STUDENT LIFE 4

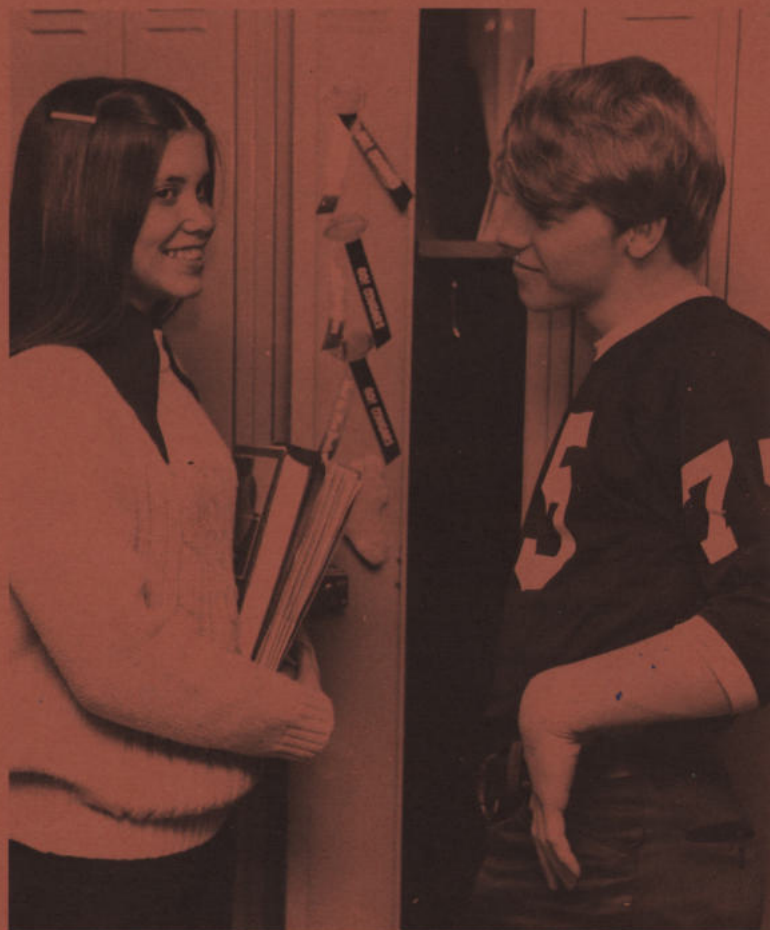

Time it was,
and what a time it was . . .

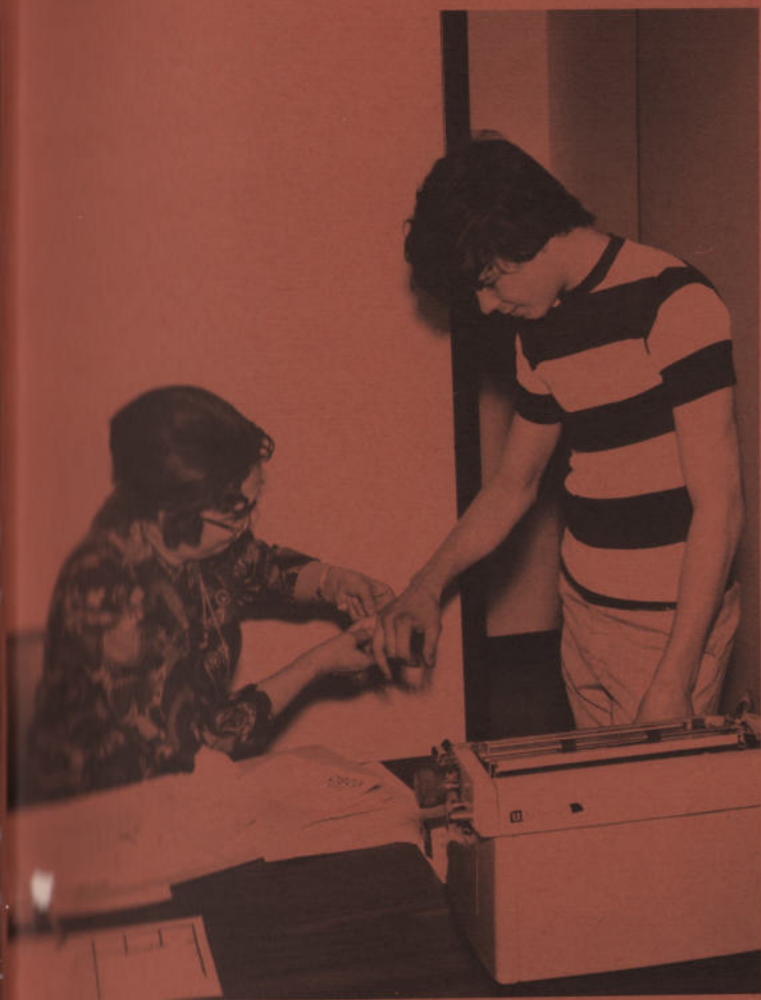

. . . a time of confidences

. . . a time of mixed emotions

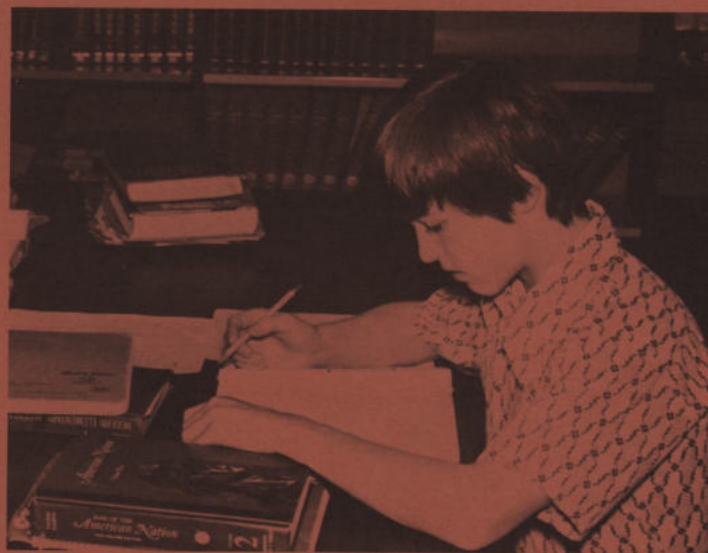

. . . a time for activity

. . . and a time for learning

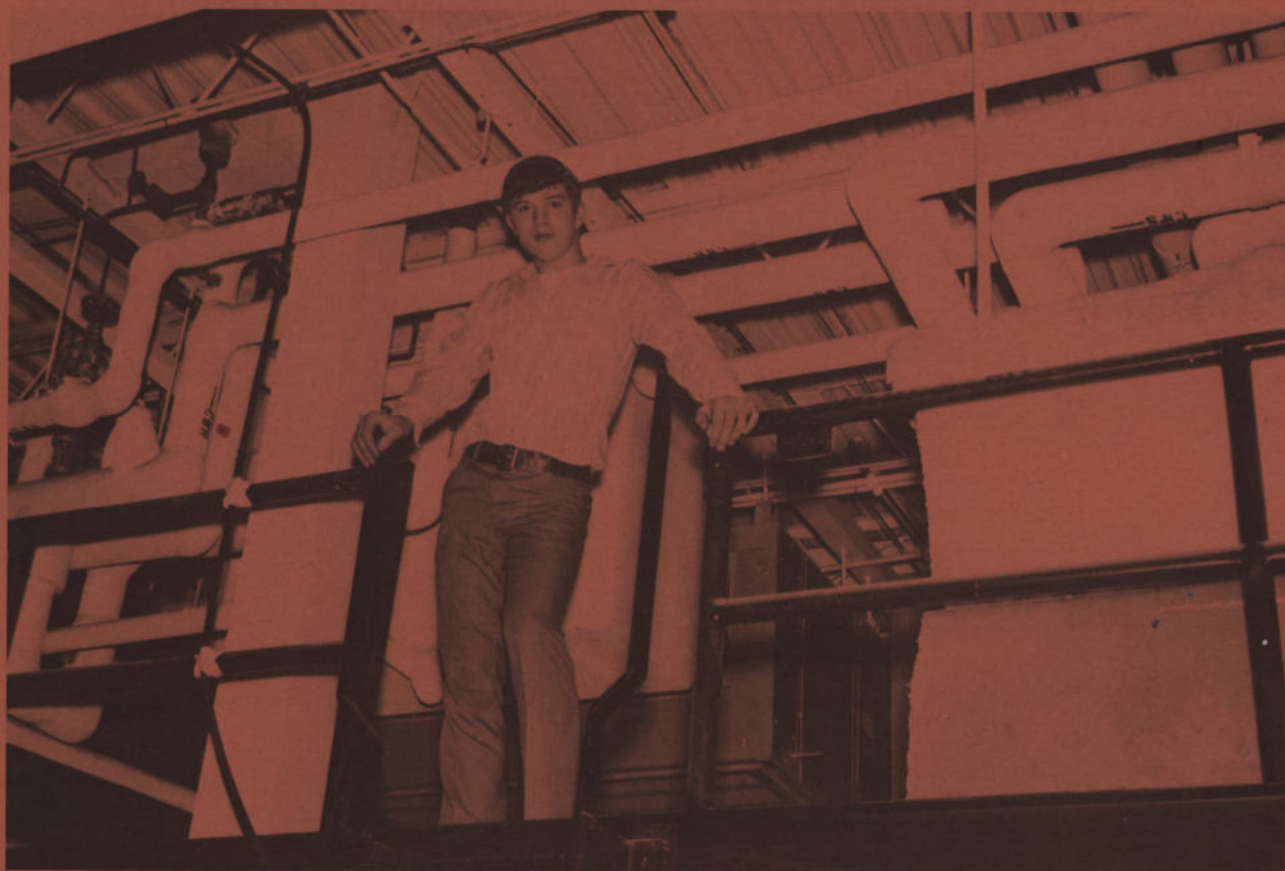

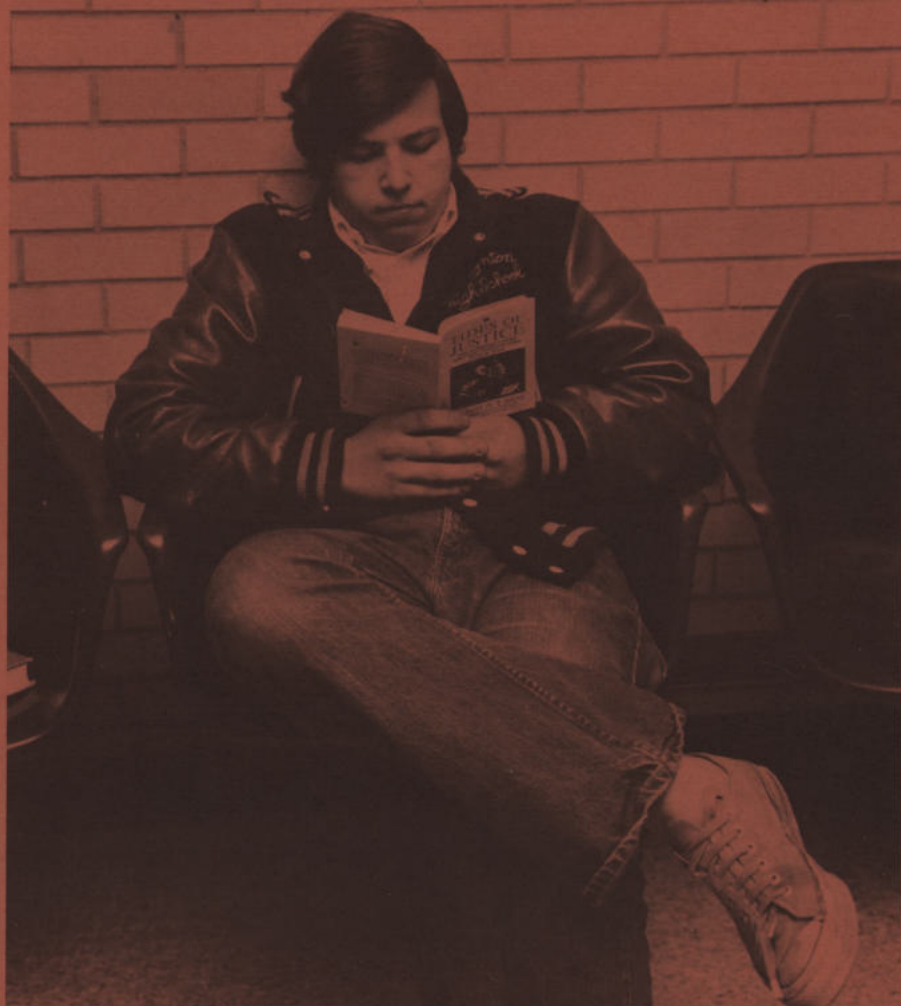

... a time of glory

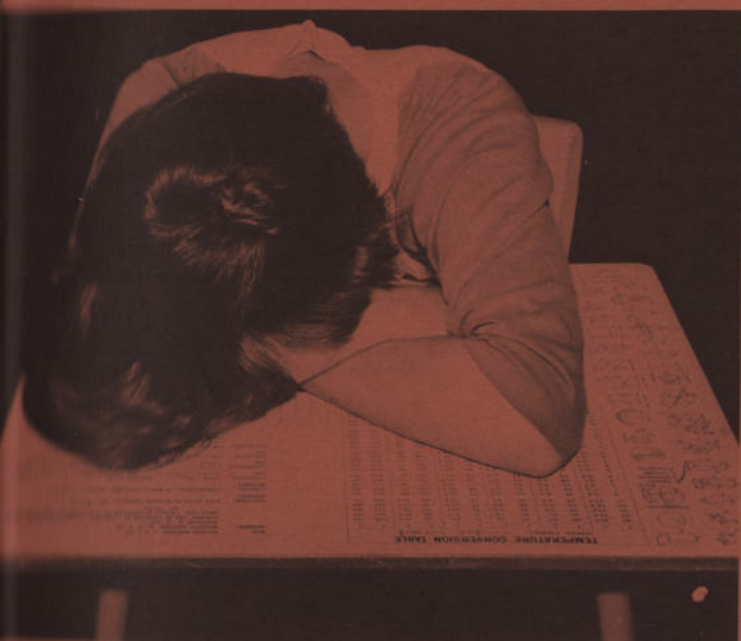

. . . a time for being alone

N.J.H.S.

Long ago . . . it must be . . .
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories
They're all that's left you.

"Bookends Theme"
Simon and Garfunkel

People
 People who need people
 Are the luckiest people in the world.
 We're children
 Needing other children
 And yet letting our grown-up pride
 Hide all the need inside
 Acting more like children

A black and white collage of sports-related cutouts. The collage features various athletes in action, a referee in a striped shirt, a scoreboard, and several text elements. Notable text includes 'KO' in large letters, 'SENIORS' on a banner, 'GOALIES' on a banner, and 'GOALS' on a banner. There are also cutouts of a basketball player with the number 24, a basketball player with the number 23, and a basketball player with the number 31. The collage is set against a dark background.

BASKETBALL

The "Cougars" . . . our "almost team" . . . seven heart-stopping losses by three or less points took considerable luster off a 12-win, 10-loss season . . . turn back at Sto-Rox by two points in the last seven seconds on their court and an 82-81 loss on the Cougar's homeboards with four seconds left on the clock . . . Wait until next year!! . . . Seventeen of the twenty-two games were decided by nine points or less . . . Big Al, our section all-star and M.V.P. of the section . . . Timmy, our all-star at the Christmas tournaments . . . Coles, the Cougar press man . . . Ray and Russ played outstanding defense all year . . . Engle stepped in a little later in the season . . . Mike kept the team hustling . . . Denny another big man . . . Randy's work on the team made games look like "cake" . . . Charles, Mikus, Dorman and Bach rounded out the varsity squad and will return to next year's team . . . Fine Job, Cougars!!!
