DEDICATION

Ay, tear her tattered ensign down!
Long has it waved on high,
And many an eye has danced to see
That banner in the sky . . .

It was 1896, and William Jennings Bryan was clamoring for free silver, the great Pullman strike had been settled, and red flannel underwear was the rage. Keeping in step with these earth-shaking events, the progressive little city of Carnegie rented enough rooms from the W. C. T. U. to create a high school. The teaching was performed by Professor George and Miss Florence P. Davis, who must have presented an awesome combination, for all but eighteen of the seventy-five pupils failed. In 1899 the townspeople erected a building which contained only the front portion of today's time-worn structure. The rear of the building and the gymnasium were added in 1914. These fifty-six years of continuous use have not dented one inch the pride of the Carnegie alumnus in his alma mater, but their effect on the anatomy of the building has been catastrophic. Recently we have been bombarded with falling plaster, which fortunately has not affected the crania of our distinguished faculty or their brilliant students. We all hope the plaster of the new school will be of a much better quality.

None of these defects, however, are seen by us, the last graduating class from this building that has served us so faithfully. We treasure the memories and the ancient glories that this building stands for. Our new school will combine the finest engineering skills with the best materials available, but it must be infused with something more dear and precious before it can replace the old school in our hearts.

ADMINISTRATION

AWARD NUMBER I

FOR OUTSTANDING
DIRECTION
IN THE FIELD OF EDUCATION

Dr. Roy M. Hickes

From the moment he came to us from Glassport four years ago, Dr. Hickes won the respect, confidence, and admiration of the entire Carnegie student body. The addition of several new teachers and the building of the new school are only a few of the beneficial changes which he has proposed. With him at the helm, we are sure that Carnegie will remain one of the best school systems in Pennsylvania.

Mr. James E. Knarr

After an absence of twelve years, Mr. James E. Knarr has returned to Carnegie High School to accept the position of administrative assistant. Mr. Knarr, after graduating from Burgettstown High School, attended Pennsylvania State University and University of Pittsburgh. After this he taught at Stowe Township High School for seven years. Then he came to Carnegie High School, where his father had been principal, and taught mathematics for five years. During the past twelve years Mr. Knarr has occupied a position at Columbia Steel and Shafting Works. The entire student body welcomes Mr. Knarr back.

Mr. Lloyd T. Garrett

Mr. Garrett, having now completed his second year as principal of Harding School and the Carnegie Junior High School, gets along very well with the students. The boys and girls visit him often—some because they must do so, but most of them because they like to talk to him. Mr. Garrett understands the students and helps them in everything because he has three children of his own.

Miss Ruth Walton

Miss Ruth Walton, a resident of Carnegie, is Dr. Hickey's very able secretary. Miss Walton, although she is always busy, is willing to lend a helping hand whenever needed and has therefore gained many friends in C. H. S.

Miss Barbara Williams

Barbara Williams, known to all of us as Barb, occupies the position of Mr. Knarr's secretary. She enjoys her work, and we all agree she's doing a fine job. Barb is very active and is interested in the Golden-Rule Tri-Hi-Y, which she sponsors. With her splendid personality she has won herself many friends.

Miss Virginia McGregor

Miss McGregor is a graduate of the Pittsburgh Hospital School of Nursing. She has given her services as a registered nurse to all Carnegie schools. She is most often seen at Harding School, where she is concerned over the least little scratch and bruise. You may have also seen her driving around Carnegie in her Plymouth.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

President James Firth

Vice President Benjamin Kahn

Secretary Harry Garner

The Board of Education is composed of a group of men who, when they meet the first Monday of each month, have at heart the interests of all students of both the high school and the grade schools, as well as those of the taxpayer. It is their duty to see that any school problems brought before their attention receive the best possible solution and that this solution is carried out. Through their untiring efforts the new high school, which is so much needed in Carnegie, is now in the process of becoming a reality. The VOYAGER staff is grateful to and proud of these men who so unselfishly work to make better the Carnegie school system.

STUDENT FACULTY

President Larry Porter
 Secretary Lorna Diebold

The Student Faculty is an organization composed of two officers representing each club and each class in the school. This group has the job of choosing the dates for dances, assemblies, proms, plays, and other events which occur during the school year. It also approves new members to the clubs and decides on whether or not there should be corsages for the proms. The Student Faculty was started in 1944 and has been an active organization since then. It meets on the third Thursday of every month under the advice of Miss Nesbitt. Miss Mason has the job of Calendar Chairman.

SENIORS

AWARD NUMBER II

FOR THE OUTSTANDING
ACTORS AND ACTRESSES
OF THE YEAR

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

The Senior Class of '55 chose as our class officers Doug Chidlow, president; Bob Kyle, vice president; Gertrude Obenour, secretary; and Janice Mitry, treasurer.

Doug is one of our busiest seniors, and is always dashing in and out of Room 14 trying to get information for our class or making announcements. In selecting committee chairmen for various class activities, Doug has used excellent judgment.

Bob, who is mostly seen around the vicinity of Miss Nesbitt's room, is Doug's right-hand man for our class business. Presenting the magazine awards was one of Bob's responsibilities.

Gertrude has spent much of her spare time in writing letters for our class, most of which were thank-you notes.

The most interesting job—but not the easiest—is held by Janice. Jan has untiringly reminded us to pay our dues every week for months, and her friendly manner has really made us more than willing to pay.

RUSSELL ADZIMA

Russ—or Speed, as he is more commonly known about our halls—is really tops in basketball and baseball. Although he appears shy, his slow, mischievous smile seems to attract the girls. Out of school he can be found with the Rosslyn Heights gang.

CLASS HISTORY

We came to C. H. S. as freshmen—a little scared and very expectant. Getting lost was no trouble, but finding the elevator was awfully hard. It was a lot of fun—being in high school, even on the day when some of the girls came to school with straight hair and no make-up at the order of the old G. A. A. members.

Sophomores—and still underclassmen. But we showed the juniors and seniors we knew how to do things; our class election was the biggest and the best. First a primary, then another, and at last the day came. "France for President" said the posters; "France for President" said his campaign manager; and France was the president. Tom Cooper, Ed Unger and Ruth Rankin were our other officers. Under their leadership we held our sophomore dance "Moonlight and Roses." The dance was a great success: the red and white decorations, gay; the attendance, very good; the profits, large.

Then we were juniors. We elected Larry Porter, Don McNeil, Joan Kopko, and Fred Mathias as class officers. The first junior play, "Curious Savage," was accredited to our class. Our prom was "Stairway to the Stars" with blue and white decorations, cute programs, and a white satin stairway.

Seniors—at last. The sophomores asked us to help them get lost, and it was our turn to initiate. What fun! Our officers were Doug Chidlow, Bob Kyle, Gert Obenour, and Janice Mitry. "Cinderella Ball," our senior dance, had purple and white adornments, cookies the same colors, and a king and queen—Ernie Dunlap and his date. The school elected George Sorbara and Ruth Rankin as King and Queen of Sports; Gert Obenour as May Queen; and Ruth Rankin, Ramona Wroblewski, Ethel Jean Byers, and Nancy Staff as attendants to the May Queen. Each senior wore a satchel to publicize our play, "Old Doc."

Each of us has our own special memories of these four years—some sad, some glad. But I know that none of us would have wanted to miss any of them.

Best of luck in the future!

MAY QUEEN

The election of a May Queen is an annual event in Carnegie High School. The election and coronation of the queen are sponsored by the Tri-Hi-Y's.

Ballots containing the names of all the senior girls are distributed to the students. The girl receiving the highest number of votes is queen, and the four runners-up serve as her attendants.

The night of the May Queen Dance is an exciting one for everybody. About ten o'clock the floor is cleared, and a hush falls over the audience as they await the appearance of the queen. The queen enters, takes her place on the throne, and is then crowned by the president of the Original Hi-Y.

This year we have selected Gert Obenour as queen. As head majorette Gert has led our band through many drills. Gert was also a member of our senior play cast.

The honor of first attendant went to Ruth Rankin. Ruthie was head cheerleader this year, and her vim and vigor have been felt throughout the school.

Ramona Wroblewski was chosen second attendant. Mona was one of our majorettes and was certainly deserving of this honor.

Our third attendant was Ethel Jean Byers. Ethel's warm smile and wonderful personality make her popular among her classmates.

Nancy Staaf was fourth attendant. Nancy has a wonderful sense of humor and loves to tease. She made a good "Ma" in our senior play.

SENIOR PROM

On December 10, after a great deal of hard work and worry, the seniors put on their dance entitled Cinderella Ball. It was a beautiful night with snowflakes outside and royal purple and white decorations inside.

Ernie Dunlap and Evelyn Mizerski from Scott were crowned king and queen of the ball by Doug Chidlow, president of the senior class. Afterwards refreshments—purple punch and tiny cookies decorated in silver and purple—were served. At twelve o'clock the lights dimmed in the ballroom and the coach turned into an automobile.

MAGAZINE CAMPAIGN

On the first day of school the seniors began their biggest money-making project, the Magazine Campaign.

Shirley McNavish received five dollars as high salesgirl for the first day. The campaign lasted several weeks, and the seniors sold magazines amounting to $2,235.92. We received a profit of $691.76.

Pauline Battaglia, Virginia Mathe, and Shirley McNavish acted as room captains. Laverne Bell and Billie Buchko served as business managers, and Joan Kopko was secretary-treasurer.

Daneen Quinn was awarded a watch for the highest sales, and Laverne Bell received a camera for second highest sales.

The profits which were received from this campaign are used to pay for the publishing of the VOYAGER.

SENIOR PLAY

In the middle of February, when Miss Elsie Bodnar announced the cast for Old Doc, there was a lot of joy. Two weeks later, when rehearsals were going strong and lines had to be learned and cues had to be remembered, the cast began to wonder if it was worth it. Then the measles paid a visit to the cast, and rehearsals were skipped for a few days. After that came the flu, and those who were able attended rehearsals (that was very few). It's a wonder Miss Bodnar didn't turn gray from worrying about lines, cues, sickness, and the giggling spells that several actresses often got. But on Friday night, March 25, the play was a success. The audience enjoyed very much the story of the young man just graduating from medical school, who had to decide whether to work with the well-to-do in Boston or to be a country doctor as his father, Old Doc, had been. In the end, after the death of Old Doc, he chose his career at home with his friends and relations where he belonged.

LIFE, LEADING TO SUCCESS

VOYAGER STAFF

Patricia Litvak
Editor

Clorine Schiavi
Assistant Editor

David Sawhill
Picture Editor

The work of the VOYAGER staff is cut out for every member. The editor, who is Pat Litvak, selects a staff from the many applicants and, during the summer, plans the yearbook. When school opens, contacts must be made with the photographer, printer, and engraver.

As soon as possible the pictures which are to be used in the VOYAGER are taken. After the proofs are returned, plans are made for retakes.

The write-ups in the VOYAGER are written by the staff members. Each article is read by Miss Dickenson, the faculty advisor, who approves it or returns it for rewriting.

The pictures, write-ups, and sketches are prepared for their journey to the printer and engraver. The covers for the VOYAGER are also ordered from the printer.

Without the co-operation of each staff member, the faculty, and the school body, producing a yearbook would be impossible.

When you open and read your VOYAGER, don't forget that much planning and work were necessary to make this VOYAGER a success.

THE SEE STAFF

There is never rest for the busy members of the See Staff. The reporters are usually found in the halls asking questions of the week, interviewing the seniors, or writing about some social activity or event which will be printed in the See. Each year the See Staff participates in the Western Pennsylvania School Press Association Conference, which is held at the University of Pittsburgh. At this conference the members of the staff have the opportunity to gather new ideas in all fields of newspaper work, ideas which will make the See a better paper. Without the sponsorship of Miss Mason and the hard work of its editor, Dolores Dombrowski, the See would not be the fine paper it is.

THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

President Virginia Mathe

Vice President LaVerne Bell

Secretary Arleen Boyda

The National Honor Society is the only honorary society in our school. Its pin is a keystone with a flaming torch on it and the letters L, S, S, and H. These letters stand for leadership, scholarship, service, and honor and are the standards by which its members are picked. The members are selected by the faculty at the beginning of the second semester of school and are inducted at a beautiful service held during the week of graduation. At this ceremony the seniors wear their caps and gowns, and the new members receive their membership cards. Membership in this society is the goal of many students in the United States and is therefore a great honor when attained.

DRAMATEUR CLUB

President	Don Gersztzoff
Vice President	Louis Lewis
Secretary	Maxine Kanoza
Treasurer	Kathy Julian
Sponsor	Mr. Cross

The Dramateur Club, sponsored by Mr. Cross, has many interesting activities.

Business meetings are held after school on the first Thursday of each month. A social meeting is held once a month in the evening, at which time the members are entertained with skits, and refreshments are served.

New applicants must present a skit or pantomime to the members. Those who receive the most votes from the members for their performance become new members.

The most exciting event of the year is the initiation of new members. They wear odd attire to school and are "entertained" by the old members the same evening.

On December 18, 1954, the Dramateur and French Clubs co-sponsored the dance, "White Christmas."

The members were invited to attend Carnegie Tech to see the play, Uncle Vanya, on January 14, 1955.

To end a wonderful year, the Dramateur Club picnic was held for the members in June.

CAMERA CLUB

President David Sawhill
 Vice President Tom Cooper
 Secretary Carol Jean Farinella
 Treasurer Dolores Soho
 Sponsor Mr. Burkett

The Camera Club was founded specifically for the purpose of teaching the fundamentals of photography. Mr. Burkett, who is the sponsor, has a thorough knowledge of photographic technique and has a broad background of practical experience.

Under his expert guidance the members become familiar with the parts of a camera, learn the skills necessary to take good pictures, to make wise purchase of films and photographic equipment, and to develop, print, and enlarge. With the exception of films and papers, the club furnishes the necessary equipment to develop, print, and enlarge. The darkroom is adequately furnished to meet the needs of the members.

Each year the club holds its famous initiation. This ceremony is notorious because of the "perfume," "horse meat," "candles," and "shocker." The club also holds a dance each year jointly with the Commercial Club.

DELTA TRI-HI-Y

President	Arleen Boyda
Vice President	Elaine Gordon
Secretary	Janice Sperring
Treasurer	Ruth Duff
Chaplain	Sally English
Sponsor	Mrs. Brenner

The Delta Tri-Hi-Y Club is one of the two Tri-Hi-Y clubs in Carnegie High School. It is a wonderful organization sponsored by the Y. M. C. A.

The Delta Tri-Hi-Y this year is composed of sophomore, junior, and senior girls, who help make the club outstanding in ideals and activities. Some of the activities which take place are: the convocation service at Heinz Memorial Chapel, council meetings, Christmas parties, and dances.

This year the Delta Tri-Hi-Y is happy to have Mrs. Helen Brenner as a sponsor. She has helped us many times with her helpful and wise guidance.

ORIGINAL HI-Y

President	Donald Caroleo
Vice President	David Sawhill
Secretary	Douglas Chidlow
Treasurer	Thomas Cooper
Chaplain	Larry Porter
Sponsor	Mr. Logan

The Original Hi-Y, under the sponsorship of Mr. Logan, strives to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character. It is therefore one of our most active clubs. It is the job of the members of this club to decorate the halls of C. H. S. each Christmas. This year the Hi-Ys and Tri-Hi-Ys of our school joined with those of other schools in holding dances at the Y. M. C. A. The Hi-Y also held a dance for our own school, which was a great success. Because of the religious and social life of this club, it has become one of the most popular in our school.

GOLDEN RULE TRI-HI-Y

President	Ruth Rankin
Vice President	Joanna Bernaciak
Secretary	Lorna Diebold
Treasurer	Carol Jean Farinella
Chaplain	Donna Couch
Sponsor	Miss Barbara Williams

One of the most outstanding and active clubs in C. H. S. is the Golden-Rule Tri-Hi-Y, under the leadership of Miss Barbara Williams.

The club's purpose, to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character, is well illustrated by its donation of canned goods and a turkey to the Salvation Army at Christmas. Several CARE packages were sent overseas, also.

Besides its business meetings, there are many social meetings, and the main social affair of the year is the May Queen Dance in the spring.

A weekend at Camp Kon-O-Kwee, convocation at Heinz Chapel, swimming parties at the Y. M. C. A. and council meetings (at which one of our representatives is secretary) are a few of this club's activities.

NOVUS HI-Y

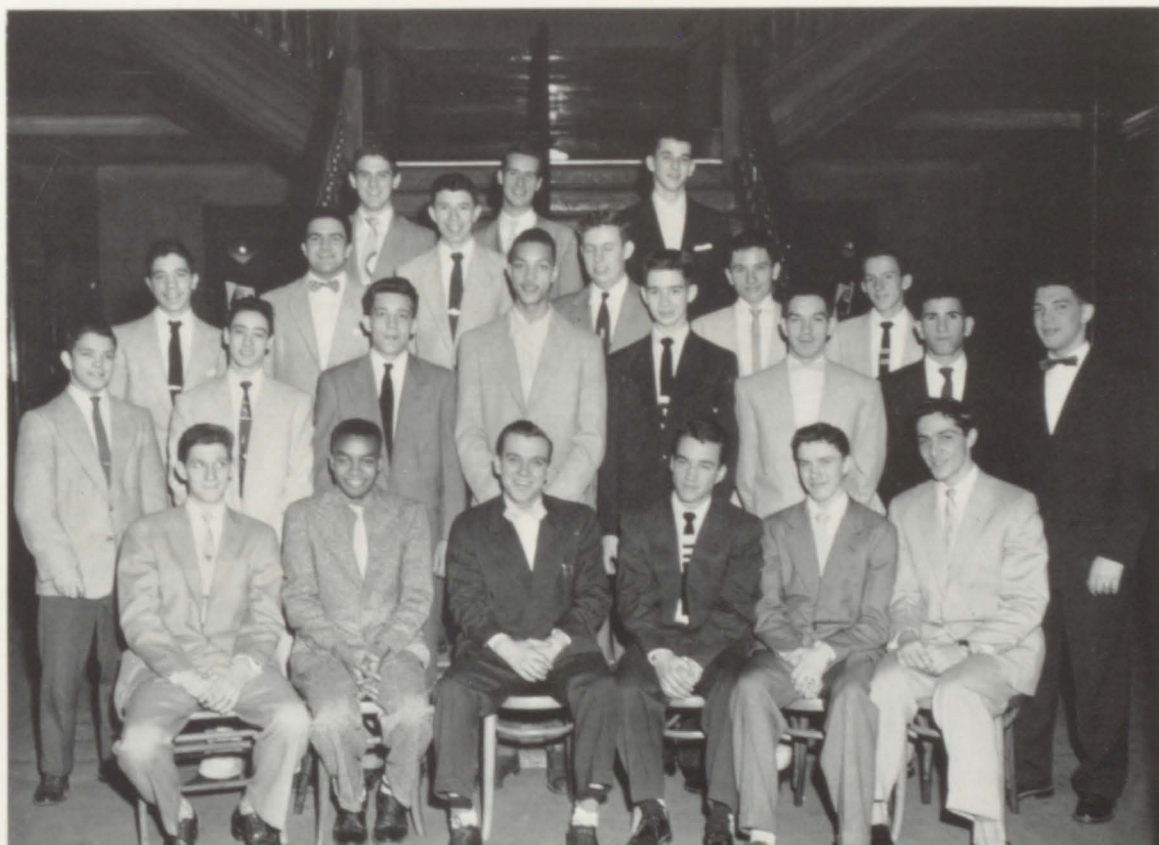

President	Don McNeil
Vice President	Carl Davis
Secretary	Louis Lewis
Treasurer	Frank Stasik
Chaplain	Pete Viviano
Sponsor	Mr. VanArsdale

This club, organized last year, has fast become one of the most popular clubs in the school. It was sprouted from the Original Hi-Y but received its own charter at the convocation services held this fall at the Heinz Chapel in Pittsburgh, and inducted its own members November 17.

Sponsored by Mr. VanArsdale, the group has participated in activities that include sending representatives to the Older Boys Conference in Washington, Pennsylvania. It is also represented at the District Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y Conferences, a governmental body organized to plan activities for the participating clubs.

One of these was a swimming party held at the Y. M. C. A. on January 10. The Y groups are the only clubs in the school with outside affiliation, namely the Young Men's Christian Association.

G. A. A.

President	Joan Michigan
Vice President	Joan Kopko
Secretary	Pauline Wagner
Treasurer	Fernanda Capecci
Sponsor	Miss Greschner

The Girls' Athletic Association is one of the most active clubs in the school. Girls with sports ability are usually found participating in this club. Membership is open to those girls who are interested in sports and have some ability. The applicants must display their abilities for the old members, and they are voted on.

This association renders a valuable service to the school and to the athletic program by managing the refreshment stand at the home football games. Two traditions of the club are the skating party at Sports Haven and the Mother-and-Daughter Banquet held in the spring. The G. A. A. is under the sponsorship of our gym teacher, Miss Helen Greschner.

President	Ed Kolodziek
Vice President	Joe Aston
Secretary	Bill Penn
Treasurer	Frank Stasik
Sponsor	Mr. Zaney

All C. H. S. athletes would like to become a member of the Varsity "C", but to be a member, the boys must earn a letter in one of these sports: football, basketball, wrestling, or baseball. The main purpose of this club is to earn money for the injury fund, which helps to pay for injuries received in any of the above sports. This year the Varsity "C" sponsored a Halloween Masquerade Ball, complete with a floor show, to raise money for this fund. The dance proved to be a great success. Mr. Zaney is the sponsor of the Varsity "C".

This is the twenty-fourth year for the Commercial Club. The club is an organization of great importance to the commercial students. Anyone is eligible for membership. This year the Commercial Club, together with the Camera Club, sponsored their dance on Friday, February 18. The club is under the leadership of Miss Boyle, who is always willing to lend a helping hand.

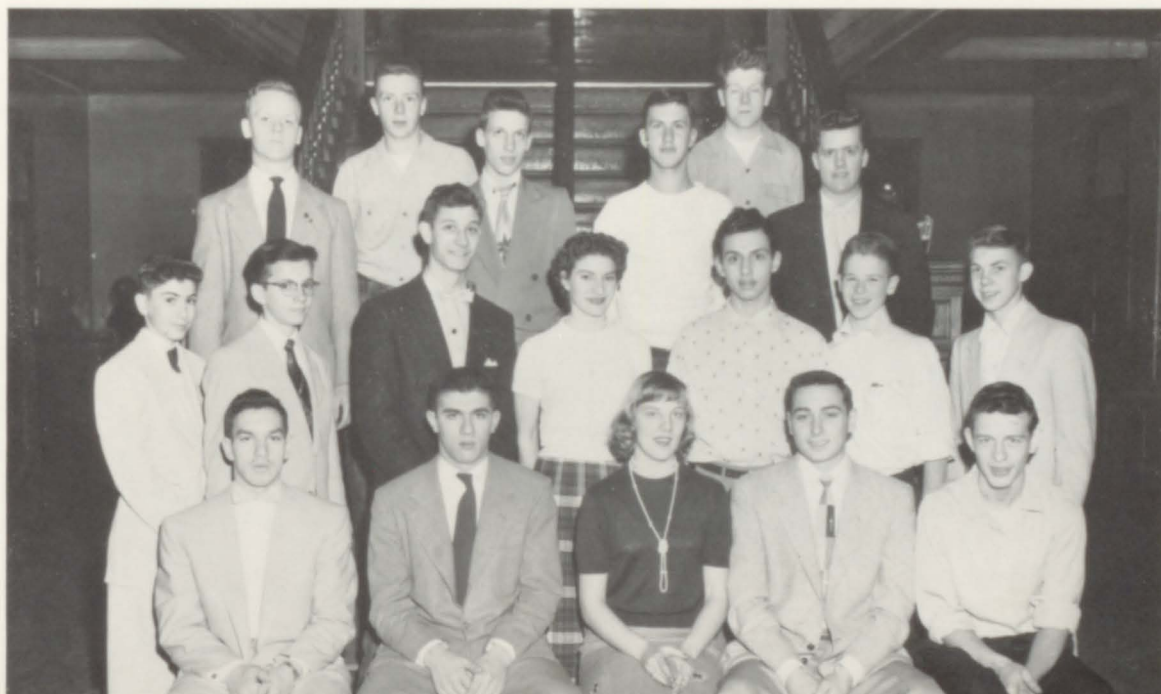

RIFLE CLUB

President	Louis Vitale
Vice President	Charles Davis
Executive Officer	Ronald France
Secretary	Eleanor Houy
Treasurer	Robert Wade
Sponsor	Mr. Smith

Students, if ever you want to join an active club—and I mean active—try out for the Rifle Club of Carnegie High School. Mr. Smith is our new instructor. To try out for this club, each person is given ten shots. The meetings are held every Thursday at 6:30. Both boys and girls are active in the Rifle Club. Every year matches are held with other local schools. For social events there is usually a dance or a skating party to help pay for new equipment. Our Rifle Club is growing bigger and bigger each year since it was organized in 1947.

This is a special thanks for the good deeds of our former instructor, Mr. Robb. We thank you for making our Rifle Club a big success and wish you luck in all you do.

FRENCH CLUB

President	Henry Chiesa
Vice President	William Edie
Secretary	Virginia Mathe
Treasurer	Nancy Miller
Sponsor	Mr. Palonis

In the 1950-1951 term, the French Club had its beginning under the direction of Miss Coogle. Her dog, Bijou, was—and still is—the mascot. This year the twenty-four members are under the sponsorship of Mr. Palonis. The new members take part in a formal induction service led by the officers. The main purpose of the club is to better the understanding of the students in the French language and ways of living. Two social events are held each year: a dance and a picnic. This year the French Club went together with the Drama Club for the dance. The club is proud to say that the treasury has greatly increased during the past two years.

GIRLS' ENSEMBLE

For the first year in C. H. S., the Triple Trio of nine has increased to the Girls' Ensemble of twelve. The girls are chosen at the end of every school year, and the following year they entertain various clubs and social groups with a variety of different types of music. Although Mr. Bandyk has had a terrific time trying to get them all together at once for practices, the evening of the Spring Concert, with the girls in their beautiful gowns, amidst their sweet harmony, is the reward for all his efforts.

DOUBLE QUARTET

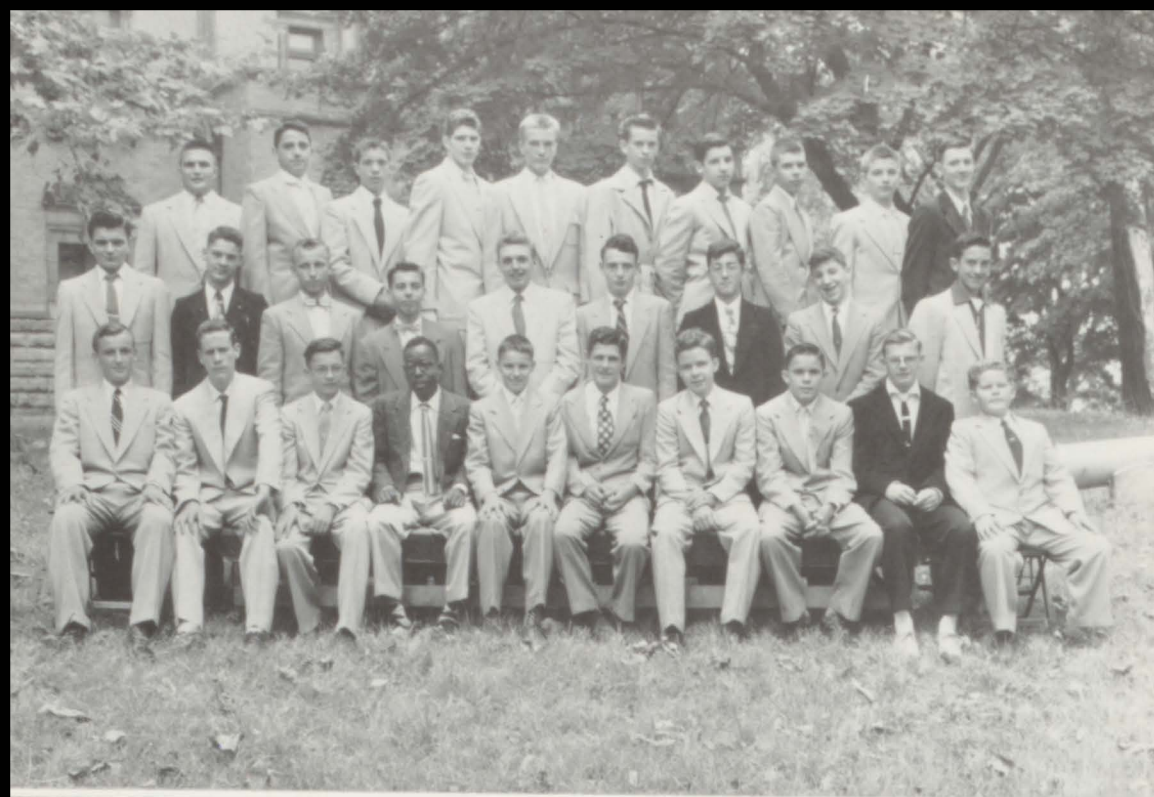

Not being chosen until after the school year has begun accounts for the fact that the Double Quartet isn't heard from until Christmas. The memory of barber shop harmony and stirring spirituals lingers with us after their main performance of the year at the Spring Concert. The Girls' Ensemble and Double Quartet are noted for their special novelty number that they do together in the Spring Concert.

CHOIR

The choir, the largest choral group in Carnegie High, is composed of one hundred mixed voices. This group has furnished entertainment in the annual Christmas program and has entertained the students of South Fayette High School.

The group is under the direction of Mr. John Bandyk and meets for rehearsals every Tuesday and Thursday during the fourth period.

Eight members of the choir represented Carnegie High in the annual Allegheny County Chorus this year. Five other members represented Carnegie High in the District Chorus.

The other music groups are G Clef, Glee Club, Girls' Ensemble, and Double Quartet. These groups bring forth a very inspiring program at the annual Spring Concert.

BAND

The Carnegie High School Band, directed by Mr. Walter H. Cameron, has again entertained the student body all through the year with fine programs. It was seen during half-times at our football games going through fancy formations and playing smart marches and at the school for our grid-iron pep-rallies. For Christmas, it presented a program at each of the elementary schools. For Halloween and Memorial Day it participated in the local parades.

Of course, the highlight comes in the spring at the annual Band Concert. During this concert, besides playing classics and marches, the band presents a stage show featuring their soloists and guest stars. Matinees of the concert are performed for the grade schools and for Woodville State Hospital.

This year the student leader was David Sawhill. Handling the money for the band was Gert Obenour.

Besides the musicians themselves, the flag-twirlers and majorettes march with the band and add a touch of color. Head majorette was Gert Obenour, and leading the flag-twirlers was Patricia Houy.

JUNIOR PLAY

CURTAIN CALL FOR CLIFFORD

The dramatic talent of our junior class was displayed at the Carnegie Library auditorium when the three-act comedy, CURTAIN CALL FOR CLIFFORD, was presented under the direction of Miss Elsie E. Bodnar.

The story of the play describes another high school class, from Rockwood High, preparing for their play. Miss Troutliver, the English teacher, is director of the play. There is trouble when Biff Reese tries to ruin the show because his girl, Donna, is playing opposite another boy, Clifford. But Clifford comes through to make it a big success and, of course, wins Donna.

Everyone will remember the rehearsals when Miss Troutliver, trying out new heels, fell, or when a few uninvited guests jumped out the rear window to escape Miss Bodnar's hand of justice. We will also remember that matinee when Donna couldn't get her pin off and when no one knew where the gun was except Clifford, who had it in his pocket.

The night of the show will remain at the top of the list for many people. The abundance of tears, applause, pride, receipts, relief, and pleasure made it an evening well worth remembering.

SPORTSMANSHIP

Sitting: Dr. Hickes, Miss Greschner, Mr. Cross. Standing: Mr. Sawhill, Mr. Adams, Mr. Stockum, Mr. Knarr, Mr. Zaney, Mr. Giannangelo.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The coaches of the various sports and the two physical education teachers compose this group. Probably more influential with the student body than any other group, it schedules games, arranges for transportation, and handles the monetary affairs of our athletic program. Though few pupils are interested in the school's budget or philosophy of education, everyone is interested about the date of the Scott-Carnegie football game or the next wrestling match.

CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleaders are seen at football games, basketball games, and sometimes at the wrestling matches. They plan and conduct the pep meetings and the bonfire before the Scott game. All summer they practice hard so that, when fall comes, they will be able to cheer the football team to victory and properly represent C. H. S.

Yes, cheering takes a lot of time, hard work, and liniment for sore muscles, but just ask any of the cheerleaders and she'll be sure to tell you it was worth it. All here? Let's cheer!

Ruthie Rankin—bouncy and energetic; her ideas for new cheers and revisions for the old ones were always welcomed by the rest of the girls. This is one cheerleader who will really miss cheering.

Virginia Mathe—neat and fun-loving; Gigi always made cheering more interesting and amusing with her funny jokes and stories.

Ruthie Ludwig—agile and witty; for two years she's been late for almost every game and practice, but when she smiled and offered her ingenious excuses, no one ever minded.

Mary Jo Walker—able and crazy; Mary Jo could never stop clowning—or blushing when someone caught her clowning.

Dee Soho—worried and sweet; Dee always worried about looking nice or acting right, but she never really needed to.

Fran Young—cute and neat; eager to please and intelligent best describe Fran.

Nancy Piech—gay and carefree; although only a sophomore, Nancy could out-yell all the rest of the girls and could kick a football better than most of the boys.

FOOTBALL

CARNEGIE 25 - ELIZABETH 6. Hatcher's thirty-yard pass to Conley broke the Elizabeth High Warriors' backs in Carnegie's season opener. Previously, Penn had hit off left tackle for another Carnegie score. Later, in the fourth quarter, Carnegie gained two more touchdowns on a recovered fumble and on Hatcher's bulling charge from the five-yard line. Elizabeth's only score came on a forty-yard pass to Meyer . . .

CARNEGIE 26 - CARMICHAELS 0. Continuing on the victory trail in the home opener, Carnegie's powerful line didn't allow Carmichaels a first down until the second half and gave only seven yards' rushing to Carmichaels in the first half. Carnegie scored on long runs by Penn, Sorbara, Hatcher, and a Sorbara-to-Wade pass. This was Carnegie's second win of the campaign . . .

RANKIN 20 - CARNEGIE 0. Carnegie's line was again the biggest single factor between defeat and victory. Unlike the two preceding games, Carnegie's line, which had done yeomanlike work, cracked, letting the swift Rankin backs operate at will. Rankin scored twice in the first half and once in the second . . . CARNEGIE 26 -

MOON 12. Carnegie regained her winning ways in time to trip up Moon 26-12. Carnegie's line drove ahead time and again to touchdown, while their defensive unit didn't budge an inch. Bruno startled the crowd by intercepting a forward pass early in the game and running 81 yards with it for a touchdown. Moon's two touchdowns were scored on a pass from Gross to Tierney and on a fumble picked up by Ritchie . . .

STOWE 14 - CARNEGIE 0. Led by the powerful running of Harry Guydan and the clever quarterbacking of Ron Tarquinio, Stowe triumphed over Carnegie 14-0. Carnegie's line was no match for Guydan's slashes, and Tarquinio's passing was deadly, while Carnegie's offense was held to a standstill by the Stallion line. This was Carnegie's first loss in Class A competition . . .

BRIDGEVILLE 14 - CARNEGIE 7. In a non-league game, the Bridgeville Indians trounced the favored Carnegie High squad 14-7. In the first quarter it looked as if Carnegie would live up to its advance billing. On the Tartan's third down Sorbara threw a touchdown pass down the middle to Bruno.

The play covered 73 yards. Jones and Fiorentini scored for Bridgeville . . . GLASSPORT 28 - CARNEGIE 0. A dispirited Carnegie High squad only went through the motions in taking a sound licking from Glassport 28-0. Led by Baur, their fullback, the Glassport squad slashed time and again through the heavier Carnegie line for short gains. Long passes to Carnegie's flanks completed the rout . . . SHALER 33 - CARNEGIE 7. Completing its fifth defeat of the season, Carnegie looked its worst this year. Shaler scored at will and added injury to insult by hurting eight of Carnegie's eleven. Carnegie's lone touchdown came on a 60-yard pass play from Klim to Conley, while Etzel and Templin scored twice for Shaler, and Goss once . . . CARNEGIE

13 - CRAFTON 6. Carnegie squeaked through to victory over a surprisingly tough Crafton team, 13-6, in its ninth game of the season. Penn and Hatcher scored for Carnegie, Penn scoring on a beautiful 47-yard run. Crafton scored when Hatcher dropped a punt on his own one-yard line and Crafton recovered. Three downs later, Crafton scored . . . SCOTT 14 - CARNEGIE 6. Carnegie almost humbled a powerful and undefeated Scott team in their last game of the season. The key play came with fifty seconds left in the game, when Bruno missed a first down on Scott's two yard line by inches. In the scoring department, Sorbara captured the honors for Carnegie, Seaman and Arbuckle for Scott.

Last year's sectional champions from Carnegie were severely depleted by graduation, but from all visible signs at the beginning of the season it looked like a good year for Coach Stockum's neophytes. Early in the spring that dull whack of a ball banging into a glove and the crack of bat on horsehide were ringing through the halls of Carnegie High. Only four lettermen returned—Don Conley, Ed Kolodziek, Russ Adzima, and Tom Cooper, but they added experience and hustle to the group of promising youngsters who tried out. The first game of the season was with Coraopolis at their field.

GIRLS' SPORTS

The girls have had a well-rounded sports program this past year. Volleyball and basketball were played in each gym class, and teams were chosen in each class.

This year a new feature was added. An intramural basketball and volleyball tournament was set up. Each home room formed a team, and they competed against the various rooms. Room 12 was the champion in both volleyball and basketball.

MR. H. HOWARD LEE

Absent from the halls of C. H. S. this year was a man we will not soon forget. After eighteen years as principal he has accepted the position of chemistry instructor at Washington and Jefferson College. Born in Houston, Pennsylvania, he was educated at Crosscreek Township High School and Muskingum College. In 1921 he arrived at Carnegie to teach science. In 1937 he succeeded Mr. R. E. Knarr to the post of principal. Through the years he has advised the curious freshmen, encouraged the eager sophomores, co-operated with the busy juniors, and guided the mighty seniors. He acted as financial advisor for the yearbook and other school activities. While we are proud of his new advancement, we are sorry to lose him. The VOYAGER pays tribute to Mr. Howard H. Lee.
