through the halls working on many of the school activities, it is a wonder she has time to study.

GERTRUDE NAOMIA SANSONI

(Singing in the Rain!)

Camera Club 10, 11, 12, Treasurer 12; Choir 12; G Clef 10, 11; Triple Trio 12; Basketball 10, 11; Volleyball 10, 11, 12; Class Dance Committee 10, 11, 12; Senior Play (Properties).

Gert has a laugh that's contagious. When she is happy, a little rubs off on everyone. Her beautiful blue eyes and naturally curly hair are the envy of many. And about those eyes, are they naturally flirty, Gert? Just teasing!

PATRICIA ANN SHARP

(Lovely Lady!)

Camera Club 10, 11, 12; Commercial Club 10, 11, 12, President 12; Pep Club 11; Basketball 12; Volleyball 12; Student-Faculty 12; Refreshment Committee 11; Senior Prom 12.

An ardent football fan is Pat. Although Pat thinks Carnegie boys are tops, she has given her heart to Scott High. Her style of dressing has helped to make Carnegie more attractive.

EDWARD F. SIENICKI

(When You Were Sweet Sixteen!)

Football Manager 12.

If ever in search of Ed, simply look for Cake and you're bound to find him. He may appear to be quite bashful, but he really gives all the girls a hard time. Between Ed and Cake many a conspiracy is hatched.

LORETTA C. SIENICKI

(If I Were a Bell!)

Tri-Hi-Y 11, 12; G. A. A. 11, 12; Volleyball 9, 10, 11, 12; Captain 11, 12; Basketball 9, 10, 11, 12; Voyager Staff 12; Tri-Hi-Y Committee 11; Magazine Campaign Manager; Special Events Committee 11, 12; G. A. A. Banquet 12.

Here's Toots — fair haired with eyes as blue as the sky, teeth like pearls, and a peaches and cream complexion. Sounds like poetry! Her good looks are surpassed only by her friendliness and ability. One of the best.

PATRICIA ANN SIRIANI

(Sleepy Time Gail!)

Majorette 10, 11, 12; Head 11, 12; Flagwirl 9, Leader 9; G. A. A. 10; Choir 11, 12; Magazine Campaign 12; Basketball 9, Volleyball 10, 11; Freshman Party 9; Senior Anthology Contest 12; Ticket Committee 10; Senior Play (Costumes).

As our head majorette Pat has done justice to C. H. S. Although Pat isn't crazy about studying, she has loads of fun in English class. Who wouldn't with Dom Nicoletta and Bob Klim around?

VIRGINIA VERONICA STAFFA

(Hair of Gold, Eyes of Blue!)

Pep Club 11, 12; Commercial Club 12.

C. H. S. has very few blondes in its senior class. Ginny has the honor of being one of these few rare specimens. Quiet but full of fun, she works very seriously on her studies and come out with flying colors.

LEO STAWIARSKI

(Be My Lovel!)

Hey, look at me! I'm dancin'! Among other things, Leo loves to cut a rug. And he can do it, too! Although he has a sleepy way of walking and talking, he makes us proud as punch on the basketball floor. Easy to know, easy to like.

AUDREY TWYLLAH STEFFENAUE

(Pretending!)

G. A. A. 9, 10, 11, 12; Pep Club 11; Tri-Hi-Y 11, 12; See Staff 9, 10, 11, 12, Art Editor 12; Choir 10, 11, 12; Triple Trio 11, 12; Basketball 9, 10, 11, 12; Volleyball 9, 10, 11; National Honor Society 11, 12, Secretary 11; Student-Faculty 11, 12; Magazine Campaign 12; Dance Committees 10, 11, 12, Chairman 11, 12; Bowling 10, 11, 12; G. A. A. Banquet Committee 10, 12; Tri-Hi-Y Dance Committee 11, 12; Social Committee 12; Senior Play (Painting, Chairman).

Given the title of Pretty Girl by the underclassmen, Audrey lives right up to it. A neat dresser with dashing eyes and cute ways, Audrey is one of terrific seniors. Although Audrey is loyal to Art, we can still count her in as one of the gang.

ELIZABETH ANN SUBJINSKI

(She's a Lady!)

G. A. A. 11, 12; Rifle Club 11, 12; Choir 12; G. A. A. 10, 11; Basketball 10, 11, 12; Volleyball 10, 11, 12; Ticket Committee 9; Magazine Campaign 12; Prom Committee 12.

Sitting in front of Pat in home room has proved quite disastrous during eighth periods. Betty and Pat may seem quiet when alone, but put them together and what a clash! Betty is really a sweet kid and well liked by her fellow students.

MAUREEN SULLIVAN

(My Heart Cries For You!)

Drama Club 10, 11, 12; G. A. A. 10, 11, 12; See Staff 10, 11, 12; Editor 12; Choir 10, 11, 12; Triple Trio 11, 12; Student-Faculty 12; Senior Play Committee 10, 12; Drama Club Dance 10, 11; Magazine Campaign 12; Dance Committees 10, 11, 12, Co-chairman 11; Senior Play (Painting, Publicity).

Amy, Mike, Mimi and Dresh are a few of the nicknames given to one of the nicest senior girls. Loaded down with responsibilities, Maureen can't be stopped. She may be disappointed but she's never discouraged. Her heart is sealed, signed, and delivered to one Jim Bauman. What would we do without her?

ANTHONY J. TAVOLETTI*(A Friend of Johnny's)*

Band 9, 10, 11, 12; Swing Band 11, 12; Choir 11, 12; Glee Club 10.

All good things come in small packages, and we have quite a treat in Anthony. During football season you could always find Anthony riding to and from band in Johnny Leone's car. He's really a riot once you get to know him.

ALBERT A. TIMCZYK(Remember!)*

See Staff 10, 12; Glee Club 11; Senior Play (Painting).

We've had a line of Timczyks in C. H. S., but we're nearing the end of the line in Albert. Al is just as keen as the rest of the family, if not keener. He is a terrific artist and we can always rely on him in a pinch.

KENNETH ALAN WELSH*(Play A Simple Melody!)*

Camera Club 11, 12; Band 9, 10, 11, 12, Student Director 12; Swing Band 10, 11, 12; Ensemble 9, 10, 11, 12; Glee Club 10; Choir 11, 12; Double Quartet 12; Advertising Committee 10, 11; Co-chairman Orchestra Committee 12; Jr. High Basketball 9; "B" Squad 10, 11; Senior Play Cast.

Music is the main interest of our hot trumpeter, Kenny. He is the student director of the school band, and plays in other bands and orchestras as well. Basketball takes much of his time, and he is very busy. Ken has a way of getting along with people and will certainly be a success.

SYLVIA JEAN JONES(WILLIAMS)(Can't Help Lovin' Dat Man!)*

G. A. A. 11, 12; French Club 12; Pep Club 10, 11, 12; Choir 12; G. Clef 11; Basketball 10, 11, 12; Volleyball 10, 11, 12; Senior Play Cast.

Calm, cool, and collected, but we warn you, don't tease her if you value your life. Jeannie has a chuckle that happens at the oddest times. When she's happy, she fairly bubbles over. A favorite of her classmates, Jean really has bounce to the ounce.

IN MEMORIAMHERMAN "JACK" BOHNKE*1930 - 1950

Jack was a friend to everyone. He intended to graduate with the class of '51, but instead went to serve his country in the United States Marines. Everyone who knew Jack liked him. He was a wonderful friend, and will never be forgotten by any member of the Class of '51.

REMEMBER WHEN . . .

Way back when we were green little freshmen, Carolyn Hall dropped her pie (lemon meringue, at that!) in home ec class on Miss Meighan's brand new stove, and Miss Meighan made her pick it up, put it back into the pan, and eat it? How four girls made the same dress with a ruffled trim (Carole Everly, Audrey Steffenauer, Maureen Sullivan, and Shirley Seaman)? The day Miss Mason slammed the desk lid down in seventh period study hall to get some quiet? How Miss Cochran looked straight at Audrey McMurray in study hall when Audrey had a big blob of bubble gum expanded all over her face? Remember the days when the girls towered over the boys, who were almost midgets, such boys as John Chidlow, Jim Butler, and Jack Kessler? Then remember how they began to grow like bad weeds in their sophomore year?

As saucy sophomores, do you recall the time Margie Petrozelli acted as blood bank for biology and donated a drop of blood from her finger to everyone in the section for study under the microscope? Remember the bobby pins that the boys used to straighten out, fit under the edges of the desk lids, and then twang until they went "Boing!" How Mr. Giannangelo in his first year used to entertain study hall by reading intercepted notes? When the decorating committee for the Sophomore Hop (Deep Sea Dive) failed to stretch the crepe paper streamers, and as a result the streamers stretched until they tripped the dancers? When Mr. Lee used to make us go back to our homeroom at dismissal time because we made so much noise? When the ink wells in Room 8 used to steam and bubble over after being loaded with dry ice? When Carolyn Hall's zipper on her gown broke just as she went into the Colonial after the senior play, and she had to keep her coat on? Those were the days.

Then we became quite the jaunty juniors. We really thought we knew it all. We used to slide down the banisters—and sometimes meet Mr. Lee at the bottom. Remember when Carole Everly asked the Pep Club members to come to the game wearing black skirts only? Mr. Sawhill's ruler and his smacking lines? When Chuck Millar put a wad of gum on the end of a cigarette and then stuck it on the mouth of G. Washington? We really weren't bad; we just had a craving notion to get into mischief!

At last we had reached our goal. We were the smooth seniors from whom the underclassmen patterned their actions. But just between you and me, can't you just see John Chidlow the day he dropped a lighted cigarette down his shirt the time he tried to run through a Braun Bakery truck? Also when Miss Mitchell led the way to the Bethel game at sixty-five miles an hour through a twenty-five mile speed zone? When the sixth-period gym class for girls had to stand for five minutes with their feet together and arms held shoulder high with no talking? The more or less disastrous efforts at hair-bleaching by C. Hall, P. Siriani, and P. Sharp; also C. Everly's use of vinegar? When Russell Klapach took to poetry in his senior year—and good poetry at that? When Wasyl Pysh began to court a gal by way of poetry? The time Keisling made his one and only appearance in public on the wrestling mat? When Bill Lee started going steady with his camera? When Earl Bibey and Dan Reynolds had their big bust-up after a quarrel over a problem in solid geometry? Last but not least, when John Kurosky took bets on all sports in every season with his own little gambling racket?

WHO'S WHO

The popularity contest is one of the most exciting events in the school term. The students and teachers vote for the senior boy or girl who they think is deserving of the different titles.

Rogues' Gallery

These four fellows are really the trouble makers on the campus of C. H. S. They're not the only ones, but there wasn't enough room in this small space for about twenty other senior boys.

Most Studious

When it comes to high scholastic ability, these four take the cake. But they are not as solemn as they look; they too manage to have a good time.

Wittiest

Always a laugh, always a witty remark can be heard from these four characters. No school, and C. H. S. is no exception, is complete without them.

Best Looking

What is the first thing that catches the eye? It's the face! These kids are not only good looking, but they have the personalities that really make them tops.

Most Likely to Succeed

In later years this foursome is expected to be found holding top jobs and top honors. They have great ability and likable personalities.

Most Earnest

These four seniors are the reliable ones. They always have their work completed whether for a dance committee or for a class. They are the answer to any teacher's prayer.

Most Athletic (top left): Keisling, Kostas, Petrozelli, Stawiarski.

Mutt and Jeff Combos (lower left): Brenner, Morones; Tavoletti, Hiles.

Best Jitterbugs (top center): Stawiarski, Hall, Kostas, Bassano.

Best Social Dancers (lower center): Stawiarski, Everly, Steffenauer, Pantuso.

Most Popular (top right): Keisling, Hall, Everly, Pantuso.

Best Dressers (lower right): Bassano, Everly, Stawiarski, Steffenauer.

WHO'S WHO

Most Athletic

Whether on the football field or volleyball floor, they are the pros. These are the kids who keep the word sportsmanship in the halls of C. H. S.

Best Jitterbugs

These four can really cut a rug. You can always find them at canteen asking, "Where are the jitterbugs?"

Most Popular

These four seniors can get along with everyone and take the hard work along with the good times.

Mutt and Jeff Combos

Some kids are tall and others are short, but these kids go the extreme. We know, whether tall or short, these kids are swell!

Best Social Dancers

Arthur Murray has nothing on these kids. They really make dancing look easy! Just play a record, soft and sweet, and they're ready to show their stuff.

Best Dressers

Look sharp, feel sharp, be sharp—that's their motto! The saying is, "Clothes make a person," but don't let that fool you. These kids do a lot for the clothes!

VOYAGER STAFF

We hope you will enjoy the twenty-seventh edition of the Voyager. We the editors could not do all the work which had to be done without the full cooperation of our staff. Each one has done more than his share of work. Our thanks are not limited only to the staff members. We extend our appreciation to Kenneth Welsh for doing such a splendid job in making a zinc etching of the Alma Mater; to Henrietta Dziadura and Audrey Steffenauer for the excellent reproduction of the Iwo Jima scene used in the dedication; to the teachers for being so patient while we were taking pictures; to the students for behaving—well, almost behaving. We also want to express our sincere thanks to Miss Fleming for her helpfulness.

VOYAGER STAFF

We take this opportunity to express our sincere thanks to everyone and anyone who has helped us put this book out.

Producing a yearbook is just not all fun, as some believe. Although there are lighter moments, work is the main feature in publishing a yearbook for everyone to enjoy. The Voyager staff of 1950-51 hopes this yearbook will help everyone to recall all the happy moments that have occurred during this past year.

SEE STAFF

Who always knows the latest gossip? Who always knows how to acquire information which has been so long a secret in C. H. S.? They are none other than the See Bees. The See is a favorite with both teachers and students. The See is issued once a week; thus the staff is extremely busy. Without the supervision of Miss Mason, Mr. H. H. Lee, and Maureen Sullivan, the See would not be the satisfactory paper it is. Every eighth period on Friday hardly a student can be found not reading and enjoying the See.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

To be granted membership in the National Honor Society is indeed an honor. Only those students who are outstanding are eligible. The members are considered on their leadership, service, scholarship, and honor.

This year John Chidlow and Janet Reel were selected to take the National Honor Society Scholarship examination. On June 1 a very impressive induction was held in which the seniors wore caps and gowns. A tea was held afterward for the members and their parents. This organization is national and the pin, a keystone and torch, is recognized throughout the United States.

DRAMATEUR CLUB

The Dramateur Club is limited to a membership of fifty. These members are selected from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. Ronald Pantuso was the president this year, and Miss Hepler was the sponsor. At most of the meetings a select group of the club members put on one-act plays and various skits.

On November 20, 1950, the members of the club chartered a bus to go to Carnegie Tech to see the play, "I Remember Mama". It was a wonderful play; a good time was had by all. February 24 was another entertaining day. Pennsylvania College for Women invited our club to the Little Theater to see them present "Jane Eyre". It proved very thrilling.

Everyone who is in the club has never regretted having joined it.

The Camera Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Burkett, has progressed much in the past few years. The new members are taken in on a quality point basis. Only those who the old members feel will be worthy members are considered. Initiation is looked forward to by the old members, but dreaded by the new. Mr. Burkett's shock machine is always an old stand-by. At the meetings, which are held every first and third Friday of the month, Mr. Burkett explains in detail about cameras and pictures. First the art of picture-taking is learned, then the developing, printing, and enlarging. A dark room schedule is made, giving everyone a chance to put what he has learned into actual practice. Being a scientific club, it holds no social affairs and is self-supporting.

The Tri-Hi-Y is a group fellowship organization whose objectives are having fun and building the girls' characters for Christian ideals and good citizenship. The slogan of the club is, "Pure thoughts, pure words, pure actions."

Tri-Hi-Y is affiliated with the Y. M. C. A. and is also a sister organization of the Hi-Y club. The Y. M. C. A. sponsors many activities for the club, such as an officers' training camp at Camp Kon-O-Kwee in the fall, Convocation at Trinity Cathedral, and council meetings attended by representatives of the club.

At the Y. M. C. A. the Tri-Hi-Y has many of its own activities, which include programs that are interesting and appropriate for high school girls. Some of the program subjects are on makeup, clothes, vocations, dating difficulties, and formal induction service. Each year these girls send CARE packages and a contribution to the World Youth Fund; these are financed by a bake sale and an annual May Queen Dance in the spring. The club has many social activities also: square dances, basketball games, and movies.

Mrs. Sawhill, the sponsor, advises each member individually and keeps the club running smoothly.

As the senior members graduate, they will always remember Tri-Hi-Y and its associations as one of the more interesting and profitable activities in their lives.

The Hi-Y, under the sponsorship of Mr. Logan, is one of the most active clubs in the school. Hi-Y is the school branch of the YMCA, and it is devoted to creating, maintaining, and extending Christian character throughout the school and community. The boys buy and decorate the school Christmas tree. The club carries on many activities which permit its members to meet students of other schools and thereby bring about friendly relations with many schools. For the third straight year the club has had a basketball team and enjoyed the usual successful season. The dance and floor show that the club puts on is one of the brighter spots of the year. The religious services and social life connected with the club make it one of the most popular in the school.

Variety and spice filled the program of the Girls' Athletic Association this year. The first activity of their program for the current year was managing the candy stand up at the field during the football season. They also sold delicious boxes of chocolates just before Christmas, at which they did very well financially.

They held an informal initiation, and a gala time was had by all, old and new members alike.

The requirements for membership in the G. A. A. are that a girl has participated in some sport and is really interested in some particular sport. Applications for membership are voted on by the girls, and all points are considered before the voting. The G. A. A. is one of the largest and most popular organizations in the high school.

It is under the sponsorship of Miss Ruth Mitchell.

VARSITY "C"

Although far from the most active club, the Varsity "C" is second to none when it comes to desirability. Membership in the Varsity "C" can be obtained only when a boy has earned a letter through participation in a sport. The club carries on functions to gain money for its much needed injury fund. Probably the most outstanding thing about the club is that achievement, not popularity, makes a boy a member. COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Commercial Club is an organization of great importance to the commercial students and a goal for most of them. It is composed entirely of commercial students, and requirements for membership vary in accordance to the year of school in which the student is. Because of the high requirements necessary, the membership is made up of the highest students in the business course.

This year induction was held on January 12, and corsages of red and yellow carnations were given to the new members and officers. As a money-making project the club sold Christmas cards.

At every meeting a prominent business person or one of our teachers addresses the members about subjects of interest to prospective secretaries. The club has a very educational purpose.

RIFLE CLUB

The Carnegie Junior Rifle Club was organized in 1947 and is one of the 4000 clubs organized under the National Rifle Association of America. It has gradually grown in popularity and numbers during the past three years. Membership is obtained through tryouts of ten shots per person. Those with the highest scores are considered. The money for guns and ammunition is obtained partly from the government and partly through the one social activity, a skating party or a dance. Through hard work and perseverance the club has developed an outstanding rifle team for 1951. This team competes for honors with Oakmont (the main match) and with many similar teams. Carefulness, sportsmanship, and patience are taught to each member. Mr. Robb is the faculty sponsor.

The Pep Club, though a comparatively new organization, has been a very successful one. It was started last year and is composed of freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior girls. This year the girls went out on the field and outlined such formations as a keystone, a star, and the school initials, C. H. S. These girls are true proof of the loyalty of C. H. THE BAND

The band is again under the direction of Mr. Cameron, who returned this year from a well-earned vacation. The band followed its usual schedule, playing for the football games and giving performances during the half which were very entertaining as well as skillfully performed. As soon as the football season closed, everyone started preparing for the annual band concert. This year it came on March 30. The first half of the concert is entirely devoted to the full-sized band, which exhibits its skill by playing selections of all types of music. The concert was a huge success this year with everyone, and Carnegie High has just cause to be proud of its band.

FLAG TWIRLERS

Along with the drum majorettes, the flag twirlers aid in leading the band and acting out the skits during half-times at the football games. In the band concert the flag twirlers show their talent by twirling their flags to a march time.

MAJORETTES

Essential to every band are the high-stepping drum majorettes, and ours is no exception. The three drum majorettes and the two small mascots, who lead the band during football season, presented various skits during the halves of the football games, while the band played appropriate music. The head majorette, Pat Siriani, led the band very accurately through all its football season performances.

They play the popular or semi-classical pieces and provide the accompaniment for the acts featured in the concert. The Swing Band consists of fifteen boys and three girls. CHOIR

Of the three music groups, the choir is perhaps the most awe inspiring of the three. The mixed voices of girls and boys singing an old favorite song or hymn have probably brought tears to peoples' eyes, bringing back old memories.

This group has furnished entertainment to the school and to the community. During the Yuletide season a community sing was held at the First Presbyterian Church, at which they were the leaders.

This choir is composed mostly of juniors and seniors. These girls and boys are given the opportunity to learn to sing together without accompaniment.

They practiced diligently throughout the year and, by the way they sang at the Spring Concert, they did not waste time.

Music is a valuable addition to any school, and we of Carnegie High School are proud of this and the other excellent choral groups.

President John Chidlow
 Secretary Audrey McMurray

G CLEF

This club is composed of girls from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. It is one of the largest choral groups in our school.

The girls put forth their greatest efforts in mastering their songs, whether the songs are to be presented before an audience or not.

They meet semi-weekly on Tuesday and Thursday mornings at Washington School, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Snodgrass. They practice about thirty-five minutes on these two days.

Anybody who attended the Spring Concert could tell that the girls must have practiced hard to sing as well as they did. Didn't they look pretty in their gowns?

President Mary Casciato

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club is composed of boys chosen from the three upper classes who are interested in learning to sing four-part male chorus work, under the direction of Miss Snodgrass. They learn to sing with or without accompaniment.

They travel over to Washington School on Tuesday and Thursday mornings for the fourth period.

A hale and hearty group of singers is the Glee Club. They have a way with the audience, and that was proved by the applause they received after singing at the Spring Concert.

In the Glee Club the boys learn to read their parts and carry their tunes. Most of the boys work hard, because they know that some of them will be future choir or quartet members.

TRIPLE TRIO

Seated: Seaman, Hall, Sandy, Sansoni.

Standing: Grinberg, Sullivan, Steffenauer,
McCartney, Hutchins.

Three plus three plus three makes nine! That's logical, and here are nine of the best blended voices to prove it. Sweet, soft harmony that makes for easy listening is provided by the Triple Trio on special occasions such as Christmas time and the Spring Concert. They are, in the meantime, kept busy entertaining local clubs.

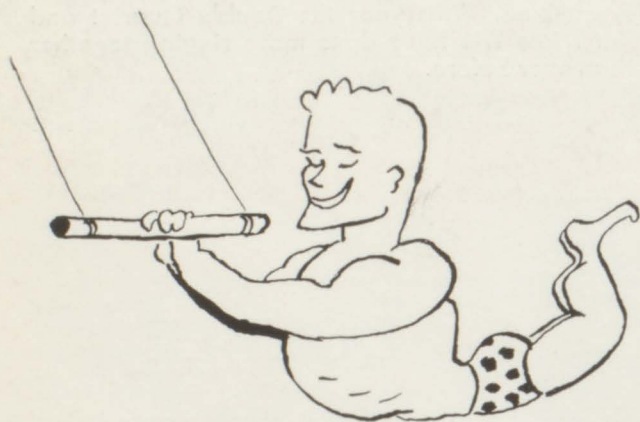

Personality-plus best describes this gay group of guys. The Spring Concert is their night to shine. Here they give out with really fine barber shop finesse. Last year our Double Quartet became only a quartet, but again our quartet is doubled. This year the Double Quartet and the Triple Trio have done more singing together than ever before.

THE CHEERLEADERS

The seven cheerleaders of C. H. S. do a fine job in boosting the morale of the players at both the football and basketball games. Whether the team is winning or losing, the cheerleaders can always be found leading the cheering section. Carolyn Hall has served as captain in her senior year. The other cheerleaders are: seniors, Marion Davidson, Carole Eyerly; juniors, Shirley Dowler, Ann Sedlar; sophomore, Lilene Lewis. The weather cannot stop these girls from attending the games.

Carnegie vs. Dormont

Carnegie 26

Dormont 47

A blocked kick and ten fumbles meant defeat for Carnegie's never-say-die eleven in their season-opener at Dormont. Dormont used every break to manufacture their winning total of forty-seven points. Carnegie massed fourteen first downs to Dormont's meager two, but their own mistakes proved their downfall. In one of the wildest scoring games in Carnegie's history, every player in the Little Tartans' backfield (Bailey, Keisling, Lovett, and Massella) scored a touchdown.

Carnegie vs. Bridgeville

Carnegie 7

Bridgeville 0

Carnegie opened its home season by breaking Bridgeville's twenty-six game winning streak. It was a closely fought game with Carnegie leading in first downs, six to four. Carnegie's line showed spirit and good coaching in stopping the Indians' running attack.

Late in the fourth quarter Massella threw a beautiful pass, which Keisling gathered in on the Bridgeville thirty-five and raced over for the only touchdown of the game.

Carnegie vs. McKees Rocks

Carnegie 0

McKees Rocks 6

Carnegie was handed their second loss of the 1950 season by an underdog McKees Rocks team. The Little Tartans failed to show the fight and spirit which they displayed in the first two games. Every time Carnegie approached the Rocks' goal, penalties set them back. Mud and a wet ball prevented extensive use of Carnegie's potent passing attack. As in previous games, Carnegie led in first downs.

Carnegie vs. Moon

Moon 13

Carnegie 6

Carnegie was eliminated from the Class B race by an inspired Moon eleven, 13-6. Early in the game Moon recovered a fumble on the Carnegie four and quickly scored. The Little Tartans tied it up as Lovett raced fifteen yards off-tackle for a touchdown. Soon after this play, Lovett was injured and lost for the remainder of the game. Moon closed the scoring in the second quarter on an eighty-yard run. Although there was no scoring in the second half, Carnegie missed several golden opportunities.

Carnegie vs. Stowe

Stowe 19

Carnegie 6

Stowe High staged a last-half rally to defeat the Little Tartans by the score of 19 to 6. Three times in the opening minutes of the game Carnegie drove inside Stowe's ten yard line, but were unable to score. Finally, in the second quarter, Massella scored from the two-yard line on a straight buck. In the second half Carnegie wilted, and Stowe pushed across three touchdowns in rapid succession.

FOOTBALL REVIEW

CARNEGIE VS. CHARTIERS

Carnegie 6

Chartiers 26

Playing before the smallest home crowd of the season, Carnegie was defeated by Chartiers. Each team scored by passes in the first quarter. The Little Tartans scored theirs on a pass from Massella to Skirpan, which traveled five yards. Chartiers scored once in the second and twice late in the fourth quarter. The inability of Tartan passers to sight their free receivers accounted for the large number of incomplete and intercepted passes. The score failed to tell the real play, as Carnegie, as in all other games, led in first downs.

CARNEGIE VS. GLASSPORT

Carnegie 6

Glassport 6

Carnegie outplayed Glassport, but had to settle for a 6-6 tie. The line played wonderfully on both offense and defense as they previously had done only against Bridgeville.

Although both teams threatened, the first half was scoreless. Glassport broke the deadlock with a score in the third quarter. The Little Tartans' score came when a Glassport player deflected a pass into the waiting arms of Obenour, who raced the remaining five yards for a touchdown.

CARNEGIE VS. BRENTWOOD

Carnegie 6

Brentwood 26

Carnegie dropped their sixth game of the season to a big Brentwood team. For the first time this year Carnegie did not lead in first downs. Brentwood scored three times in the first half and once early in the second for their total of four.

Carnegie's only score came when Lovett raced fifty yards with Pantuso throwing the key block in the third quarter.

CARNEGIE VS. CRAFTON

Carnegie 19

Crafton 7

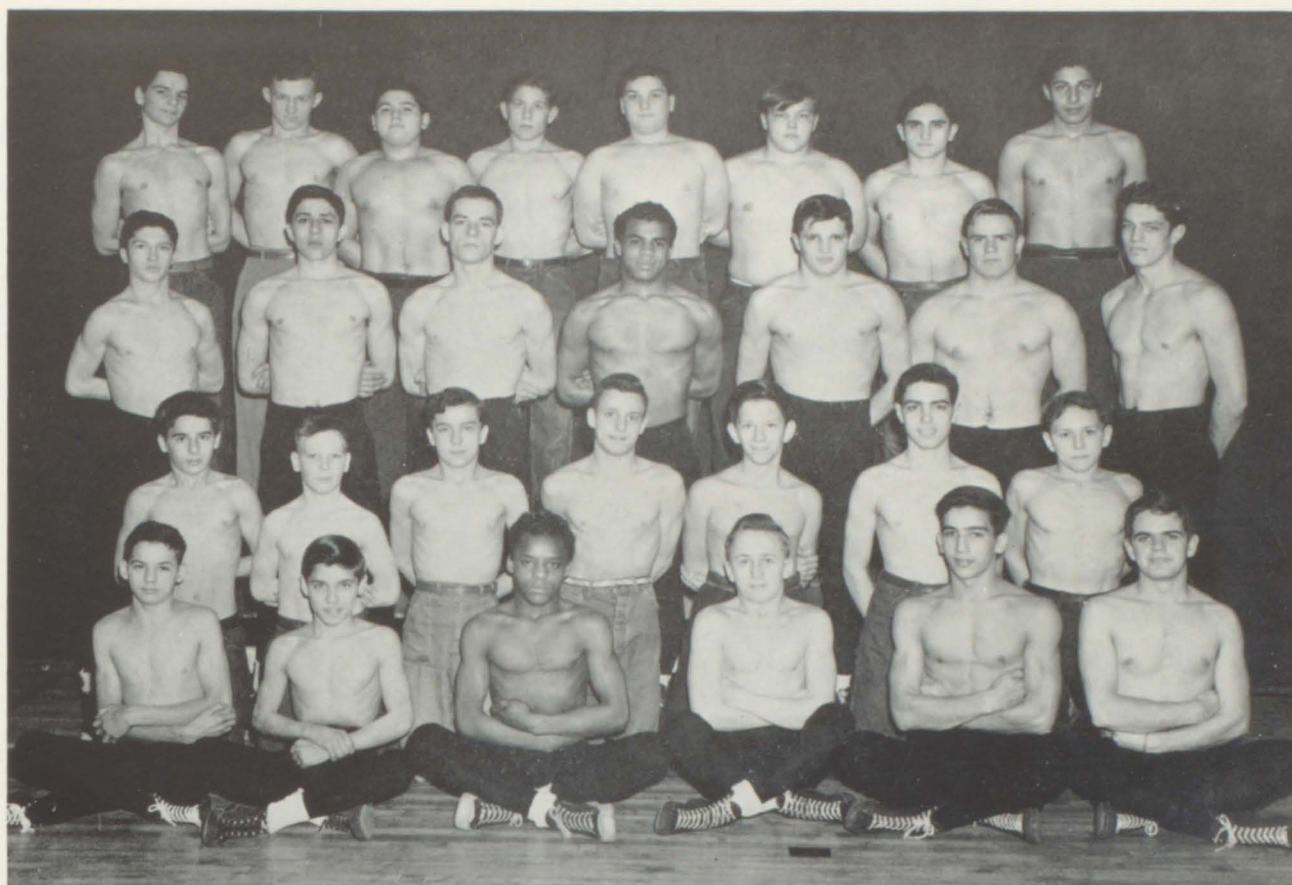

From a dismal season Carnegie salvaged a brilliant upset over their arch-rival, Crafton. Taking the opening kick-off, Carnegie drove for the first score. Obenour tallied the touchdown on a pass from Massella. Crafton scored shortly afterwards, to take a short 7-6 lead. Lovett scored to put the Little Tartans ahead for good. In the third quarter Skirpan added an insurance touchdown on a pass-lateral play.

CARNEGIE VS. SCOTT

Carnegie 6

Scott 19

In the final game of the season Clark defeated Carnegie 19-6. Minutes before the half Clark scored two rapid touchdowns on passes, to take a thirteen-point lead at intermission. The Little Tartans tallied early in the third quarter as Keisling raced fifty yards off-tackle after receiving a behind-the-line shovel-pass from Massella. Late in the fourth quarter, Bailey's punt was blocked and recovered by Clark in the end zone for the final score of the game and of Carnegie's 1950 football season.

WRESTLING SQUAD

Mr. Sawhill again turned out a fine wrestling team. Lacking an abundance of lettermen, they nevertheless made a good record of seven wins and four defeats. Those four losses were to the strong teams of the district. At the end of the season Kurosky, only four-year letterman on the squad, Gordon, and Skirpan were entered in the W. P. I. A. L. tournaments. Gordon reached the semi-finals, and Skirpan was crowned champion of the hundred and sixty-five pound division, while Kurosky lost in the second round of the eliminations. Skirpan went on to Johnstown to compete in the P. I. A. A. tournament.

VARSITY

This year's team found the shoes of the taller, more experienced section champs of last year sizes too big. Lacking height and team work, the squad eked out a record of ten wins and eleven losses. It was potentially one of Carnegie's finer teams, but clicked in only a few games. Displaying the form and fine coaching which could have easily meant a victorious sea-sion, the Little Tartans defeated Clark in both games, something few Carnegie teams have ever done. Several games could have been won but for the fickleness of Dame Fortune. Mr. Giannangelo worked hard and well and should have his system and winning ways in full swing next year.

HIGH SCORERS

High scorer with 303 points was Leo Stawiarski. Leo, a two-year letterman, was again chosen for the all-section team. This made the second year that the honor has been given to him. On last year's championship team he was third in scoring. A one-hand push shot and a potent setshot made him a hard man to stop. Leo ranks among Carnegie's finest players, and he's going to be missed next year.

Ray Keisling was the only three-year letterman on the squad this year. Although handicapped by the lack in height, during his three years on varsity he was second in scoring every year, massing a total of 716 points. This year he won a place on the W. P. I. A. L. Class B, Section 15, all-star team.

In his first season as a varsity player Al Vivadio was third high point-getter with 148 points. Al's favorite shot was a right hand push-shot. Lacking height, he was a starter in less than half the games, but when he was in there, he was a constant scoring threat.

B-SQUAD

Row I: Geisler, Snyder, Toney, Bock, Walters.

Row II: Sawicki, Botsford, S. Sawicki, Deak, Miller.

Hustle and team work overcame inexperience with plenty to spare. That's the story of this year's B-Squad. The continually changing line-up was evidence that no player could let down for a minute and still keep his position. Only Crafton managed to beat our hard-working five in both games. Since all but one of the ten varsity players will graduate this year, several of the B-Squad are sure to move up and fill their vacant positions. Donald Geisler was high scorer for the team, but the scoring was well distributed due to the fine team work. Let's hope that they keep that fine spirit next year, and that Coach Giannangelo will have a winning team.

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL

After a brilliant start, in which the junior high won six out of nine games, the team dropped five in a row. The main reason for this reversal in form was the loss of three regulars and several reserves, due to grades toward the end of the season. Without an experienced player, Mr. Stockum molded a smooth-working team; but for the loss of his key players the team would have ended high in the league standing. Bushem was high scorer, followed by May and Zemon.

VOLLEYBALL

Shortly after the beginning of the year Miss Mitchell picked teams from each of the classes.

These teams played each other. As an example here are the results of November 15, 1950:

Period	Score
5th.	21
3rd.	21
2nd.	22
6th.	21

Period	Score
7th.	9
7th.	8
4th.	20
1st.	14

The sixth period team is the only class which has won all their games.

Later in the year from these teams the four class teams were chosen. The only games played during the year were with Scott.

BASKETBALL

After the close of the volleyball games the best basketball players were chosen from all of the gym classes to compose just one basketball team. The girls practiced during the eighth periods to prepare themselves for meeting their opponents. Scott, Bethel, and Snowden were the teams they met. After each game, a light lunch was then served. The girls lost all of the games. This is the first year a basketball team has been organized, and next year a much better season is expected.

Alexander Skirpan

Alex Skirpan became the first W. P. I. A. L. wrestling champion in Carnegie High's history when he beat George Synn 5 to 4. But for a tough loss to Good of Philipsburg, 11 to 8, he would have been state champ. Winning seventeen and losing only one match throughout the season, Bosko showed not only excellent ability but fine sportsmanship. With another year of eligibility, Bosko may bring Carnegie its first state championship. Even if he finds this task too big, he still will be remembered as one of Carnegie's finest athletes.

Left to right: Hall, Miss Mitchell, Mr. Giannangelo, Mr. Lee, Mr. Stockum, Mr. Adams.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

This association is made up of the coaches of the various sports and a member of the Senior Class. They have the responsibility of scheduling all our games in the various sports. Besides scheduling our games for us, they also purchase the equipment needed, and, most important, supply our boys with transportation for the away games.

The sports program for '50-51 was carried through with huge success. The athletic teams have again this year maintained the high standards of good sportsmanship which are traditional in our school. We hope that in the years to come, the other teams will keep in mind the traditions of our school, Carnegie.

FEATURES

"DEAR RUTH"

Everly, Mr. Hawkins, Nicoletta

BEHIND THE SCENES

Three minutes to go! Dominic Nicoletta, our stage manager, has just checked the props. All are in their places. Out front the house is buzzing with the usual amount of chatter. In the last row Mr. Hawkins, our director, nervously awaits the big moment. Our student director, Carole Everly, has her eyes on her watch—two minutes—the house lights are dimmed—one minute—the footlights are on—curtain! Dora walked onto the stage, and we were on our way. Things were running smoothly. Scene three was over, and we all prepared to take a breather during the ten-minute intermission. Mr. Hawkins was presented with a cigarette lighter. It was then that he said, "You have a show on your hands."

The excitement died down, and we were ready to do our best. We could hear Dom's familiar words, "You're on!" The last act went better than the first. The last words "Oh, now!"—curtain.

The audience roared at the surprise ending. Then came the applause. We had four curtain calls. The actresses were presented with bouquets. When the applause died down, the back stage rush began. There were tears and laughter both. Mothers and father, brothers and sisters—they all came back to congratulate us.

The excitement was over, and we all left to go to the party at the Colonial. It was all over, and another pearl was added to our string of memories.

MAGAZINE CAMPAIGN

The Magazine Campaign of this year was very successful. The total sales of the campaign were $1989.40, of which the school received $673.75 in commissions. The money which the campaign made was used toward the publication costs of the VOYAGER.

The class was divided into two teams, and the captains were Mary Casciato and Carolyn Hall. Their managers were Loretta Sienicki and Margie Petrozelli.

High salesman was Thelma Double, who received $5.00, and second high was Loretta Sienicki, who received $2.50. All of the people in the above picture sold at least thirty-five dollars' worth of magazines.

THE FRESHMAN CLASS

Here we are in our first year in high school. It's even nicer than we had hoped it would be. The first few weeks of school we were all a little chicken but, after we started to follow one-way signs instead of looking for elevators, we were okay.

Even though there are loads of studies, we have discovered there is plenty of time for outside activities, such as football, basketball, and wrestling. We loved going to the football games on the Pep Club bus, singing the songs our band played, and marching down the avenue when we won our home games. We were very proud of the freshman boys who gave up their eighth periods and time after school to practice for the various sports. What's more, they had to keep training and maintain the necessary grades for eligibility. As for the wrestlers, I can't imagine a diet of tea and toast to lose weight as being much fun, but the boys must have thought their hardships worth the effort when they pinned their man and the scorekeeper racked up the points for them.

Canteens were another weekly event that we all loved. Most of our boys were afraid to dance, but within a few weeks they were dancing with their favorite girls to their favorite songs. When our mid-semester grades came out, we were scared stiff, for many of our subjects proved difficult. Most of us passed, but the ones that didn't really had to get on the ball for their finals.

Kennywood was another enjoyable excuse for having the entire day off. Gee! It was fun to ride the roller coasters with your whole gang or go in the Old Mill with your one and only, but if he was the bashful type, you'd probably drive the scooters. Kennywood was the topic of conversation for many a day to follow.

Due to a change in the system of voting for the popularity contest, we were excluded. This year the policy of the school has been revised. We freshmen were combined into a junior high. We may be the underclassmen of the high school, but we certainly are considered the upper classmen of the junior high.

LOG OF 1950-1951

SEPTEMBER

September rolls around again; school begins as usual. This term is different; it will be the final one for the class of 1951. Let us reminisce over some of the outstanding events of this year.

5. The seniors began a booming magazine campaign that ended with a profit of $673.75. 8. Our first football game. Dormont emerged the victors with the score 48-29. 14. Our football team ended Bridgeville's twenty-six game winning streak. 15. To celebrate our victory, Ray Keisling loaned his barbering talents to give Bob Weiss a Don Eagle haircut. The whole school got the afternoon off. 21. Mr. Lee went to the hospital, and Mr. Adams took over his job. There were some changes made. After school detention was held before 8:00 A. M. 25. The lucky fellows rated a new gym instructor, Mr. Glarrow. 27. Miss Hepler initiated the seniors with her first history test. The initiation was rough, but we survived.

OCTOBER

7. The Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y representatives were off to Camp Kon-O-Kwee. As usual, John Chidlow became well acquainted. 11. Carolyn Hall and Bill English were working quietly in the chemistry lab when an explosion shook the halls of old C. H. S. The after effects: minor cuts and bruises. 16. John Bishop returns to us after a long needed vacation at the request of Mr. Lee. 27. Our loyal C. H. S. football fans traveled down to Brentwood to a game which we lost 28-6. 31. Halloween! Mary Jane Lohnes came to school with her face all scratched up. She fell while fleeing from the goblins.

NOVEMBER

November makes everyone think of turkey 'n dressing, and Thanksgiving vacation. 1. The first day of hunting season. This year Mr. James Brenner and Mr. James Manant received unexcused absences. 4. The annual football crowning was held. Marian Davidson was crowned queen of football, and Ray Keisling, king of football. 6. Our football game with Crafton was postponed until today, Monday. Even though Russell Klapach broke his toe in warm-up practice, we downed them 18-0, in our best game of the season. 11. We played Scott and lost. But the spirits of the kids were raised at Petrozelli's party. After the game, food and kids galore! 14. Tri-Hi-Y induction services took place at the United Presbyterian Church. 17. Drama Club went to Tech to see "I Remember Mama". 22. The seniors' picture proofs were distributed. Sighs and gasps were heard. Thanksgiving holidays start today. 24. It snowed today—all day! 25. It's still snowing, 12 more inches, in fact. As a result of this snow, we had a week's vacation from school in a real old-fashioned winter.

DECEMBER

4. Our extended holiday ended today and we are back in school. 5. Today we learned that the Logan family, while marooned on the Pennsylvania Turnpike during the big snow, slept in a stranger's home. The people asked the Logans because they wanted to help a family with a baby. Basketball season opened with Sharpsburg. We lost 54-48, but the skill and dependability of our team was shown later in the season. 9. We danced amidst gay Christmas decorations to the music of Lee Pannitan's Orchestra, at the annual Senior Prom. 15. Marian Davidson served coffee to some of Bigham's customers but forgot to put coffee in the cups. 18. Ray Keisling, a little short of money, sold Wasyl Pysh's watch to Jim Bassano for fifty cents. 22. Christmas holidays began; we all went home thinking about Christmas and Santa Claus. See you again January 2, 1951.

JANUARY

1. New Year's resolutions are flying in all directions. 2. New Year's resolutions are broken.

LOG OF 1950-1951

We are back at the old grind. 5. Great strength was shown by Pat Fox when she sneezed and broke the shoulder strap of her purse. 8. Much skill and speed were displayed in our basketball game against the mighty Scott team. Our team proved to be superior with a score of 45-32. 10. French Club initiations. Bijou came uninvited, but became honorary mascot of the new French club, Le Cercle Francais. 25. Mid-term exams. 31. Miss Hepler embarrassed some of our seniors with some test boners; namely, Jim Brenner.

FEBRUARY

Along with February comes Cupid and funny valentines and also the second exciting basketball game with Scott (which we won). 7. Camera Club initiations. That Mr. Burkett is a demon. 13. Today is the day Audrey Steffenauer had hysterics. Explanation: Chemistry students made nitrous oxide, laughing gas. 16. We lost Big Ed Bailey and Ed Ratajack to the United States Marines. 22. Mr. Burkett dubbed his earnest chemistry students, Ray Keisling and Wasyl Pysh, Hopalong Keisling and Drip-along Pysh.

MARCH

1. 2. 3. Our wrestlers jaunted down to Waynesburg for the W. P. I. A. L. tournaments. Bosco Skirpan came home with a medal! Mr. Logan's math classes were silent on March 7th and 8th due to his laryngitis. What fun! 9. Junior Skating Party was a success. 10. Bosco Skirpan went to the P. I. A. A. tournament in Johnstown. We're very proud of Bosco. 12. Mr. Hawkins asked Mr. Carole Everly to read the female romantic lead at senior play tryouts. 15. Senior play cast was announced; many happy faces were seen that day. 21. The first day of spring—it snowed. 30. We went up to the library to hear the Carnegie High School Band in its annual band concert.

APRIL

4. Miss Hepler broke a bone in her foot while hurrying to answer the telephone. 5. The senior girls spent an enjoyable evening at the College Club reception. 6. We saw our fellows sporting rifle club sweaters and wrestling sweaters, both on the same day. 7. Bijou insisted on having lunch at Bigham's with Miss Coogle. 9. Baseball season starts off with a bang. Walt Pretka hurled a two-hitter that ended with a score of 5-0 in favor of Carnegie. 11. Donald McIntyre, one of the smallest of the small freshmen, tried to hasten the date of the new high school by starting a fire in study hall. Aren't Miss Boyle's bangs becoming? 16. Everyone enjoyed the antics of our Hi-Y members at their dance. 17. Did you see the plug for our senior play on television? What a thrill! 19. Senior play dress rehearsal. A bunch of scared kids! 20. "Dear Ruth" proved to be a wonderful play. 21. We lost, Mr. Cook. Best wishes, Miss Mitchell.

MAY

4. A very lovely spring concert showed that Miss Snodgrass and her music groups had not worked so hard in vain. 23. Everyone went to Kennywood and had a swell time at the school picnic. 10. The G. A. A. Mother-and-Daughter Banquet. 11. The Junior Prom, the biggest event of the year, was one of the loveliest ever. 18. The seniors boarded a bus bound for South Park and a wonderful senior picnic. 25. The Tri-Hi-Y May Queen Dance. It was just as thrilling and pretty as ever.

JUNE

1. The National Honor Society Induction. 3. Baccalaureate services. 5. The senior banquet. 6. A long awaited day in our lives, graduation day, but when we think back over our last four years, we are not so anxious to leave our old alma mater after all.

EDITOR'S NOTE . . .

TO THE SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADES

It was not until this year that the Carnegie schools divided its classes into the 6-3-3 division, thus creating for the first time a junior high school. Although the seventh and eighth grades are in Harding, while the ninth grade is in the high school building, these two grades have separated themselves from the grade school. For this reason they now make their first appearance in the yearbook, and we welcome their bright and shining faces to our pages.

It will be interesting, as time goes on, to see the changes the years bring, to see the little tousled-haired boys grow into tall, sophisticated seniors, to watch the girls develop into sleek and glamorous creatures. Time does move on, and the pages of the Voyager may surprise even fond parents as the years go by.

From now on, the routine of taking pictures will be simpler, and when a staff member pops his head into a classroom and calls out, "All from Allison to Deak," everyone from Allison to Deak will get up and leave to have his picture taken, and not just Allison and Deak. We have appreciated your eager cooperation in the picture-taking, and we know you will not feel you are quite such strangers when you arrive here as freshmen. Every senior was once a seventh-grader, and when the time comes, you too will run the activities here in the high school, score those winning plays on our teams, and shine on social occasions.

And so, the staff wishes to welcome you to the Voyager. We shall be watching you as you come along.
